

French Sportsmen to Offer Big Purse for Contest Between Dempsey and Carpenter

FORFEIT POSTED TO BEND BOUT

Carpenter Issues Defi to Dempsey; Will Not Be Able to Fight for Ten Months.

PARIS, Dec. 12.—(U. P.)—Georges Carpenter, Europe's heavyweight champion, has officially challenged Jack Dempsey for a match to decide the championship of the world. The champion has posted $5000 as a guarantee to bind the match and prove his sincerity. He offers to meet the American any time at any place for the best price available. He did not name any distance, but he is said to favor 20 rounds or a fight to finish.

SIGNS SHOW CONTRACT

London, Dec. 12.—(I. N. S.)—Georges Carpenter, heavyweight champion of Europe, will not be ready to enter the ring again for at least 10 months, according to an announcement made here today by Nate Lewis of Chicago, famous fight promoter, who is here representing Jack Kearns, the manager of Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion of the world.

"Carpenter refuses to consider a fight in the United States and anyhow he will not be ready to fight again for at least 10 months," said Lewis. "He has signed a vaudeville contract to appear in France and England for which he will receive $40,000 (about $148,000 at the present rate of exchange). This will tie him up until July.

"Carpenter has definitely refused Dominik Tortorich's offer of $21,000 for a fight with Dempsey in New Orleans on March 17.

"I have sent a man to Paris to investigate the report that a French syndicate is being formed to offer $200,000 for a Carpenter-Dempsey fight at Pershing stadium in March. If the agent's report is favorable I shall go to Paris myself.

"It is generally understood that Carpenter favors fighting in England, but it is my personal opinion that he may never enter the ring again. At any rate he will not jeopardize his money-making ability as heavyweight champion of Europe within the next 10 months by fighting.

"C. B. Cochran, the English promoter, is reported to be ready to offer Dempsey $35,000 if he will fight here and it is considered likely that he will accept the offer to meet Dempsey's demand for $200,000 to fight outside of the United States."

Ban Johnson Must Go, Says Comiskey

Chicago, Dec. 12.—(U. P.)—At least one of the three American league insurgents was unimpaired today. C. A. Comiskey, owner of the White Sox, today reiterated his statement that President Johnson must be ousted. There is an indication the insurgents might act to tie up the funds of the league and thereby prevent payment of Johnson, his umpires or office staff. Comiskey was confident charges against the president, growing out of the Mays case, will be upheld in the courts.

Lot of Money Is Needed
It may require $175,000 to $200,000 to send the American athletes to the Antwerp Olympic games. The squad will include track and field athletes, swimmers, cyclists, marksmen, football players, horsemen and fencers, and will sail early in July. The games as at present planned are to start about August 15 and continue three to four weeks.

THE MOON IS NOT MADE OF GREEN CHEESE!

YOU KNEW THAT, OF COURSE, BUT—

Do You Know—
What your body is made of?
How it is nourished by the different foods you eat?
What these foods are made of?
What the different kinds of foods do in the body?
How they do it?
How your body digests, absorbs and assimilates the food?
How to feed children to maintain normal growth and health?
How to select, prepare and combine foods so as to get not only the most and best food for your money, but the greatest return in health?
What "fermentation" and "putrefaction" mean?
How they are caused?
What their effects in your health are?
How to avoid them?
What "acid" and "alkaline" foods are?
Why it is wrong to mix acid and starchy foods at the same meal?
Why some other combinations or mixtures are wrong?
What those all-important things, the "mineral salts," are?
How to select your foods so as to get enough of them?
What the recently discovered, absolutely essential "vitamins" are?
How they maintain normal growth and health?
How a lack of them causes stunting and disease?
Where they are found and how to make sure of a plentiful supply of them?
How, in a word, to "EAT AND BE HEALTHY"?

Of Course You Do—
NOT! Not unless you have studied the question of your own proper nutrition much more deeply than the average person has. But you can learn how to feed yourself properly very easily.

