

WILSON'S LETTER IS SINCERE PLEA FOR INTACT TREATY

President Is Willing to Force Referendum and Let People Say if They Want Peace Pact.

Washington, Jan. 9.—The text of the president's letter to the Jackson day banquet follows:

"My Dear Chairman—It is with keenest regret that I find I am deprived of the pleasure and privilege of joining you and the other loyal Democrats who are to assemble tonight to celebrate Jackson day and renew their vows of fidelity to the great principles of our party, the principles which must now fulfill the hopes not only of our own people, but of the world.

SENATE IS STIGMATIZED

"The United States enjoyed the spiritual leadership of the world until the senate of the United States failed to ratify the treaty by which the belligerent nations sought to effect the settlements for which they had fought throughout the war. It is inconceivable that at this supreme crisis and final turning point in the international relations of the whole world, when the results of the treaty which by its means determined and are still determining dependent upon events which no man can foresee or count upon, the United States should withdraw from the concert of progressive and enlightened nations by which Germany was defeated and all similar governments (if the world be so unhappy as to contain any) warned of certain consequences of any attempt of a like iniquity, and yet that is the effect of the course the senate of the United States has taken with regard to the treaty of Versailles.

OLD DIPLOMACY AGAIN

"Germany is being and we are still at war with her and the stage is set for a repetition of the old plot. It is now ready for the resumption of the old offensive and defensive alliances which made settled peace impossible. It is now open again to every sort of intrigue. The old spies are free to resume their former abominable activities. They are again at work to make it impossible for government to be sure what mischief is being worked among their own people, what internal disorders are being fomented. Without the covenant of the League of Nations, there may be many secret treaties as ever, to destroy the confidence of governments in each other, and their validity cannot be questioned.

PLAY LONE HAND

"The nation entered the great war to vindicate its own rights and to protect and preserve free government. It went into the war to see it through to the end, and the end has not yet come. It went into the war to make an end of militarism, to furnish guarantees to weak nations, and to make a just and lasting peace. It entered it with noble intentions. Five of the leading belligerents have accepted the treaty and formally ratifications will soon be exchanged.

PEOPLE WANT TREATY

"I do not believe that this is what the people of this country wish or will be satisfied with. The majority do not accept the action of the senate of the United States as the decision of the nation. I have asserted from the first that an overwhelming majority of the people of this country desire the ratification of the treaty and my impression is that effect has recently been confirmed by the unmistakable evidence of public opinion given during my visit to 17 of the states.

Off in the Stilly Night

SOMETIMES sickness comes without warning in the wee hours of the night—when help seems far removed. It is then particularly that the "never close" policy of the store of "Dependable Drugs" is remembered with relief.

In the meantime, your day-time patronage is a warranted reciprocation of our efforts to serve fully and faithfully.

COMPROMISE ON LEAGUE FAVORED BY W. J. BRYAN

Nebraskan Aligns Himself With Mild Reservationists for Immediate Ratification of Treaty.

Washington, Jan. 9.—At the Jackson day banquet Bryan said in part: "Seldom has such an opportunity for great service come to any party as now presents itself to our party. But opportunity brings responsibilities. Much is required by those to whom much is given. A soldier is a soldier until his day of opportunity comes—after that he is either a hero or a coward. So with the party, opportunities improved become stepping stones to success; opportunities neglected are millstones about the party's neck.

PERVERSION OF DEMOCRACY

"We have no more moral right to refuse now to ratify the execution and administration of these settlements than we had to refuse to take part in the fighting in the last few weeks of the war. We brought victory and made it possible to dictate to Germany what the settlements should be. Our fidelity to our associates in the war is in question, and the whole future of mankind. It will be pertinent to us to play in completing the settlements of the war and to prevent the prevention in the future of such outrages as Germany attempted to perpetrate.

INSPIRED BY MEMORY

"This in my judgment is to be the great privilege of the democracy of the United States, to show that it can lead the way in the solution of the great social and industrial problems of our times and lead the way to a happy settled order of life as well as to political liberty. The program for this achievement we must attempt to formulate, and, in carrying it out, we shall do more than can be done in any other way to sweep out of existence the tyrannous and arbitrary forms of power which are now masquerading under the name of popular government.

FOUGHT SELFISH INTERESTS

"I did the best he could, and succeeded better than we had any right to expect when we remember that he fought single handed against the selfish interests of the Republican party in control of the senate, instead of ratifying at once or promptly proposing changes that it deemed necessary, has not been a whit less patriotic. It could have adopted its reservations as well five months ago as later, but it permitted an endless debate while suffering humanity waited.

