Condition of the cheese trade is very far from satisfactory here, prices be- product at the lower prices. ing quoted with a wide spread for everything outside of the No. 1 Tillamook

while sales of No. 1 Tillamook cheese are being made generally at 35c a pound for triplets, the trade has found it impossible to dispose of the product of other Oregon or Washington districts. Triplets from other districts than Tillamook are today being freely effered at 31@32c a pound, with a general inability to clean up their holdings.

There is much offgrade cheese offering in the trade at this time, but even the first class stock that does not carry the Tillamook brand is hard to sell.

Reports indicate that Tillamook is practically cleaned up on its branded goods and has no gairplus whatever.