Harvard Squad May Lose Two of Its Star Linemen

Cambridge, Mass., Dec. 12.—(U. P.)—Harvard may be forced to take a slightly weakened team to the coast for a game New Year's day at Pasadena, with Oregon. "Faby" Abbott, star left guard, hurt his back early in the past season and, although he was able to play in the Yale game, he is now now in the best shape. Phillips, one of the centers, is also out of condition and may not make the trip. Arnold Howe, probably will play center and his brother, Ralph, will play fullback.

Pasadena Preparing To Welcome Rival Football Squads

Pasadena, Cal., Dec. 12.—(U. P.)—With Harvard and Oregon matched up to play the East-West football classic here New Year's day, preparations were being made for the arrival of the two teams, both of which are expected here before Christmas day to get their final practice beneath the balmy Southern California skies.

Probably the largest crowd that ever watched a football game west of the Mississippi will see the contest, members of the committee in charge predicted. Tournament Park, where the game will be played, will have a seating capacity of 25,000. Tickets soon will be on sale and interest indicates they will be in great demand.

Dopesters declare the outcome of the game depends largely on the ability of Oregon to develop a defense that will stop the open field running of the Harvard backs—a situation Oregon has not faced, they say, in a particularly critical form this year.

Harvard, according to the figures sent here, will outweigh Oregon an average of seven pounds to the pound. Oregon, the figures show, averages 170.

Whitman College Allots More Time For Athletic Trips

Whitman College, Walla Walla, Wash., Dec. 12.—Two weeks for basketball trips and six days for baseball trips, in place of a former four days each, were voted for Whitman teams by the board of trustees of Whitman college as a result of a petition of the men students, recently submitted to them, urging that Whitman teams be given time to play more outside games. This means that for the first time in many years Whitman will be seen in action during the basketball season in Oregon.

As arranged, Whitman this season will meet both the U. of O. and O. A. C., as well as Willamette and the Multnomah club, on their own floors. The trip begins January 12 and 13, when Whitman plays her opening games with the University of Oregon. Other dates are: Willamette at Salem, January 13 and 14; O. A. C. at Corvallis, January 16, and the Multnomah club at Portland, January 17. Return games at Whitman will be played from February 12 to 24.

Completion of Whitman's basketball schedule with W. S. C. University of Idaho and University of Montana will give her a total of 23 games, 12 out of town and 11 home games.

Schuler Is Cornell Captain
Ithaca, N. Y., Dec. 12.—(U. P.)—John Schuler, Davenport, Iowa, fullback of this year's eleven was elected last night to captain the Cornell football team of 1920.

Oregon Quarterback Placed on Third Squad as Running Mate for Colgate Star.

U. W. MAN ON SECOND TEAM

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—(U. P.)—Walter Camp's selections for All-American football honors for 1919 are published in Collier's Weekly today.

Ten teams are represented on the first eleven, Center college, of Danville, Ky., being the only eleven to win two places.

| Position | First Eleven | Second Eleven | Third Eleven |
|----------|------------------------|----------------------|-----------------------|
| Ends | Higgins, Penn State. | Weston, Wisconsin. | Black, West Point. |
| Tackle | West, Colgate. | Ingerson, Illinois. | Slater, Iowa. |
| Guard | Alexander, Syracuse. | Dentfield, Navy. | Clark, Harvard. |
| Center | Weaver, Centre. | Balfey, W. Virginia. | Callahan, Yale. |
| Guard | Youngstrom, Dartmouth. | Depler, Illinois. | Pixley, Ohio State. |
| Tackle | Henry, W. and J. | Grimm, Washington. | Cody, Vanderbilt. |
| End | H. Miller, Penn. | Dumoe, Lafayette. | Roberts, Centre. |
| Quarter | McMillin, Centre. | Strubing, Princeton. | Boynnton, Williams. |
| Halfback | Harley, Ohio State. | Trimbale, Princeton. | Steers, Oregon. |
| Halfback | Casey, Harvard. | Oss, Minnesota. | Gillo, Colgate. |
| Fullback | Rodgers, W. Virginia. | Braden, Yale. | Robertson, Dartmouth. |

IS POWERFUL SQUAD

The team, Camp says, is the most powerful and versatile in years. They are all veterans well-versed in the modern game. Every man is an expert in his position.

