

SOCIETY

Auxiliary a Host at Party Wednesday

ANOTHER successful card party was given on Wednesday afternoon by the ladies' auxiliary of the Canadian War Veterans' association in its club rooms in the Manchester building. There were about 40 tables of cards and a large number came in for the tea hour. The hostesses for the occasion were: Mrs. Henry Kirk, chairman; Mrs. E. M. Burns, Mrs. Tom Burns, Mrs. R. L. Craig, Mrs. Conner, Mrs. W. Farmer, Mrs. G. C. Frisbee, Mrs. R. M. Glasbrook, Mrs. J. H. Gates, Mrs. K. K. Baxter, Mrs. Arthur King, Mrs. F. A. Greatwood, Mrs. R. Fairburn. On Friday the club members will hold an open house for all British societies and their friends. An interesting program will be given and refreshments served by the auxiliary women. On Saturday evening a large dance will be given by the club members and the auxiliary jointly. It is hoped a large number will be present on both occasions. The regular monthly meeting of the auxiliary will be held Wednesday at 2 o'clock.

Miss Amelia Bosworth became the bride of William L. Pitkin on Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Bosworth, on Almsworth avenue. The service was read by the Rev. W. T. Kerr in the presence of a company of friends and relatives. The rooms were decked in chrysanthemums, holiday greenery and carnations for the occasion. The bride was gown in crepe georgette and carried white carnations. Miss Beulah Caplinger and Archie Hawley were the bridesmaids. Little Winifred Schuele carried the ring. The bride has a wide circle of friends in Portland. Mr. Pitkin, who was recently discharged from service, formerly made his home in Rillington, S. C. Mr. and Mrs. Pitkin will reside in Portland.

Winslow Meade circle No. 7, Ladies of the G. A. R., held their open installation Monday at room 525 courthouse. Mrs. Ella Himes was installing officer of the day. The following officers were installed: Mrs. Lucy C. Beck, president; Mrs. C. Underwood Foster, senior vice president; Mrs. Clara Cross, junior vice president; Mrs. Ella Himes, treasurer; Mrs. Josephine Claggett, secretary; Mrs. Wealthy Brumback, chaplain; Mrs. Lillian Thomas, patriotic instructor; Mrs. Jenny Deason, conductor; Mrs. Diva Round, assistant conductor; Mrs. G. A. Campbell and Mrs. Mary Koonitz, guards; Mrs. Maleta Gordon, musician. The circle will meet socially, Monday at 525 Courthouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy T. George (Ida Foster) entertained their friends at a party recently in honor of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. George and Mrs. A. H. George. Cards and music were the diversions of the evening. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. A. Nichols and A. M. George. Mrs. Moore and Mrs. A. H. George assisted Mr. George in serving. The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. A. H. George, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Fischer, Mr. and Mrs. G. Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Moore, Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Altmow, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Ash, Miss Olive Ash, Miss Carol Ash, Mrs. A. Nichols, Miss Josie Bradley, Kenneth Foster, Leonard Nichols.

Miss Ruth Barrell was hostess for a surprise party given in honor of Miss Adrienne Weiss at her home in Sixty-third street. The rooms were decorated with Christmas greens for the occasion and games and dancing furnished diversion for the evening. Miss Ruth Bromberg gave a group of violin selections as part of the entertainment. Guests included Miss Ruth Barrell, Haneta Asher, Adrienne Weiss, Frieda Israel, Ruth Bromberg, Reba Wax, Samuel Greenberg, Jerome Weiss, David Greenberg, Alexandria Kafka, Boris Rosenberg and Abe Wax.

The marriage of Edna Cummins and John E. Cuniff was quietly solemnized at Vancouver, Wash., on Christmas eve. Mr. and Mrs. W. Krayke were their only attendants. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. F. G. Cummins of this city and is an accomplished musician. Mr. Cuniff is the son of J. A. Cuniff and is a veteran of the recent war, in which he served in months in France with the 14th field artillery.

Much interest is manifest in the continuation of the Junior League course of lectures being given on Friday mornings at 11 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church house. Dr. Franklin Thomas has chosen for his subject, "The State as Eugenist," for next Friday morning. The lectures are given as a benefit for the building fund of the University of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Markham left Portland on Thursday evening for a vacation trip of 10 days' duration in the Mount Hood country. They hope to make a snow shoe trip during their journey and will return to the city the latter part of next week.

Mrs. Stewart J. Moore and little daughter, who have been holiday visitors at the home of Mrs. Moore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Furnish, on Clifton street, returned to Hood River on Friday evening.

