What is a good tea for me? The kind you like, unless you like common tea which is full of tannin—you know tannin is bad for the insides. Fine tea has very little tannin; and you don't get even that little unless you steep it too long. Schilling Tea is the fine tea with real tea-flavor.

"TINKER BOB" STORIES BY CARLYSLE H. HOLCOMB

"Snow Shoe Hears Pika "PAT-PAT-PAT," Snow Shoe was talking with his feet. "Tinker Bob could understand all he said, however—three taps on the ground with his hind feet meant that someone was near. "Who is near?" asked Tinker. "I don't see anyone, but I am sure that some forest dweller is near." "Pat-Pat-Pat." The Snow Shoe Rabbit was always sure when he tapped

On the top of a pile of rocks appeared Pika the Cony Hare. On the ground, "I think it is Pika the Cony," said he. "I know he came down from the mountain the other day and I think he is here yet. He always comes out when there is any open weather and the snow doesn't block his doorway." Sure enough, on the top of a pile of rocks appeared Pika the Cony Hare. A Tinker Bob called to him, and in answer to the King's call Pika hurried to his side.

Douglas Jarmuth, new manager of the Peoples theatre, scheduled for early reopening after its remodeling and redecoration in Seattle. The opening practically a new theatre, comes to Portland, following long motion picture theatre experience in New York, Chicago, Los Angeles and Seattle. Some of his original ideas are being worked out in the making over of the Peoples, and it is promised that something entirely new in the way of effects will be offered at the Peoples after its opening.

When Jensen, Von Herberg took the Peoples over recently and put Jarmuth on the job, they told him to "go to it," and make it a regular J. & V. house—that is, that is what is being done. Mary Pickford in her latest film and the first of her releases under the "Big Four" arrangement, a picture version of Eleanor H. Porter's "Pollyanna," is scheduled as the opening feature at the Peoples. "Pollyanna" is said to be quite the best thing Miss Pickford has ever done.

Appeal Made By Mothers Succeeds

"THE article in The Journal quoting the War Mothers as opposing the employment of aliens and married women who have husbands to support them, when the positions were needed by our soldiers, has made us a great many friends," said Mrs. N. J. Ahlstrom, president of the War Mothers. "Friends and strangers began calling me up that evening before I had a chance to read my paper. We were interviewed by city officials and by heads of employment bureaus and immediately we began to get action."

"I know of a number of cases where alien employes have been replaced with soldiers. In some cases the aliens have been married men. It is too bad there isn't employment for all, but our own boys should have first choice. By that I do not mean that an American with a family should give up his place to a single soldier, not at all; it is only that Americans should have the preference over aliens.

"The matter of the married women holding positions that should be open to soldiers is a little more difficult to solve, but we War Mothers are going to stay right with it. After investigating the cases that come to our notice, we are going to make direct appeal both to the employers and to the women themselves and then if nothing happens we will publish the names of women who have able bodied husbands who can and are supporting them."