The team combines strong, hard-hitting, powerful and experienced players with a line of exceptional physique to lift and open holes, tight on the defense. The backfield combines speed and power in running, and has strong interference. It has men good at making and receiving forward passes; good long range punters and accurate kickers from the field and from placement.

GUARDS ARE GREATEST
Camp refers to Higgins and Miller as being impossible to get around. West and Henry have outclassed the tackles for years. Youngstrom and Alexander, he classes as the greatest of all defensive guards. Weaver's kicking and his strong defensive ability won for him the place of center.

McMillin is rated as a quarterback of speed and hard-hitting aggressiveness, combined with brains.

Casey was selected, Camp says, for his work in the Princeton and Yale games. He is declared a good forward passer, a very fast man with the ball, and particularly elusive in his turning and twisting. Harley is classed as a fitting running mate and a star drop-kicker, and one of the hardest men in the country to stop when once started. Rodgers was given the call for fullback on account of his ability to hrow the ball, his clever kicking and his ability on the offensive. He and McMillin were selected to run the team and call the signals alternately.

FORMER PORTLAND PITCHER GIVES OUT ADVICE TO BOXER

Fred Walker (Mysterious Mitchell) Says Treat 'Em Rough and Keep Within Rules.

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—(I. N. S.)—"Treat 'em rough and keep within the rules. Never let up for a minute if you want to be a winner."

This is Fred Walker's advice to lads in any branch of sports. It goes for athletes of the gridiron, followers of every athletic sport where physical contact is required. It especially applies to boxing.

"Fred Walker? Well, Walker is one of the leading football, baseball and basketball coaches of the East. He is the man who coached the great Williams college eleven in 1917, and now he is the director of athletics at the New York Agricultural school.

The expression, "Treat 'em rough," was not coined by Walker, though it may well have been, for he is the aggressive sort of fellow who might have coined such a phrase, and he believes that whenever an athlete enters any kind of sport he should put his all into it and make it worth while.

DEVELOPS WINNERS
Walker's football teams have always been highly aggressive. His basketball teams have played a fast, sometimes rough game, but his charges have always been sportsmanlike. He qualifies his advice about "treatin' 'em rough" with an admonition to keep within the rules of the game, whatever it may be, but play it for that is in it.

It was Walker who awoke Mel Coogan, the Brooklyn lightweight, to the fact that he was a boxer, content to let somebody else be the bell-cow while he trailed behind. Walker was director of athletics at the Newport naval training station and became associated with Coogan, who served as a boxing instructor there. He saw that Coogan had qualities for the making of a much better boxer than his past reputation testified, and he proceeded to give Mel some friendly advice.

PUT STEAM IN WORK
"You ought to be a top-notch, Coogan," said Walker one day. "I'm not saying you are not a good boy in the ring, but you have all that needed to carry your way to the top of your class. Maybe I'm wrong, but I don't think so. If I were to step into your shoes, I'd put more steam into my work. You box as though you're afraid of hurting your opponents. Why don't you change your style? Go in there and trade punches with all of them. Treat 'em rough—that's it. Boxing's a pretty rough game and it calls for just that very thing. Of course, you must keep within the rules of the game. I don't think any boxer needs to step outside the bounds of fair play to be a 'rough customer' in the roped arena. Try it, Mel. I think you'll surprise yourself."

Turkey Shoot Wednesday
The annual Christmas turkey shoot of the Woodburn Gun club will be staged Wednesday afternoon. This is one of the best turkey shoots staged in the city. A number of local trappers, as well as from other points in the Willamette valley, will participate in the shooting.

SEVEN SHOOTERS AVERAGE BETTER THAN 97 PER CENT

Woolfolk Henderson of Kentucky Heads List—Oregon Shooter Ranks Third.

By Peter F. Carney, Editor National Sports Syndicate
While we are waiting for the official traps it is worth while giving a glance at the various state leaders and see how they shape up. The shooters who top the averages in their states usually are the best shooters, especially when the averages are based on 2000 targets, as those appended are.

Woolfolk Henderson of Lexington, Ky., and Mark Aris of Thomasboro, Ill., are tie for the leadership according to the usual way of figuring, but when you get right down to brass tacks and shuffle the figures a little bit you find that Henderson has the slightest fraction on Aris—just enough, to be sure, to find a couple of places to shoot where he can blaze through without a miss. It is too late in the season for miracles like this to happen.