Miss Marjorie Forster left Portland on Tuesday evening for San Francisco, where she will join Mrs. William Patterson and will sail for the Orient in the near future.

A little son was born Sunday, December 28 to Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Elgin of San Francisco. Mrs. Elgin was formerly Miss Myrtle Wells, who was for some time librarian of The Journal.

Ben Butler post No. 57, Grand Army of the Republic, and Woman's Relief

THE Misses Frances and Helen Gripper, who with Miss Joy Johnson, will entertain at a dancing party at Irvington club for about 200 of their young friends on the evening of January 17. The Misses Gripper are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gripper of Irvington. Miss Johnson is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Johnson of Portland.

Miss Frances Gripper

Miss Helen Gripper Markham Photos

corps No. 57 enjoyed a dinner at the Odd Fellows' hall on Friday. Joint installation services were held. The new commander, L. Rossall, was installed by F. C. Wilson. The Woman's Relief corps officers were installed by Minnie T. Horseman, past department president. The officers included Laura B. Schlottback, president; Diva C. Rounds, senior vice president; Olivia C. Jackson, junior vice president; Jessie L. McLaughlin, secretary; Gertrude Snow, treasurer; Wealthy Brumback, chaplain; Alice B. Wineland, conductor; Josephine Claggett, guard; Cordelia J. Smith, patriotic instructor; Alma Bennett Olden, press correspondent; Mary Towne, musician; Mary Hinkle, assistant conductor; Jeannette Easterbrook, assistant guard; Nettie Walker, color bearer No. 1; Jennie M. Benson, color bearer No. 2; Frankie Sharon, color bearer No. 3; Elinor T. Zeller, color bearer No. 4.

Mrs. John Peters entertained at luncheon Wednesday at her home in King-Hill apartments, honoring Mrs. Thomas H. Beverly, who will leave Portland for the East today. Covers at a handsomely appointed table were placed for six guests, their number including Mrs. Beverly, Mrs. Frank Longman, Mrs. John A. Keating, Mrs. David Beasley Campbell, Miss Camille Dosch and the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Frank, accompanied by Mrs. Frank's sister, Miss Anita Levy, left the city Saturday, January 3, for San Francisco, where they will visit a short time before leaving for New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Murray Sherwood are spending a short time in Coronado, Cal., where they went some time ago with Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Sherwood of New York city, who were visitors in Portland for a few days recently.

Mrs. Alex McCarl and daughter, Estelle, left Thursday evening for the South. They will be absent from the city about a month and will visit friends in San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. William V. Dolph left Portland on Tuesday for California. They will go to Los Angeles and will tour by automobile to Southern California points.

Miss Ruth Garner of this city is the guest of her brother, John W. Garner of Glendale, Los Angeles. She will probably remain in the south for several months.

Mrs. Loyal B. Stearns and the Misses Mary Helen and Frances Spaulding have been recent visitors in the South at Los Angeles and at San Diego, Cal.

H. B. Compton post No. 22, G. A. R., and H. B. Compton W. R. C. No. 52 gave a dinner followed by a joint installation at the hall in St. Johns last Saturday. Many visitors were present. W. M.

Employees Club Of O-W.R.&N. Be Host Friday

THE first dancing party of the new year to be given by the Employees club of the O-W. R. & N. company will be an event of Friday evening at Co-llison hall. The parties given during the past year by the club were the most successful and enjoyable in the history of the organization.

Those who will assist George F. Koch, vice president of the club, in making arrangements for the even include Milledred Hebert, Bertha L. Morris, Audra Gentry, Catherine Muschallik, Edna Hepp, Elizabeth Ichlie, Myrtle Holton, Ruth Smith, Mrs. N. W. Kinard, Julia Smith, Amy Klum, Mrs. Marie Tydemann, L. W. Hobbs, John W. Mager, Charles Hofeldt, George Miller, Ralph Lacey, William Schult, Frank Laukat, Lloyd Suckow, C. F. Lincoln, Roy H. Swint.

The Friday evening class rides are becoming a decided social affair with Portland Hunt club members, who are showing the keenest interest and turning out in a large attendance at every Friday night's class. Misses Flanders and Ralph W. Wilbur led the drill last Friday. Others in attendance were: Miss Flanders, Roderick Glisan, Mrs. Ralph Wilbur, Miss Mabel Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. Nait McDougall, Mr. and Mrs. Lovelle D. Winters, Mr. and Mrs. W. U. Sanderson, Mrs. Labbe, Miss Etheldred McElhinny, Miss Constance Mattingly, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Prudhomme, Claude D. Starr, Dr. Ralph Fisher, Fred Martin, Mr. Lemon, Miss Nell Osborne, H. S. Riley, Miss Simpson, Miss Dempsey and Miss Reynolds. Following the drill the members participated in fancy jumping, as it is the custom to follow the drill with some interesting event, such as polo, tug of war on horseback, in order to test the merit of horsemanship of the club members. On Saturday at 3 o'clock the ladies of the club held an open paper chase.

