

IN SOCIETY

Mrs. Andrews Is Highly Honored Visitor of Late

AMONG the much feted visitors in the city during the past fortnight is Mrs. Josephine Smith Andrews, who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Frederick L. Warren, for a short time. Mrs. Andrews comes to Portland from San Francisco, where she has been visiting at the home of Mrs. Philip Sheridan for some time. She expects to return to the South in about three weeks. On Monday evening Mrs. Andrews was one of the party which spent the evening at an informal dancing party at Waverley Country club. On Tuesday Mrs. Andrews spent the day at the home of Mrs. Elliot R. Corbett. Mrs. D. W. L. MacGregor asked a few friends in for the tea hours in her honor on Wednesday, and on Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Erskine Wood presided over a dinner party in her honor. Guests for this occasion included: Mr. and Mrs. George Low, Mr. and Mrs. Kurt Koehler, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick L. Warren, Dr. Huntington, E. H. Geary and Mrs. Andrews. On Monday Mrs. Lee Hawley Hoffmann has asked a few friends in for the tea hours for Mrs. Andrews.

The Misses Anne and Hazel Sullivan presided over a delightful farewell party at their home on Rose street, in honor of Miss Genevieve Trudell, who leaves Portland Thursday to make her home in San Francisco. The affair was given on Monday evening, and guests included 18 friends of Miss Trudell, who spent the evening informally with games and music.

University of Oregon, Eugene, Jan. 17. —Plans for the freshman dance to be held February 14 were fully discussed and committees appointed at the freshman meeting held Thursday afternoon of last week.

The committees appointed are as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Moller of Hood River are visitors in Portland at the home of Mrs. Moller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Oberkueffer.

Mrs. Boudinot Seely returned to Portland on Thursday evening from Des Moines, Iowa, where she has been attending the convention of the Student

A RECENT visitor in Portland at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George K. Fichtner, on East Thirtieth street, was Mrs. Herman Clausenius, and her young sons, Herman Jr. and George, who make their home in Pendleton.

Mrs. Herman Clausenius, Herman Jr., and George
Grove Photo

Volunteer movement. Mrs. Seely reports a most interesting experience at the convention, which met for the first time in six years, with more than 8000 students from all over the United States in attendance. At the last convention there was no single representative from Oregon schools—this year there were from Oregon, Washington and Idaho schools more than 200 young folk at the session. There were among others from Oregon schools four Oriental students, including one Japanese, one Korean and two Chinese. Representatives from 800 colleges in the United States and in Canada were present.

Mrs. Newcastle Entertained at Tea Saturday

HONORING Mrs. Charles C. Newcastle before her marriage recently, Mrs. Frederick A. Kribs and Mrs. C. C. Newcastle entertained at a large tea and musicale on Saturday at the home of the latter. More than 300 guests were asked for the occasion and the affair was a delightful one. Daffodils and pussywillows decked the tea table for the affair and spring flowers were placed about the rooms.

Presiding at the tea urns were: Mrs. Margaret Brent, Mrs. H. W. Wells, Mrs. William F. Woodward and Mrs. D. E. Bowman. Assisting about the rooms were: Mrs. Charles E. Hill, Mrs. H. W. Holden, Mrs. Harry Donovan, Mrs. Frank Lucas, Mrs. L. Goss. The guests were served by a group of younger women, among whom were: Miss Eleanor Woodward, Mrs. J. Risley, Miss Alta Inman, Miss Violet Evans, Miss Ruth Hendricks, Miss Vangelina Bard, Little Margaret Kribs received the cards at the door.

During the afternoon a musical program of unusual merit was given, those contributing to the entertainment including Mrs. Townsend Wells, Mrs. Nettie Greer Taylor, Mrs. Percy Lewis, Mrs. Florence Jackson Youngie, Mrs. H. W. Freeman and Mrs. C. B. Marks.

Mrs. John H. Renner was hostess on Monday for an informal luncheon at her home on Seventy-first street, on the occasion of her birthday anniversary. Covers at a prettily appointed table were placed for Mrs. Helen Lamar, Mrs. Nellie Cline, Mrs. O. R. Axley, Mrs. Helen Hasen, Mrs. R. Parr, Mrs. E. W. Luckey, Mrs. Ada Davis, Mrs. Alvina Spitzburg, Mrs. M. Blood, Mrs. Jessie Zant, Mrs. Mary Hawes, Mrs. G. L. McKay and Master Bobbie Zant.

The dancing party, which was to be given at Christensen's hall December 12 by the Misses Jessie Merries and Katherine-Jane Seel, and the Messrs. Glen Sherman and Donald Ramelell, but which was postponed on account of the weather, will be given next Friday night, January 23.

Miss Margaret Hewett returned to Portland on Thursday after spending a week in Seattle at the home of Mrs. Carl T. Donworth.