TROOP SHOT MOST
Frank Trosh shot himself to the front last year and managed to keep right in the front this season until a month ago when Henderson and Aris swept by him with a rush, but all you have to do to beat Henderson has been doing some shooting, too, is to look at his average. He has shot several thousand more targets than either of the shooters above him.

In the list of state average leaders we find 18 state champions, which we insist is a mighty large percentage. It brings to mind that oft repeated statement that "class will tell." Fifteen of the leaders average better than 96 per cent.

Hatchery Employees Work Hard to Save Eggs at Bonneville

Employees of the Bonneville fish hatchery are working night and day to keep the eggs alive through the present cold spell, according to telephonic advice from R. E. Clanton, state fish warden, to Carl B. Shoemaker, state game warden. The thermometer was hovering around the 10 degrees below zero mark Friday and while the pipe line was open little water was flowing, leaving the eggs in danger of numerous at the head of the pipe line that they have dammed up Tanner creek to a large extent and Clanton has had several forces of extra men carrying water from the hatchery to the pipe line. Clanton said that the men had been working almost 80 hours without any sleep in a brave attempt to furnish enough water to supply the eggs at the hatcheries.

The eggs at this time of the year especially must be kept covered. No word has been heard from the other hatcheries about the state and it is not known what havoc the cold weather has worked.

Weldon Wing Will Join the Benedicts

Weldon Wing, one of Portland's clever featherweights, who never lost his head in a ring battle, has at last taken the "count." He will be replaced by Miss Mollie Schwartz at the bride's home, 765 East Seventh street north, to-night at 8 o'clock, before a few friends and relatives. The young couple will remain in Portland at their home at Kirby and Killingsworth avenue. Weldon is signed to battle Carl Martin over the six round route in a preliminary to the Darcy-Gibbons event at Milwaukee next Tuesday night.

Greenleaf Winner Of Billiard Title

Philadelphia, Dec. 12.—(U. P.)—Ralph Greenleaf, the boy wonder, of Wilmington, Del., is the pocket billiard champion of America. He clinched the title last night by running his victories up to eight. He beat Edward Saltschlag, high school champion, 125 to 70, in 18 innings, and made a high run of 70.

He plays his final game tonight with John M. Layton, Columbia, Mo.

Former Salt Lake Boss Is Tiger Scout

Los Angeles, Dec. 12.—(U. P.)—Eddie Herr, former manager of the Salt Lake team, has been signed up by Frank Navin of the Detroit club as chief scout for the Tigers.

Bees by Ernie Johnson. In quest of material, Herr plans to visit San Francisco in the near future to look over the season pro players in the Beale's Midwinter league.

Philadelphia motorboat clubs may add canoeing to their activities.

BOXING

DEORIA, Ill., Dec. 12.—(U. P.)—Boxing is a major college sport today. It was officially included in the list by the "little 19" conference, comprising 19 secondary colleges in Illinois. A tournament will be held next spring in connection with the track championships.

Alkon, Ohio, Dec. 12.—Jack Wolfe, Cleveland, fought a draw with Joe Burman, Chicago, in their 12 round match here last night.

Boston, Dec. 12.—(U. P.)—Johnny Downs, Cleveland, had an easy win over Johnny Gray, Chelsea, in their 10-round bout here last night.

San Francisco, Dec. 12.—(U. P.)—Veteran Joe Azevedo of Sacramento and Joe Miller hammered one another to a draw in the main event at Dreamland last night. Three knockdowns were scored, two by Azevedo, who kept the local boy stepping every second of the bout. Harry Peltzinger and Jimmy Dundee boxed a draw. Sam Good got a decision over Chief Abernathy.

Los Angeles, Dec. 12.—(U. P.)—Al Gruman won a four-round decision from Young Brown at Vernon last night. Young Farrell and Charlie May fought a draw, and Jimmy Marshall beat Togo Koriyama.