Miss Grace Stoll became the bride of Burnice R. Nelson of McMinnville December 29 at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. Hall Nelson. The rooms were decked in palms and polka-dots, wide streamers of satin making an aisle for the bridal party as it entered. The service was read before an improvised altar with cathedral candles glowing on either side, Judge George H. Burnett, great uncle of the bridegroom, officiating. The bride was gown in ivory toned satin, her wedding veil held with a coronet of old lace. Her flowers were Bride roses and orchids. Leslie Schwing of Eugene attended the bridegroom. Mrs. George H. Burnett played the wedding march. The bride has made her home for the past six months in the city and has many friends here. Mr. Nelson recently returned from service overseas. He was a student at the University of Oregon and a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson will make their home in Portland.

The January program for Portland Heights club has been announced and promises a number of events which will be of interest to the community. On Friday evening the senior members gave their first dance of the new year at the clubhouse. On January 16 all single members of the club and the younger set will hold away at the dancing party. An informal dance for senior members will be given on the evening of January 23. The social committee this year includes Mrs. H. H. O'Reilly, Mrs. J. A. Markley, Mrs. J. C. Edwards and Miss Agnes Beach. The members are invited this month to bring prospective candidates for membership in the club.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren E. Thomas were hosts for a delightful supper party following the reading of Jane Burns Albert Saturday evening at the Multnomah hotel. About 50 friends of the guest of honor enjoyed the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Albert. Those assisting during the evening included Mrs. Alice Price Moore, Mrs. Lulu Dahl Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mulder and Mr. and Mrs. Don J. Zan. Mrs. Loring K. Adams presided over the punch bowl and a program was given by a group of the musicians present, among whom were Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Dorothy Louise Bliss and George C. Luder.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Meridian of Henry, Ill., who are touring the West, are guests at the home of their niece, Mrs. Mary Meridian Reid, in East Ninth street north.

Miss Ruth Elizabeth Bussard be-

MRS. BURNICE R. NELSON, who was Miss Grace Stoll of McMinnville, whose marriage was an event of recent date at the home of her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson will make their home in Seattle.

Mrs. Burnice R. Nelson (Grace Stoll) Bushnell Photo

came the bride of Harvey V. Cole at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Bussard, in East Thirty-seventh street, on the evening of December 27. The service was read by the Rev. Charles T. McPherson. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Carl Befke. The bride was attended by Miss Lorena Hanners. Clarence Haines of Oswego was best man. The bridegroom has been for some years in the service of the United States navy and is now stationed in naval air service at North Island, San Diego, Cal., where he will take his bride to live.

The Alaska society of Oregon will meet Monday evening, January 12, at the Hotel Imperial. After the annual business meeting, a splendid program will deal with sourdough reminiscences. Visitors are always welcome to come in and listen to these interesting tales of experiences of the early Klondikers. Each meeting reunites some who lost track of one another while in the Far North years ago. Great preparations are under way for the annual banquet for Saturday evening, January 24, at the Hotel Imperial. Sourdoughs will attend from all over Oregon.

Reuben Charlyie Goffereles of Reed college gave an informal "stag" at the home of his sister, Mrs. W. W. Marten, last Friday evening, in honor of some of his artistically inclined friends, some of whom were in Portland only for the holiday weeks. Among the guests were Hale Davis, Ivanhoe Straight, Walter James, Wale Lursen, Mr. Wing, Frank Nru, Mr. Herbert Coffin, Lawrence Woodfin, Edwin Bush, J. White, Mr. Connel, R. Hoerber, Mr. Bowly, Dr. James, W. E. Kerrick and Clarence Kingley.

The first of a series of dances to be given by the War Camp Community Service at the Park house of Trinity Episcopal church, corner Nineteenth and Couch streets, was an event of Friday evening at 8 o'clock. The girls of the Hazelwood were a s a s a n t hostesses and among the guests were the Victory chorus girls, the members of the Canadian War Veterans and the American Legion.

