REVELERS LIKELY TO GET EARS REDDED BY COLD THIS EVENING

Forecast Indicates that Low Temperatures in Montana Will Head This Way.

The final flourish of the old year and the first kick of the new one will probably take place tonight in freezing weather, according to the prognostications of E. L. Wells, district forecaster.

The cold wave now passing over Montana is likely to flick its tail Portland sometime today, but nothing like the weather of three weeks ago is anticipated.

The past 10 days, with the exception of December 23 and 29, were without freezing temperatures. The mercury in the government thermometer went to 35 on the days mentioned.

Despite the heavy snow, precipitation for the month will probably be a couple of inches under normal, Wells said.

Why the Milk Cure?—Because disease is often due to disturbance of the mechanism of nutrition and the milk cure corrects the trouble.

Portland-Newberg—Leave Fourth and Alder daily, 8:30, 9:30, 11 a. m., and 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12 p. m.

Oriental Gamblers and Law Officers in Open Warfare.

Deputy Sheriffs Armed for Possible Attacks as Result of Raids on Gamblers.

Seattle, Wash., Dec. 31.—(U. P.)—Open warfare between oriental gamblers and officers of the law has been declared in Chinatown and deputy sheriffs were on duty Wednesday with orders to shoot to kill if attacked.

Muttered threats have been circulating against deputies for weeks following intermittent raids on secret underworld gambling halls.

First blood was spilled last night when Deputy Sheriff Brown shot down Ah Tong, 35, during a desperate struggle with 35 men surprised in a raid at 718 1/2 King street.

Brown walked in on the gamblers alone, but three deputies were left at the foot of the stairs and after he had surprised the orientals and a rush was made for him, he pulled his gun and fired hitting one in the leg.

The other deputies rushed upstairs and the gamblers fled. Four, however, were captured.