REPUBLICAN CONTROL

"We cannot afford, either as citizens or as members of the party, to share with the Republican party responsibility for further delay; we cannot go before the country on the issue that such an appeal would present.

DEFINITE PROGRAM

"Neither can we go before the country on the issue raised by Article X. If we do not intend to impair the right of congress to decide the question of peace or war when the time for action arises, how can we insist upon a moral obligation to war, which can have no force or value except as it does impair the independence of congress? We owe to the world to join in an honest effort to put an end to war forever, and that effort should be made at the earliest possible moment.

DIVERT ATTENTION

"It should be raised in defense of the right of self determination and in proclaiming a spirit of brotherhood as universal as the peace which we advocate. We have domestic problems also which offer an opportunity to render large service and one objection to thrusting the treaty into the campaign is that it would divert attention from questions demanding immediate consideration. We are confronted with the organization of new parties, in the theory that old parties do not meet the issues that have arisen. Our party is the one party that can qualify for the meeting of those issues. It can oppose a class party because it is not itself the party of a class, but the party of the whole people, representing the interests of all.

LABOR PRAISES WILSON

"Greater legislation, for greater good, has been enacted than ever before in American history. Here are some of the things we have brought about: Direct election of United States senators, parcel post, tariff promises fulfilled in the Under-

WOOD-SIMMONS TARIFF ACT, REDUCING TARIFF AN AVERAGE OF 30 PER CENT IN MANY CASES; ENACTMENT OF INCOME TAX LAW; ESTABLISHMENT OF FEDERAL RESERVE BANKING SYSTEM; THE FEDERAL TRADES COMMISSION; THE FARM LOAN ACT, AND LEGISLATION TO PROMOTE THE DEVELOPMENT OF ALASKA.

Wilson Sends Greetings to the Democrats of Oregon

President Wilson's greetings to the Democrats of Oregon were read at the Jackson day dinner. The president reminded all of the urgency of being steadfast in high principles at the present time, and recalled the good work of Andrew Jackson. William Jennings Bryan sent best wishes and hoped that the peace treaty would be ratified by compromise. Senator Chamberlain wired that he was at the banquet. "In thought, though denied the pleasure," William G. McCadoo urged the return of the Democratic party to power to keep out Republican partisanship. Esther Lovejoy, in her message, urged the ideal of "real democracy."

OTHERS WHOSE MESSAGES WERE RECEIVED

Others whose messages were received were James W. Gerard and Dr. J. W. Morrow. Oregon's national committee mentioned that the decision to hold the national convention in San Francisco is a great victory for the "Western spirit." The messages were received by Elton Watkins, president of the Jackson club, and George A. Lovejoy, chairman of the committee on arrangements.

TELEGRAMS READ AS FOLLOWS:

"May I not extend to my fellow Democrats assembled at the Jackson day dinner at Portland my cordial greetings? There has never been a time when it was more important to stand upon the life and career of Andrew Jackson and to recall the high principles and pure practices of democracy for which he stood. I rejoice to join with you in doing honor to his memory."
WOODROW WILSON.

"APPRECIATE INVITATION. SORRY CANNOT ATTEND BANQUET. DEMOCRATIC PARTY HAS GREAT OPPORTUNITY; BUT, WHILE OPPORTUNITIES WISELY USED ARE STEPPING STONES TO SUCCESS, OPPORTUNITIES NEGLECTED ARE MILLSTONES ABOUT THE PARTY'S NECK. TREATY SHOULD BE RATIFIED BY COMPROMISE AND ALL DEMOCRATIC LEADERS SQUARELY MET. WILL SPEAK FULLY AT WASHINGTON."

"I DEEPLY APPRECIATE YOUR KIND INVITATION TO ATTEND THE BANQUET OF THE JACKSON CLUB AT PORTLAND, OR., THIS EVENING AND REGRET EXTREMELY MY INABILITY TO ATTEND. PLEASE CONVEY MY GREETINGS AND BEST WISHES TO THE CLUB AND, THROUGH IT, THE DEMOCRACY OF OREGON, AND ASSURE THEM THAT DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES, IDEALS AND IDEAS ARE BOUND TO TRIUMPH IN 1920 BECAUSE THEY ARE FOUNDED UPON RIGHT, JUSTICE AND HUMANITY.