Al Krohn of Portland, son of Robert Krohn, physical director of the Portland public schools, a freshmen entering this term and a member of the Kappa Sigma fraternity, was unanimously elected treasurer of the freshmen class upon the resignation of Fred Scheurman of Ashland, who has joined the sophomore class.

Mrs. Clara Waldo, accompanied by her grandson, Folger Johnson Jr., left Thursday evening for Los Angeles, where they will spend the remainder of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Dunbar are down from Astoria for a few days and are guests at the Hotel Portland.

New Secretary Of Y. W. C. A. Is Given Reception

THE board members of the Y. W. C. A. gave a reception to their new general secretary, Mrs. Norman Christie, at the beautiful home of Mrs. C. J.

Smith on Alameda drive, Wednesday afternoon. The hours were from 3 to 5, and during that time about 300 representative women of Portland were received. Mrs. Smith, Miss Carrie Holbrook (president of the association), Mrs. George F. Wilson (vice president) and Mrs. Christie formed the receiving line. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Charles A. Morden, Mrs. John R. Dickehen, Mrs. William Woodward, Mrs. S. P. Lockwood, Mrs. D. F. Price, Mrs. E. H. Seneenloh, Mrs. John Pearson and Mrs. L. A. Andrus. In the dining room, which was decorated in pink and white and green, Mrs. F. M. Warren, Mrs. W. F. Norman and Mrs. W. D. Wheelwright poured, and Miss Lucia Morris, Mrs. F. H. Grigsby, Mrs. Ashley Ely, Mrs. Harold Temple, Mrs. Charles Dorman and Miss Dorothy Hunsaker assisted.

Mrs. Harry G. Thompson left Portland Wednesday for California, where she will spend a few weeks at Beverly Hills, near Los Angeles.

Raymond S. Crete and Paul G. Larsen have returned to Portland after an extended trip through British Columbia.

H. Liebes & Co.
ESTABLISHED 55 YEARS FURS 149-151 BROADWAY

January Clearance of Winter Apparel

Newly Arrived Jersey Dresses Go Into Sale at Clearance Price

New Styles $29.50 New Colors

Sketched Models Portray the Beauty of These Dresses

Dresses such as these will be shown to a big extent for spring, but not at anything like this price—dresses which are so practical and comfortable throughout the year in this climate.

Youthful Styles for the Miss
Matronly Styles for the Woman

Elaborately embroidered in silks of contrasting colors, also braided and plain designs, some with smart pockets, nearly all belted models.

Taupe Navy Browns Pekin Rookie Copenhagen

Made of good quality wool jersey, the same quality as used in all better dresses.

Sale Beginning Monday Morning at Nine Thirty

Clearance of Beautifully Styled Coats

The season's choicest coats are now offered at worthy reductions. Fabrics and styles in great variety. Many handsomely fur trimmed.

CLEARANCE PRICES

$34.85 $44.85 $54.85 $64.85

Suits Reduced for Clearance $44.85, $54.85

Fabrics suitable for all year wear. Colors most in demand. Styles for women and misses.

Buy a suit now while savings are greatest. You will need it in the springtime.

Selling of Exceptional Styled Blouses

1/3 Off Our most exclusive blouses which were originally marked $55 to $95.

1/4 Off A large assortment of fine blouses which were originally marked $22.50 to $45.

NO EXCHANGES

NO APPROVALS

NO RETURNS OF SALE ARTICLES

H. Liebes & Co.
ESTABLISHED 55 YEARS FURS 149-151 BROADWAY

No Exchanges

No Approvals

56th Annual Fur Sale

The coming of February will terminate this great sale of manufactured fur garments. Then the prices go back to the original. We advise you to buy now, not only for this year, but for next when the prices are bound to be far higher.

All Manufactured Furs
at 20% to 50%
Less Now

Fur Coats Reduced
$136 to $1600
Originally $170 to $2000

All lengths from hip to full—furs of Marmot, Siberian Squirrel, Russian Pony, Hudson Seal (seal dyed muskrat), Leopard, Near Seal (known as French Seal), Nutria, Moleskin and Kolinsky in extreme modishness. Many trimmed with contrasting furs.

Chokers Reduced
$22 to $160
Originally $27.50 to $200

Smart chokers which promise to be very popular for spring wear. A variety of pretty styles in all adaptable furs. Effectively worn with suit or dress, harmonizing colors.

Scarfs Reduced
$5.80 to $500
Originally $7.25 to $625

Various furs, rare and common, all designed and made on the H. Liebes & Co. high standard.

Capes, Stoles,
Throws and Other
Pieces Reduced

Early selections are urged as right now is the ideal fur wearing time. Fully three months' wear yet this winter.

Sketched by
H. Liebes & Co.'s
Artiste