New York, Jan. 13 .- Money went to 18 per cent Monday and stocks broke all the way from a fraction to 14 points. The good went down with the bad for there was nothing other earthquake in Mexico helped began selling freely, liquidation was joined to short sales. There were fitful rallies during the day, but at the close the weakness was sincere. with no effort on the part of shorts to surprise to the street, for although the local bank statement was very bad the situation as a whole was good as reflected in the combined report of 12 regional banks. But evidently the reserve board is determined that each reserve district shall bring its percentage of reserve up again. Money was not plentiful even at the high rates.

Early in the day Wall street had a re- Blyth-Witter and port that a new earthquake in Mexico had shaken the bottom out of the big oil wells. It was in vain that official announcements were made by the oil compapies to the effect that not only had there been no damage in the oil fields. but that the nearest earthquake was 150 miles away. The real reason for selling of Mexican oil stocks is that the fear of salt water has entered the hearts of

Added to the general reasons for weakness in the Mexican stocks there is the loss of public confidence caused by the action of the Sinclair and the Trans-Continental syndicates. Now the Middle States Oil company is becoming the center of nervous dread. The announcement by the Standard Oil company that all of its wells in Texas are failing rapidly sent down not only little stocks, but made the great Texas Oil company stock break 14 points.

Case of Nils Olson Cited to Show Wisdom of Plan Followed by County Board.

Advantages of placing funds for investment in the care of competent trust ompanies are well exemplified in the annual report of the Title & Trust company in the matter of a fund set aside for the maintenance of Nils Olson. Ol-Directors for Year son lost his sight and was otherwise sion on the Columbia river highway in September, 1914.

Stockholders of the First National In January, 1917, the Multnomah bank held their annual meeting this morning at which the present directorate county commissioners set aside a fund amounting to $6501.84, the interest and principal to be used in supplying Olson with an allowance of $35 per month during 28.9 years, a life expectancy based on the findings of the Oregon bett, E. R. Corbett, E. A. Wyld, W. L. Thompson, C. C. Colt, J. N. Teal, Joseph state compensation law. It is part of Simon, William Alvord and James Failthe agreement that any moneys remaining in the trust fund at the time of the death of Nils Olson or at the extors the following officers were repiration of the 28.9 years shall revert elected: A. L. Mills, president; C. F. to the county treasurer.

Adams, E. R. Corbett, E. A. Wyld, W. L. The fund was placed with the Title Trust company for investment and vice presidents; H. B. Dickson, cashier; their last annual report, issued Janu-B. F. Stevens, J. W. Bickford, J. H. Moir, ary 1, shows that, though Olson has re-E. Williams, T. W. Peters and L. H. allowance regularly since January, 1917, the principal amount has diminished only $14.
