

NEW BUILDING WILL BE ADDED TO GOOD SAMARITAN HOSPITAL

Plans Under Way Call for Duplication of Present West Wing, 200 Feet Long.

A project for a new hospital building as part of the Good Samaritan hospital was announced Wednesday by Bishop Walter Taylor Sumner, president of the board of hospital trustees, who has organized a committee of representative citizens to place the matter before the public.

"The issue now made public is merely one of normal expansion," said Bishop Sumner. "When the record of the Good Samaritan hospital is scrutinized, it will be seen that the need of a new building is fundamental. Although the hospital is administered as a part of the Episcopal diocese, its part in the community has extended beyond all considerations of religious affiliation. The hospital, since its establishment in 1870, has rendered service regardless of religion or creed. A third of the service rendered is gratuitous, and the hospital functions entirely as a public institution."

REPLACEMENT NECESSARY

The additional structure required was planned a number of years ago when the present modern wings were built. Most of the old wooden structure was torn down to provide for this new construction, but the one wooden wing remaining in use is far from satisfactory. Its replacement is imperative for a number of reasons.

"The financial situation of the hospital is in every way ideal, since no incumbrances exist in any form. The building project now under consideration calls for a duplication of the present west wing, which is a four-story brick building 200 feet in length."

CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE NAMED

Members of the committee which has been named to carry the campaign for funds are as follows: C. F. Adams, chairman; J. C. Ainsworth, W. B. Ayer, Mayor George L. Baker, Bert C. Ball, W. B. Beebe, W. B. Burns, Cornelius C. Colt, Edward Cookingham, Henry L. Corbett, J. A. Cranston, John L. Etheridge, Leo Friede, Franklin T. Griffith, Eric W. Hauser, Max H. Houser, David Honeyman, C. S. Jackson, D. B. Katz, Peter Kerr, L. Allen Lewis, Dr. A. E. Mackay, William MacMaster, Julius L. Meier, A. L. Mills, O. E. Overbeck, Emory Olmstead, Edgar B. Piper, Dr. A. E. Rooker, Ben Silling, Judge W. T. Gaynor Sentenced To Two Years on Three Indictments

A sentence of two years in the penitentiary on each of the three indictments charging assault with intent to kill, larceny and forgery, to which he entered a plea of guilty, was imposed upon J. H. Gaynor by Presiding Judge McCourt late Wednesday afternoon. The sentences are to run concurrently.

Gaynor was arrested recently by Deputy Sheriff Roy Kendall on the charge of larceny by bail of an automobile. While they were entering the jail elevator, Kendall attempted to make his escape. The deputy sheriff knocked the weapon aside, but Gaynor pulled the trigger. The bullet went wild and lodged in a wall, doing no damage.

A charge of uttering a forged check against the Journal market was also placed against Gaynor. In arguing for clemency for his client before Judge McCourt, Attorney Tom Garland maintained that Gaynor was under the influence of morphine at the time he attacked Kendall, and therefore not responsible for his actions. The picture of Gaynor's wife lying sick in a hospital, and Gaynor as a reformed man, were also drawn by Garland.

Jewel Missing, Her Passport Held Up

The French passport, displayed by Carmen Dreyfus at the time of her arrest, will have to wait some time before being used, according to the district attorney's office.

Joe Kirkley, of Lents, of having taken his $1000 diamond ring.

Mrs. Dreyfus, who has an interest in the Monte Carlo hotel at North Third street, was held for the grand jury by order of District Judge Bell. According to Kirkley, she called him up Saturday night and asked him to come over. He did, and during the evening she is alleged to have transferred the ring from his hand to hers. Later she displayed the ring to a taxi driver, telling him it belonged to Kirkley. It was declined. She claims to have lost the ring.

Ousted Yell King Is Befriended by Fellow Students

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Jan. 15.—Heine Anderson, ousted yell king of O. A. C., was given a vote of confidence as a result of a student body meeting today. His formal resignation was refused by unanimous vote and a committee was elected to confer with the student affairs committee to secure a revision of college regulations.

Anderson and Bob Warrens, president of the junior class, were put out of office on account of a breach of college regulations during O. A. C.-Oregon rally week.

An impromptu street dance, participated in by the entire student body, invoked the action of the faculty committee. Anderson and Warrens were held responsible and made to serve as an example.

The wrath of the entire student body was aroused over the action of the faculty committee. It is hoped that this affair may result in the modification of the objectionable rules.

President's Book Barred

Spokane, Wash., Jan. 15.—Superior Judge Bruce Blake, before whom John Grady, local secretary of the I. W. W. defense committee, is being tried on a charge of criminal syndicalism, refused to admit as an exhibit the book written by Woodrow Wilson, "The New Freedom."

