

Legion Auxiliary Will Give Fifth Of Dance Series

THE American Legion auxiliary will give the fifth of its series of dances on Friday evening at Multnomah hotel. Patrons and patronesses include: Mayor and Mrs. George L. Baker, Colonel and Mrs. Carl Abrams, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Burgard, Mr. and Mrs. Jerrald Owens, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Pler, Mrs. E. B. Colwell, Lieutenant and Mrs. Harold Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kirk, and Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Irvine.

The committee in charge of arrangements includes: Mrs. S. B. Huston, Mrs. E. J. Ward, Mrs. Dow Walker, Mrs. George White, Mrs. J. A. Eivers and several prominent men to work on the floor committee. These dances are delightfully informal and are gaining in popularity. All funds received from proceeds from the dances are used in direct philanthropic aid to the former soldiers and their families.

Dr. A. A. Morrison entertained the officers and teachers of Trinity parish Sunday school at the rectory at supper on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Thomas Sharp assisted her father on this occasion in the absence of Mrs. Morrison, who is visiting in the East with her daughter, Mrs. John Cabean Beatty.

Miss Winifred Sullivan, daughter of the late Lawrence M. Sullivan and Mrs. Sullivan, became the bride of Morris Miney on Friday at a quiet wedding in Vancouver. Following the ceremony they left for Seattle for a short trip and will return to Portland to make their home.

A group of friends of Miss Florence Prevost, who leaves this week for New York, entertained in her honor with a dinner at the Benson hotel Wednesday and a line party at the Alcazar after-

MRS. J. E. MILLER, committee worker for dance and card party given by Acme Social club at Multnomah hotel Thursday evening. Mrs. H. C. Jones is patroness for midwinter ball of American Legion auxiliary on Friday at same place.

Mrs. J.E. Miller
Baskwell Photo

Mrs. H.C. Jones
The Peppers Photo

wards. Mrs. Ocean Jolly was toast-mistress and the guests responded with advice "To the Girl From the Little City Going to the Big City," their responses causing much merriment. A handsome centerpiece of freestias and carnations decorated the table, which was laid for 12. Clever place cards were hand lettered with humorous quips. Those present were Mrs. Ocean Jolly, Mrs. Helen Josselson, Mrs. Lucy Ely, Mrs. Kathryn Corfield, Mrs. Lettie Tiff Mills, Mrs. Robert Mullen, Mrs. Hazel Linney, Miss May Belle Rice, Dr. Edith Phillips, Miss Edythe Elix Fax, Miss Vivien Bretherton and Miss Florence Prevost.

According to telegraphic news received from Chicago, announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Gladys Galbraith of that city to Regimental Sergeant Major Marc Freeman of this city, who is stationed at Camp Grant, Ill.

Miss Celnoise De Grandpre became the bride of Lyle V. Douglas at the

THAT indefinable "something" that only a tailored suit possesses speaks in the faultless lines and exquisite workmanship of the tailors we create.

Schwitzer & Eagin
5th Floor, Columbia Bldg.
Entrance Next Rivoli Theatre

home of the bride's mother, Mrs. M. De Grandpre, in Iriverton on January 15. The service was read by the Rev. Father L. J. Roche, former chaplain in the flying corps of the British army. Miss Mae Campion attended the bride and George Oppenweyer was best man. Little Virginia Campion was ring bearer. The bride was gowned in a dainty frock of white net, worn with a picture hat, and carried a bouquet of bride roses and freestias. Mrs. C. S. Dixon played the bridal hymn and wedding march and Mrs. Harold Bayley sang. Pink blossoms and palms were used about the rooms for decoration on the occasion. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Harry Campion. Mr. and Mrs. Douglas will make their home in the Fenrose apartments after February 15.

Mrs. J. A. Johnson was hostess for a prettily appointed tea on Saturday at her home in the Alameda, honoring Miss Mabel Barker, whose marriage to James Whitcomb Clock will be an event of the spring. About 35 guests enjoyed the affair, a feature of which was a shower of dainty linens for the bridal chest. Miss Barker is a niece of Mrs. Simon B. Barker and a cousin of Mrs. Robert Graham Pithian. Spring flowers were used about the rooms for the occasion and appropriate bridal favors decked the table for the tea service. Preceding at the tea urns and assisting about the rooms were Mrs. G. F. Hartman, Mrs. M. Abraham, Mrs. W. E. Carlson, Mrs. C. L. Stanley and Miss Irma Austin.

Mrs. S. J. Levitt was hostess at a small luncheon given Monday at the Hotel Portland in honor of Miss Fannie Detstman, whose marriage will take place Wednesday. Miss Getteman's engagement to Nathan V. Sanford of Alberta, Canada, was announced recently. Covers were placed for six guests, each place being marked with a corsage bouquet.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Wilson, who make their home at the Hotel Portland, were hosts at a delightful dinner party given Monday evening in the grill in honor of a group of friends from The Dalles, who were returning from California. Wednesday the same company was given a luncheon by Mrs. Wilson. Covers were placed for 12.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Kerr left Portland on Friday for Walla Walla to spend the week-end.

