Injured While Under Auto—Wilbur R. Rhodes, 825 East Belmont street, was badly injured Friday evening, at East Thirty-second and Belmont streets when a street car struck the automobile in which he was riding. At Good Samaritan hospital Rhodes is reported to have a fractured rib, a laceration of the ribs, John Weber, 135 East Thirty-third street, towed the automobile of Rhodes to East Thirty-second street. Rhodes was between the car and the street when the low rope when the car struck the rear end of his machine, and pushed both machines up the street for several feet. Rhodes was pinned between.

Dental Society Meets—The Multnomah County Dental Society held its semi-monthly meeting at the Central library Friday evening, at which Jay W. Herna, D. M. D., read a paper on "Oral Prophylaxis," which was discussed at length. The society is a new organization formed to discuss various subjects of interest and bring the interests of the public and the dentist closer together. Officers of the new society are: J. E. Stevenson, president; Dr. H. A. Labbe, secretary-treasurer.

Kerosene the Best and Cheapest Fuel—Many families in Portland and throughout the state demonstrated, during the recent snow storm, when roads were blocked and fuel impossible to obtain that kerosene is the best and cheapest fuel, no matter at what price wood and coal were sold. In fact, they will tell you this in the best way, no matter the season or temperature outside. See this demonstrated at 133 Fourth street, Main 6833—Adv.

Seventy-five Attend Des Moines Convention—About 75 representatives from Oregon colleges will leave Portland December 28 for Des Moines, Iowa, to attend the students' volunteer convention in that city December 31 to January 4. The convention meets in behalf of foreign missions and each college in the state is entitled to a certain representation. Arrangements are being made by the O-W-R & N. for special car accommodations for the students attending from this state.

George F. Watson and John Conaghan registered at the New Perkins Saturday, along with Frank, Emile, Edith, Walter and Albert Johnson from Deer Island. "We didn't think we could do the Christmas spirit justice in our small community, so we locked up and brought our children along for safe-keeping," explained Watson.

V. H. Christensen, secretary of the Utah branch of the Greeters' association, wrote "Salt Lake" on the Multnomah register Saturday night. The snow in Utah's capital is so deep, he said, that it smothered him.

G. C. Fulton and his wife dropped in at the Portland hotel Saturday for a stay-over during the holidays. Fulton is an Astoria attorney, and has been prominently connected with the project's success.

Harry Wright of Seattle, formerly cashier at the Multnomah hotel, returned to his old haunts Saturday night, where he intends to stay for a few days. Wright is now dealing in automobile accessories for a Seattle firm.

Sol Dickinson of Weiser, Idaho, and W. C. Ward of Caldwell, Idaho, stopped at the Imperial last night. The two Idahoans are in Portland with a shipment of beef cattle. When Dickinson put his name on the register, he inquired of the clerk, "Don't you people ever have any snow out here?" "We do, but we haven't had it here," was the answer.

M. K. MacRae of Seattle, formerly manager of the Hotel Oregon for nine years, is at the Imperial on his way to Little Rock on a visit. MacRae came to Portland in 1896, and was here for 10 years, then went to Seattle.

Prize Essay Contest Is Open to High School Students
The Musicians' club of Portland is conducting a prize essay contest which is open to students of Portland high schools and other institutions of equal grade.

A prize of two season tickets to the Portland Symphony orchestra concert is awarded to the student writing the best essay on the subject, "The Value of Music in Individual and Community Life."

Last year the Musicians' club offered a similar prize for the best paper on "The Symphony Orchestra as a Civic Asset." Great interest was shown and several score of manuscripts were submitted.

The conditions of the contest this year are:
1.—Any bonafide student in a Portland high school or other institution of equal grade may participate.

2. Essays not to exceed 600 words.
3. Manuscripts to be written on one side of paper only, and signed by student giving school, home address, and telephone number if any.

4. Manuscripts to be sent to prize essay committee, care of Sherman, Clay & Co. city, not later than December 24.

Robert S. Millard is chairman of the committee having in charge the details of the contest.
