Northern Magnates Secure Everything They Want at Coast League Schedule Meeting

ANGELS TO OPEN BALL YEAR HERE

Victorious Judge McCredie Returns From Schedule Pow-Wow; May Train at Boyes Sjrings.

By George Bertz

APRIL 20 is the date of the opening of the 1920 Pacific Coast Baseball league season in Portland. This was the announcement made by Judge McCredie, who returned this morning from the schedule meeting of the magnates.

Los Angeles will be the opponents of the Beavers and the San Francisco club, which opens the season at Seattle, will play here during the second week.

BEES ARE STUNG

"We had quite a stormy session," said the judge, "but we got what we wanted. Everything pertaining to the schedule of games in the Northwest in my schedule was adopted.

"The question of opening and closing the season in Salt Lake was settled for all time. When Salt Lake came into the Coast league, the backers of the Bee team announced that the weather in the Utah metropolis permitted playing over a 30-week schedule and they were held to it at the meeting.

"The Beavers will be at home during the national convention of Shriners."

PENNER SALE VERIFIED

The judge verified the report that Ken Penner had been sold to Manager Rodgers of the Sacramento team.

While in San Francisco, Judge McCredie conversed with a delegation from Boyes Springs, where the San Francisco club trained for two years, regarding the Beaver training camp for this spring. The question of a training camp will be decided in the next week or two.

WILLAMETTE TEAM WINS FROM DALLAS FIVE BY ONE POINT

Coach Mathews Preparing Bearcats for Opening Games of Conference Season.

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY, Salem, Jan. 10.—With two days of practice before the "Bearcats" meet Whitman in their first conference match, Willamette is hopeful and anticipates an excellent showing. Although very little is known of the strength of the Washingtonians, a hard game is to be expected, according to Coach Mathews. The Bearcats have on two occasions shown their metal, early in the season when Chemawa was defeated by a 34 to 22 score, and again last night, when they defeated the American Legion team of Dallas by a 29 to 28 score.

Last night's game, which was played at Dallas, was exceedingly fast and in doubt to the end. The Bearcats have adopted a system of short passes which is very effective. Although there are six lettermen in basketball now in school, only two have succeeded in annexing regular positions on the quintet.

The line-up which has played in the last two games and which will probably go up against Whitman on Wednesday and Thursday of next week is: R. Dimick and Wapato, forwards; Jackson, center, and Gillette and Irvine, guards. Some of the subs whom Coach Matthews may draw on to replace the regulars are McKittrick, Austin, Ganzans and Doney, forwards, and Rarey and Socolofsky, guards.

Johnson Has Man for Herrmann's Position

New York, Jan. 10.—(U. P.)—Henry J. Killilen, Detroit, is the latest addition to the ranks of candidates for the chairmanship of the national commission. He is said to be Ban Johnson's candidate, having been associated with the American league chief in the organization of the league.

Colonel Jacob Ruppert, president of the Yankees, and a member of the committee appointed more than a year ago to name a successor to Garry Herrman, said today he had no recommendation to make. Wm. Baker, Philadelphia, another member of the committee, is said to favor Wm. H. Edwards, while Wm. Veeck of Chicago is pushing the candidacy of Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis. Other probabilities are John Conway Toole and John B. Foster.

Dempsey Is Branded By Another A. L. Post

El Paso, Texas, Jan. 10.—(I. N. S.)—Another American Legion post went on record today as branding Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion, as "a slacker." The local post took that action against the champion and also appropriated a small amount of money to bet on Georges Carpentier when the two men meet.

Camouflage!

All camouflage, this idea of paying 10c and 2 for 25c for a cigar when you can get the same tobacco from the self-same leaf at 8c.

Try the Salome, Mr. 10c Smoker, and stop fooling yourself. See that illustration. The Salome is made of short filler from the same leaf that goes into the regular 10c and 2 for 25c cigars. Then the reinforced long filler head is added to keep the scraps from your mouth.

A commonsense smoke at last for the man who wants all value and no camouflage. Here's one way to fight the high cost of living.

Try a Salome at 8c—2 for 15c—today and see if you don't get all the smoke satisfaction that you ever got from a 10c or 2 for 25c cigar. At all good cigar stands and drug store cigar counters.

The first basketball games of the new year at Reed college Wednesday resulted in two fast clean games.

The "frosh" continued in the winning column by defeating the "sophs" by a two-point margin, 18 to 16. The younger players came back strong in the last minutes of play and played circles around the older and heavier upper-classmen. Rockhey, Piluso, Ryan and Bennett proved to be a hard combination to get around, and by clever teamwork Rockhey was able to shoot the winning basket in the last minute of play.

Workman, Ellsworth, Foley and Robinson excelled for the juniors.