LINDLEY ARRESTED ON CHARGE OF OBTAINING SCHAEFFER'S MONEY

Impersonates Pendleton Man and Wires for $200; Grabbed on Second "Touch."

H. B. Lindley's telegraphic impersonation of Seth O. Schaeffer of Pendleton won him $200 lately, but when he undertook to repeat the feat in the extent of $350, he found himself in the law's clutches, according to charges on file with the authorities today.

Sheriff Til Taylor happened to be in Portland and the First National bank of Pendleton wired him to intercept if possible the man who had telegraphed for money on January 7. Deputy Sheriff Wilson lay in wait at the telegraph office Wednesday night and arrested Lindley as he was collecting the $350 for which he had wired during the day. Taylor took him back to Pendleton this morning.

On Lindley's person was found Schaeffer's draft registration card. Lindley said his home is at La Grande. When he had received the wire request for $200, ostensibly from Schaeffer, it forwarded the money at once, which Lindley is believed to have collected. Some time afterward the bank discovered that it had been imposed upon and started search. The second request was received and it was by this means that the trail to the capture was laid.

Ex-Soldier Dies In San Francisco

Klamath Falls, Jan. 15.—Word was received from the military hospital in San Francisco of the death there of Donald S. Worden of this city, a veteran of the world war, who had been ill since his return from France, where he was injured by a motor truck and was forced to endure exposure, causing influenza. He is the son of William S. Worden of Portland, former county judge of Klamath county.

Compromise Leads At Whitman College

Walla Walla, Wash., Jan. 15.—Whitman college students registered a divided opinion concerning the ratification of the peace treaty and the League of Nations, 83 being in favor of a compromise and 78 in favor of ratification without amendments. Only nine were opposed to either in any form, while 18 were in favor of the Lodge reservations.

DRY SPELL BROKEN IN PORTLAND; MOISTURE PUTS END TO FREEZE

Winter Drouth Lasts 21 Days; Weather Forecaster Wells Promises More Rain.

Portland's winter "drouth," lasting 21 days with but two little breaks, received another slight dent, very slight, in fact, with the rainfall Wednesday and Wednesday night. It amounted to exactly .02 of an inch, according to the weather bureau.

However, District Forecaster E. L. Wells says that more is in sight. Tonight and Friday will produce light rain with southerly winds, the weather man believes.

Oregon mist was general over the western and northern parts of the state. The valley weather stations all reported rainfall and it also rained a little at Umatilla.

On the higher points about Portland Wednesday the rain froze, producing conditions similar to a silver thaw, and there was a regular silver thaw at Vancouver, the trees being covered with ice and the pavements slippery.

Recruiting Man Feared Menagerie Was Enlisting

"Wolf, Fox, Lyon," called out First Sergeant William B. Schuman as he ushered three recruits into the recruiting office at the local Marine Recruiting station this morning.

"It sounds like a menagerie," said the recruiting officer to the sergeant. "Do you think we are signing up an animal act for a circus?"

"No, sir," replied the sergeant, "but there is still one more man to sign up, captain."

"Bring him in!"

"Burr," shouted the sergeant and the fourth recruit entered.

Paul C. Murphy Returns

Paul C. Murphy, manager of the Laurelhurst company and head of the National Own-Your-Home campaign, returned Wednesday from San Francisco, where he had been engaged in disposing of government property for the navy department. Murphy was accompanied by R. A. McCulloch of New York and Andrew Steers of Vallejo, Cal. The party left last night for Bremerton, Wash., to appraise houses built by the government for navy yard employees during the war.

Ad Club Urges Law Enacted to License Automobile Drivers

The old fashioned steam roller, gag rule, political shenanigan, and the nigger in the wood pile all had their innings at the Ad club's mock legislature, Wednesday noon at the Benoni. Milton A. Miller, who had not a little experience in legislative procedure before he became collector of internal revenue, was chairman of the house and he showed unusual facility in disposing of the measures presented by Judge R. G. Morrow, S. B. Vincent, W. J. Hofman, W. C. Culbertson and others.

The serious business transacted by the club was the unanimous adoption of a resolution urging enactment of legislation licensing auto drivers at the present special legislative session. "The club body declined to record itself either for or against the anti-profiteering bill. The meeting was the first presided over by the club's newly elected president, E. N. Strong, and he was given an enthusiastic welcome."

A common-sense smoke, at least! The SALOME 10c—1 for 15c. Try it. Mr. Goodsmoker. At all good cigar stands and drug store cigar counters.