The officers of the War Camp Community Service were assisted by the following committee from the church: Mrs. William D. Wheelwright, Mrs. Wilson Johnston, Mrs. Kate Mather, Mrs. George T. Gerlinger, Mrs. James B. Kurr, Mrs. William C. Alvord, Mrs. I. D. Peters, Mrs. Warren Koeler, Mrs. Frank Nru, Mrs. Calbert Pullin, Miss Jean Mackenzie, Miss Rhoda Rumelt, Miss Ruth Diamond, Mrs. Alice Natzler and Miss Evelyn Wood.

Mrs. Orange M. Clark entertained at an informal tea at her home on Portland Heights on Friday, honoring her daughter, Mrs. C. B. Tuttle and son, James Stuart. Mrs. Ernest H. Fay and Mrs. T. G. Emery of Detroit, Mich., who are visiting in the city. After two weeks spent in Portland the visitors will go to California, where they will spend the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Clark will accompany them to the south.

Mrs. J. C. Costello was hostess for a bridge luncheon on Monday at her home in Irvington. The affair was arranged to raise funds for the woman's building fund at the University of Oregon. Twelve tables were placed for bridge and the hostess was assisted by a number of Irvington matrons. Those who served included the Misses Agnes Wahner, Beatrice Conway, Bernice Mathieson, and Margaret Casey.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Clausen of Pendleton, with their young sons, Herman Jr. and George, have been visitors during the holidays at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George K. Fichtner, at 688 East Thirtieth street north. They returned to their home the latter part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Boyd Cobb of 913 Tibbetts street are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a daughter, born Tuesday, December 30. Mrs. Cobb is the daughter of the late R. M. Gregory and Mrs. Gregory of this city. The baby has been named Josephine Louise.

Mrs. Joseph E. Wilrow and daughter Joan, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. P. T. Buckley, will leave Portland, January 19, for California, to be gone six weeks. They will make their headquarters at the Mission Inn at Riverside, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Baxter entertained with a dinner of 10 covers at their home in Seattle, honoring their daughter, Mrs. Fremont O'Downing, who makes her home at the Portland hotel in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Squires (Claire Wilcox) are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a daughter, born Saturday. The baby is the granddaughter of the late Theodore B. Wilcox and Mrs. Wilcox.

Mrs. Lee Hoffman was hostess for an informal tea at her home at 705 Davis street on Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Kenney, prominent residents of Astoria, are guests at the Hotel Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Linus Vere Windnagle have returned to their home in Nagle.

PETERSON'S

WOMEN'S SPRING SUITS

Special Introductory Offering

The Authentic Early Spring '20 Modes in Varied Ideas, Priced

$49.50

—We have the authority to say "Special" in connection with the sale of these suits. The least-informed woman to view them would know by their very excellence the price is low. Only 65 of them—fresh as daisies—made of navy tricotine and serge. Sizes 16, 18, 36, 38 only. No two are alike—rare values offered as the "first gun" of our Spring campaign.

No Refunds—No Lay-Aways—No Deliveries

First showing ¾-length Novelty Spring Coats

First showing New Satin and Taffeta Dresses

"As You Come Up, Price Goes Down"

All Winter Garments at ½ and ½ Off Regular

IN MAKING your selection of a building site fullest consideration should be given to its possibilities for landscaping.

SHRUBBERY, trees, flowers and pretty walks add immeasurably to the attractiveness of a home.

AND there again Westover Terraces prove incomparable. The graceful terraces offer not only level areas for the landscaper, but also beautiful slopes where the choicest blooms can have best display.

THE artistry of the architect and gardener are unlimited. Each has fullest opportunity to produce the ideal home and grounds. They are not circumscribed by the limits which straight streets set, because on Westover there are nothing but curving boulevards.

SEE Westover. Its wonderful view, its superior location, its many splendid homes, its limited area all combine to make it the preferred homesite in Portland—the place where you should now be planning to build.

For any information you may desire concerning Westover, on liberal terms, discounts, etc., just phone, call on or write

HAROLD JUNGCK, Secretary
INTERNATIONAL REALTY ASSOCIATES, Owners
1307 Yeon Building Phone Marshall 630—Residence, East 1999

WESTOVER TERRACES
"Portland's Best View Homesites"

An Enduring Reputation

for being "different" from other hotels is won through special service to guests. At the Portland Hotel people always speak of the "home-like atmosphere," and that one thing alone brings back the same persons again and again. We invite strangers in Portland to make test of the quality of our service.

Dine With Us Today

Sunday Table d'Hôte Dinner $1.25

Weekday Noon Lunch 75c

The Portland Hotel
Richard M. Childs
Manager