Americanism Discussed - "Americanism in School and College" is to be the subject of discussion at the Oregon Civic league luncheon in the Benson hotel Saturday noon, and the speaker will be Dr. Joseph Schaefer, professor of history at the University of Oregon. The meeting is one of a series arranged by A. C. Newill, president of the league, on Americanism. The nominating committee of the league has recommended the reelection of A. C. Newill as president and for directors, Miss Grace Amos, C. B. Cady, M. H. Calef, Arthur M. Church-ill, Mrs. Elliott Corbett and Miss Henrietta Failing. The annual meeting will be held at the luncheon of December R.

Pictures Show Modern Inferno-Mount Katmai, a modern inferno far exceeding Dante's description, was revealed before the Progressive Business Men's club at the Benson hotel, Thursday afternoon, by nature color pictures made by Frank Ives Jones, a Portlander, and by other views, which had been secured by L. G. Folsom of Kodiak, Alaska, the speaker of the day. The realistic views included pictures of how Rodney L. Glisan of Portland, the first tourist to visit the volcano, had reached Katmai's crater.

Alumni to Meet-Alumni and former students of the Oregon Agricultural college will meet Saturday evening, at 8 3 p. m.-Adv. clock at the Imperial hotel.