The senior-sophomore game gave promise of a close mix when the first half ended 7 to 0 for the seniors, but rallies put the older team far in the lead in the next period. "Yip" Wilson was high point man of the two games with 16 points. Henny, Irle and Watt played a steady game for the winners. Stone and Kelly fought a hard losing game.

The freshmen and seniors, both undefeated, will meet next week for the championship.

Two teams have been formed at the Multnomah Guards club rooms, one to meet all comers, and the other to be known as the Portland City Basketball league quintet. Manager Simonson agreed to put a squad in the circuit and he has named "Speck" Hammett, Dave Wright, Alsteck, Gilman, forwards; Daniels, center; Harder, Little, G. Cole, guards, and Kenneth Hill, guard or center, for the league aggregation. The league team practiced against the first stringers and at the end of the first half the score stood 16 to 16, in the Washington high gymnasium Wednesday night. Another practice will be held tonight in the Washington gym.

The Multnomah Guard team will play Dallas, Or., in a return game in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium Saturday night, January 17. The Guards lost by one field basketball in the contest at Dallas last month.

Medford, Jan. 9.—The Medford American Legion post is organizing a basketball team for games with other posts.

Canadian Veterans Put Team in Field

After much persuasion, Secretary Treasurer Robert M. D. Rankin of the Portland Soccer Football association has been assured that the Canadian Veterans will form a team and take the place of the Bankers' organization in the circuit. This means that the Canadians will hold a practice session next Sunday afternoon against Mount Scott on the Reed college grounds, and by January 18 will be ready to take part in real league contests. Owing to injuries to several of the Waverleigh Athletic club stars, including Bob Rankin, a switched lineup may have to be used against Kerns on the Franklin bowl Sunday afternoon. Rankin is still limping around with a bad ankle, and Manager Tannensee is making arrangements for a substitute. Peninsula and the United Artisans will meet at Columbia park, all games to start at 2 o'clock.

Chicago, Jan. 10.—(U. P.)—Baseball royalty was en route south today, leaving all 1920 problems for settlement at the two major league meetings here February 10. Ban Johnson, president of the American league, and John Heydler of the National, fled to Louisiana for a hunting trip. The two executives probably will line up their schedules durjng the trip, having them ready for submission at the league meeting.

COACH OF CENTRE COLLEGE ELEVEN HONORED IN N. Y.

Miracle Man of Football Teams Alumni of Team's Success During 1919 Season.

By Henry L. Farrell

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—(U. P.)—Only two of the eleven had failed to score all season.

It was the final game of the year and for one of them the last of his career.

In the last half Captain "Bo" McMillen called his Centre college squad around him on the field and framed some new plays.

They worked and Bell and Van Antwerp scored their first and last touchdowns of the year.

That was the spirit that made a winner of the Kentucky college and put the "scrappin', cryin', prayin' team" in line for the national championship title, according to Coach Charlie Moran.

At a dinner tendered him here last night by Centre college alumni, the National league umpire and miracle man of football gave some "close ups" on last season's gridiron sensations.

"Come on, brother," was the slogan of the team on the field, Moran said. It was the byword started on the line and taken up by the backfield interference as they plunged through the line making holes for the runner.

Deschamps Denies Acceptance of Jim Coffroth's Proposal

Paris, Jan. 9.—(U. P.)—No offers for the Dempsey-Carpentier fight can be considered until February, when the option which Charles B. Cochrane has on the Frenchman's services expires.

This was a part of the denial offered today by Manager Deschamps that he had accepted the terms of James W. Coffroth, American promoter, to put the European champion in a ring with Jack Dempsey at Tia Juana for 45 rounds.

"I wish to lay stress on the statement that I have never discussed this alleged Coffroth offer, neither have I given anyone cause to quote me as favoring the supposed terms of that bid. The most important reason is that I have not received, directly or indirectly, any offer from Coffroth," Deschamps said.

Portland Hoopers Open Sched Monday

The Portland basketball league will get under way next Monday night when the Swastikas of the Y. M. C. A. meet the Silent Five in the Washington high gymnasium. Next Thursday night the Multnomah Guards league contingent will tangle with the Arleta representatives on the Franklin high floor and two days later the Waverleigh Athletic club and the Y. M. C. A. Acorns will settle their differences in the gymnasium.

With the acceptance of the Y. M. C. A. Crescents at Friday night's meeting the league now boasts of seven teams and President P. W. Lee looks forward to a great year for the hoop game in Portland. Whether or not a charge will be made to witness the league matches will be left up to the managers of the contestants. While the season is on but 12 players will be allowed for each squad. Another meeting of the circuit will be held next week, according to present plans.

University of California crew candidates number 250.

