Informal Party To Be Held by Knights Templar

KNIGHTS OF WASHINGTON commandery of the Knights Templar, will entertain with its first large informal party of the year on Thursday evening, January 22, at 6:30 o'clock, in the grand ball room and tea garden of the Multnomah hotel.

The affair will be in the nature of a box social, to be followed by community singing, cards and dancing, and is known among the Templars of the largest commandery in the city as a "know-each-other-better" party.

Each lady present will have a box and at 6:30 these boxes will be auctioned by John L. Etheridge and William H. Dean, who will be assisted by Walter O. Haines, Ralph R. Schomp, Arthur C. Brookings and George P. Elsmann.

The dining room will be in charge of Mesdames Harland H. Young, W. O. Haines, George P. Elsmann, Arthur H. Brookings and John McKinley.

Following the dinner a short community sing will be held under the leadership of Dr. William Wallace Youngson. Dancing will follow in the grand ballroom, and will be in charge of Sir Knights Hardy D. Rasmussen, A. H. S. Haffenden and C. J. Roswell. At the same time the tea garden there will be tables for "500" and bridge and these will be presided over by Mr. and Mrs. Nelson G. Pike, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. McClung, Dr. and Mrs. Sard West and Dr. and Mrs. Shuman, E. Wright.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Burkhardt regret to know that Mr. Burkhardt has been obliged to give up his portrait and pictorial work on account of illness. The Burkhardt studio in the Worcester building has been a delightful gathering place during the past fall and winter months and the Wednesday teas will be greatly missed. After a much needed rest, Mr. Burkhardt hopes to continue his pictorial work. His pictures in the exhibition of the Pictorial Photographers of America, now on display at the Art Museum, are much admired. Mrs. Burkhardt is making her home for the present with her mother, Mrs. J. W. Goss, in Irvington.

Of interest to the friends of the Coast Artillery corps is the announcement that the next dancing party to be given by that organization will be an event of January 28 at Multnomah hotel. Patrons and patronesses of the affair will be Colonel and Mrs. Creed C. Hammond, Colonel and Mrs. C. E. Dentler and Lieutenant and Mrs. Verne N. Walton. The committee in charge includes: Ray Trites, Joe Kuehler, William Sutherland, Warren Kohlman, Walter Burns, Henry Kuehler, Ray Williams, George Ross.

The dances given by this club are among the interesting social affairs which bring about the continuation of good comradeship among the men who served overseas during the recent war.

On Monday evening Miss Mary Cronin and Richard Bergen were united in marriage at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. G. C. Freeman. The rooms were decorated with roses and ferns for the occasion. The bride wore a gown designed by Mrs. Lillian Ashlock, and Miss Ada Albers sang the bridal hymn. Miss Myrtle Albers was the bridesmaid and Robert McKnight was best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Bergen have motored on to Los Angeles to spend their honeymoon. They will be at home to their friends at the Royal Arms, after February 1.

An informal dancing party will be given by the Iota Alpha club on Friday evening, January 23, at the Hibernal hall. The committee for the occasion includes: Eleanor Lillis, Amanda Bartlein, Lucille O'Hare, Lillian Gattion, Louise Tobin, Cecelia Fisher, Carmen Royer, George Williams, Edward Gentry, Raymond Crete, John Cannard, William McLaughlin, Harry Bushnell and Gerald Rayer.

A wedding of local interest occurred on Thursday evening, January 15, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Lincoln, 500 Davenport street, when Beatrice Helen Lincoln became the bride of Walter J. Kroder. Mr. and Mrs. Kroder will be at home to their many friends after February 1, at 712 Patton road.

Mrs. Eloise Hall Cook entertained a number of friends informally at tea on Thursday afternoon at her apartments at the King Davis, complimenting Mrs. Mischka Peiz, who has just resumed her musical activities after a long illness. Mrs. Cook was assisted at the tea table by Mrs. Elaine B. Coles and Mrs. Madison M. Hall.

Mrs. Frank J. Cobbs presided over an informal luncheon of covers on Wednesday at the Betty Lampe tea house.

Company H auxiliary to 1624 infantry will give a dance and card party Saturday at the East Side Business Men's club, Grand avenue at East Alder street.

Mrs. N. M. Link and daughter, Violet, are leaving on the evening train for San Francisco, where they will make their home. They will join Spencer B. Link, formerly of Portland, who has been in California for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bruce are enjoying a month's sojourn in California. They are visiting friends in Los Angeles.

Laurelhurst to Elect Officers Monday Night

MEMBERS of Laurelhurst club and community anticipate with interest the next meeting at the clubhouse on Tuesday night, when the board of directors of that organization will elect a president, vice president, secretary and treasurer, each officer to be a member of the board. A meeting of special significance was held at the clubhouse on Monday evening with a large attendance, all greatly interested in the outcome of the election scheduled to take place at that time. The result of the evening's business was the retention of Board Members A. C. Holmes, F. C. Bowker, Frederick A. Burgard and Nelson Jacobson. Dr. J. P. Tamiessie is president of the club and David H. Smith is secretary. A. C. Conover is also a holdover member of the board.

On Tuesday the women of the club met for their regular card party at the clubhouse. Mrs. W. C. Stone and Mrs. M. E. Staton were hostesses for the occasion. The winner at bridge was Mrs. P. R. Richardson and at "500" Mrs. L. L. Craig bore off the trophy. On Thursday evening an unusually congenial crowd of members of the club attended the regular dancing party. On Tuesday of this week the women's progressive unit will meet at 2 o'clock for cards and a social afternoon together. On Thursday the regular card party will be given at the clubhouse at 8:30 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Louis H. Kluge will be hosts for the occasion. On Friday evening the junior members of the club are anticipating a dancing party which will be given for their pleasure at the clubhouse.

Mrs. Victor A. Johnson asked in a few friends to make up two tables at bridge at her home on Wednesday afternoon to meet Miss Helen MacEachran, who is a visitor in the city at the home of her sister, Mrs. Walter Laag. A few additional guests dropped in for the tea hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Goldenberg announce the birth of a daughter, born Tuesday at the Maternity and Surgical hospital on Williams avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Cohan of Marshfield were visitors in the city at the home of Mrs. and Mrs. Charles Bliss Preston, in Irvington.

D. L. McDonald entertained with a small dinner party Tuesday evening. Six guests enjoyed the affair.

What Pershing Did Say
In the Home Sector, Hudson Hawley writes of General Pershing: "It is worth noting that the general never did actually utter, 'Lafayette, nous voilà,' any more than Clemenceau ever really said of the 14 points, 'And the good Lord himself had only 10.' 'Neither did he say, 'All that we have is yours,' in just those words, though he made his famous offer to Marshal Poch right enough. But he did say, to a representative of the federal council of churches, 'way back in December, 1917: 'Germany can be beaten, Germany must be beaten, Germany will be beaten.' 'And that,' he says, laughing, 'is about the only thing that I've been credited with saying that I ever really did say.'"