Sacramento, Cal., Dec. 12.—(U. P.)—After losing the first two rounds and drawing the third, George Lee, Chinese bantam, came back strong in the last round last night and won a draw from Bud Ridley of Seattle, who claims the bantamweight championship of the Coast. Two judges decided the match between Kid Leo, Sacramento, and Perry Lewis, Reno, was a draw.

Ban Johnson Appeals Mays Case Decision

New York, Dec. 12.—(I. N. S.)—The question of authority in the American league will be left for the courts to decide, it became evident today. Contrary to expectations, President Ban Johnson has appealed the Mays decision and seems determined to fight other actions started by the "insurgent" faction on legal battlefields.

Willard to Appear In Kansas Court

Kansas City, Kas., Dec. 12.—(U. P.)—Joe Willard, former heavyweight champion, was to appear before a United States commissioner here today to answer charges of profiteering. Willard was alleged to have sold wood at an excessive price during the coal shortage.

FRANCE TO MAKE BID FOR FIGHT

Frenchmen Determined to Land Dempsey-Carpenter Battle; Duke de Caes Interested.

By Robert J. Frew
PARIS, Dec. 12.—The dramatic race for the signature of Jack Dempsey and the location of his fight with Georges Carpentier began Saturday, when Promoter Cochran, who staged the Beckett-Carpenter bout, sailed from England for the United States. He will be followed on Tuesday by Baron Rothschild, who will represent a Paris syndicate headed by Duke de Caes, Prince Murat and himself.

Baron Rothschild, who will sail from Havre on the liner LaFrance, is determined to outbid the Englishman's offer and have the championship bout staged in Paris.

WOULD SACRIFICE FORTUNE
Aristocratic French fans have cabled Kearns, Jack Dempsey's manager: "Do not sign with Cochran. Await the arrival of our man, who will outbid the best offer, insuring the fight for Paris."

Simultaneously with the ending of this blanket proposal, which applies to American and Australian offers as well as English, Carpentier's Paris backers formally gave the undertaking of the championship bout to M. Vienne, the impresario who staged the Johnson-Moran fight. They promise to guarantee him the promotion of the fight, to cover all losses and to let him take the profits of the bout if there be any.

"I will sacrifice my entire fortune rather than see the first potential French world champion engage in a bout on any other than French soil," said Duke de Caes, who is the modern embodiment of the spirit of the English Corinthians of a century ago.

"I am ready to pay a thousand dollars for a seat at the ringside in Paris."

COCHRAN HAS SIGNATURE
Descamps, Carpentier's manager, who visited the office of Universal Service Friday, confirmed the frenzied and crazy international bidding for the match. All previous records for offers have been broken by skyrocket puffs. "Cochran has Carpentier's signature and mine for the fight in London," said Descamps, "provided he gets Dempsey's signature before the first of February. The French offer, however, has outbid any other offer that has yet been made. I am doubtful whether Cochran will succeed. Georges is ready to fight anywhere."

"He would go to the United States if the best offer came from that quarter. In that event, he would accept one of

Air Racing Will Become a College Sport in the East

Cambridge, Mass., Dec. 12.—(I. N. S.)—Air racing is to become an intercollegiate sport like baseball and football.

Harvard university announced that the necessary funds to enter an intercollegiate air race under the auspices of the aero club of colleges, Columbia has agreed to compete. Yale, Princeton and Cornell are reported undecided. Representatives of the big eastern colleges will meet in New York soon to draw up plans for the first big college air race.

The many offers called him from New York for a tour in vaudeville.

GEORGES IS SUPERB
Discussing the chances of the French champion in a fight with Dempsey, Descamps said:

"I wouldn't allow Georges to meet Dempsey, unless I was absolutely confident he would win. He is superior to all American heavyweights of latter years, because they are too slow. A first class middleweight would be a dangerous opponent for any heavy slow moving fighter."

"Georges has had an unparalleled experience in the ring. Beginning in his earlier years he has worked his way through all the weights to the light heavyweight, where he now stands."

"He has taken part altogether in more than 150 bouts."

"He is now in his prime. He combines the speed, the strength, the punch and the staying power of Fitzsimmons with the cleverness of Corbett. Frank Klaus and Billy Papke beat him when he was immature and inexperienced with American fighting methods."

"I admit Dempsey is formidable, but I believe that he can stop Georges."