Carpentier's Contract Binding Forfeit Is Posted by Cochrane

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—(U. P.)—William Fox, movie producer, whose bid of $550,000 for the Dempsey-Carpentier fight put him at the head of the list of promoters seeking the fight, was expecting an answer today from Jack Kearns.

Fox sent a rather pointed wire to Kearns last night, demanding that he be given some kind of a definite answer.

By Jack Velock

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—(I. N. S.)—Georges Carpentier, French heavyweight champion, will not fight Jack Dempsey for the world's title in 1920 without the consent of Charles B. Cochrane.

The contract which Cochrane holds with Carpentier, the promoter asserted, binds the Frenchman to the extent that he cannot close negotiations for the fight with any other promoter unless Cochrane so authorizes.

WILL BE CARRIED OUT

Cochrane reiterated his previous declaration that he had never questioned the good faith of Carpentier and his manager, M. Descamps. He firmly believes the contract will be carried out.

Cochrane added that he already has posted with the sports editor of Sporting Life in London £1000 of the $125,000 which he has guaranteed Carpentier. This deposit already has been made despite the fact that the contract did not demand it until February 15. Another deposit is to be made in June and the final deposit next December. The British promoter is confident he will stage the fight, and asserted he expected to put it on in London at the Olympia, which will seat 20,000 people, and where Cochrane says he could get very high prices for the seats. He asserted he would not consider building an arena.

WANT TO BUY CONTRACT

Two American syndicates have approached him, Cochrane said, with bonafide offers to buy the contract he holds with Carpentier. Cochrane would not say that he had refused to sell, but declared that he had staged elimination contests culminating in the Beckett-Carpentier fight, with the sole idea of putting on the Dempsey-Carpentier fracas.

"Naturally," he said, "I want to go through with it to the finish."

South Parkway Five Seeks Hoop Games

Manager Sam Tessler of the South Parkway basketball team is seeking games. Last Wednesday night his stars performed on their first contest of the 1919-20 campaign and now he is desirous of scheduling matches with the best quintets in Oregon and Southwestern Washington. He offers as an advantage the fact that he can play return games with out of town teams inasmuch as the South Parkway athletes have the B'nai B'rith gymnasium, Thirteenth and Mill streets, in which to play hosts to visiting opponents. "We'd like to meet some of these highly touted undefeated squads," says Manager Sam. He can be reached by writing care of the B'nai B'rith building.

FOOTBALL STARS ARE HONORED

Eugene Chamber of Commerce Honors Oregon Gridiron Players and Coaches.

EUGENE, Jan. 10. — Governor Olcott was the guest of honor at a banquet tendered the University of Oregon football players, trainers and coaches Friday evening by the Chamber of Commerce. While the band played "Mighty Oregon," 600 university students marched through the banquet hall shouting, "Bill, Shy, Bill! Bill, Shy, Bill!"

Hardly had the guests been seated when telegrams began arriving. Mayor Baker sent his congratulations and so did the Alumni association of Portland. Harvard university wired best wishes and utmost feeling of respect for the mighty Oregon team. Stanford sent its best wishes and from friends came messages of cheer and congratulations for the great game played at Pasadena.

Governor Olcott declared that he had a hunch that the team would come back victorious and he felt satisfied they were victors. "Nothing has ever happened that has so favorably advertised the state of Oregon and the University of Oregon," declared the governor. "I don't see how you did it. Every night I tell my boys about the Oregon spirit and hope some time to tell my grandchildren about the wonderful game at Pasadena." The governor paid a tribute to Bill Hayward and said that if Bill even thought of leaving the state he would punish him by taking his name from Hayward field at the university. In his response as to how the boys did it, Bill Hayward said, "The boys just reached up and got it. Can't tell you how. They just got it with the Oregon spirit. I never saw such a wonderful game of fight as we had at Pasadena."

"Shy" Huntington said that as long as Hayward was on the job, Oregon could produce world beating teams. R. A. Booth, who presided as toastmaster, said that Harvard had been outplayed and that the Oregon boys had made Oregon the center of the earth and that the game had taught the world that in Oregon were to be found the most courageous of men.

What Will Happen When The Railroads Go Back?

Will lower wages, the present scale, or even higher wages, be paid to employes? Will freight and passenger rates be increased? Will the public enjoy better service? These are a few of the questions that are current in the minds of the American public since the announcement of President Wilson that the railroads will be returned to their owners on March 1.

THE LITERARY DIGEST in its leading article in the issue of January 10th, presents a comprehensive survey of the railroad question. It gives the arguments pro and con for private control, for government ownership, for the installation of the Plumb plan, etc. The article is graphically illustrated with pertinent cartoons on various phases of the situation.