The second of the series of dances to be given by the community service was an event of Friday evening at Trinity

Employers Will Give Card and Dancing Party

THE employees of the Kilham Stationery & Printing company are anticipating with pleasure the dance and card party which will be given for them by the members of the firm in the gold ballroom of Multnomah hotel on Friday evening. The affair is planned to foster the spirit of good fellowship among the employees and is to be the first of a series of similar functions to be given for their pleasure during the remaining winter and spring months. Extensive preparations are made to make the party a success. The committee in charge of arrangements includes Oliver O. Riddig, John S. Brooks and Clarence Larkins.

An evening party was given by the women of chapter M. P. E. O. in honor of their husbands at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. St. Clair, 420 East Twenty-second street north, A. H. Averill, A. W. Giesy, Glenn E. Husted and A. H. St. Clair were initiated. B. E. Haney, A. F. Bittner, Dr. R. H. Wellington, C. C. Patrick, L. H. Borton and Dr. C. J. McCusker assisted in the ceremonies. Cards and dancing were enjoyed during the evening. At the table B. E. Haney gave a toast to the new members and A. H. Averill responded. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Averill, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Bittner, Mr. and Mrs. H. Borton, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Patrick, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Parks, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. St. Clair, Miss Jessie Skinner, Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Wellington, Mrs. J. P. Whitlock, Dr. and Mrs. C. J. McCusker.

The home of Dr. and Mrs. W. Gilstrap on Winnetta boulevard was, on Tuesday evening, the scene of a delightful party given by the graduating class of the Central school of St. Johns. Miss Carlie Gilstrap, a member of the class, being the hostess. There are 30 boys and girls in the class, which is the first in the history of the school to graduate its entire membership, not one member failing to pass the examinations. The class motto is "Health and Right Living." The rooms were decorated in the class colors, gold and green. Games were played and refreshments were served. Among the guests were Mr. Van Tine, the principal of the school, and Mrs. Bertha Burghdoff, the teacher of the class.

Thursday evening Orphia temple No. 18, Pythian Sisters, held the installation of its newly elected officers, together with the regular meeting work, and a large number attended for this occasion. The Pythian Sisters were honored by the presence of the past supreme chief, Cora Davis, who gave a most pleasing and interesting talk. Being the first meeting in the new hall at 385 Yamhill, those present were served with a delightful luncheon, and throughout the remainder of the evening music and dancing were enjoyed. The next meeting will be held on the second Thursday in February.

The February 22 class of Oakley Green school, consisting of 31 members, together with their teacher and principal, W. E. Dickson, were pleasantly entertained Wednesday afternoon at the school by the Farwell teachers' convention. After an hour of games and music in the assembly room, the guests were led by the president, Mrs. C. A. Williams, to the serving room, which was artistically decorated with ferns and pussy willows. Refreshments were served by the members of the club.

Al Kader temple is planning an elaborate dancing party to be given at the Auditorium on Wednesday evening, February 13. Card tables will be provided for those who do not dance. This will be the first party given by Al Kader temple recently a large number of nobles and their ladies are planning to attend. The committee in charge consists of H. C. von Borstel, H. T. Hutchinson, Hugh J. Boyd, R. J. Gordon, Frank H. Vincell, H. P. Emery, C. N. Barrett, Merton W. Kiddle, Harvey Wells and William H. Lercher.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hadden Manners have taken apartments at the Portland for the remaining winter months. They will be in the city until March, returning at that time to their home in Underwood, Wash.

Dr. and Mrs. James W. Rosenfeld are expecting to arrive in the city on Wednesday after a sojourn of a number of weeks in California, where they have been touring by motor to points of interest in the South.

Of interest to Portland friends is the news of the marriage of Miss Agnes Snare Flythe to Edison Marshall of Medford, which was a recent event in

MRS. CHARLES EMERSON HIDDEN, who was before her marriage at the White Temple on New Years eve, Miss Eva Boscovich. Mr. and Mrs. Hidden are making their home in Portland at the Wheeldon Anne apartments.

Mrs. Charles Emerson Hidden (Eva Boscovich)
Photo Northwest Studio

Augusta, Ga. The bride is the daughter of a distinguished Southern family. Mr. Marshall is well known in the West and has a wide circle of friends in Oregon. During the war period he was stationed at Camp Hancock, Ga. where he was commissioned in the ordnance department. His books and short stories have received favorable attention during the past few years his most recent work, "The Voice of the Pack," now running serially in the Blue Book. Mr. Marshall is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Marshall of Medford and will bring his bride to that city to reside.

The home of Misses Margaret and Gudrun Brandt was the scene of a pretty miscellaneous bridal shower given last Saturday evening in honor of Miss Agathe Grendahl. Those present were: Mrs. Alf Oftedahl, Mrs. Charles Dunham, Misses Rachel, Olive and Olga Halling, Olga and Ella Gunderson, Jenny and Kirsten Trulsen, Sigrid Petersen, Marghild Boddig, Pauline Vellesen, Tille Anundsen, Lilly Hendricksen, Marie Tonseth, Christine Bergvik and Mrs. S. Aune.

Mrs. Edmund de Schweinitz was hostess on Wednesday for a smart bridge luncheon at the University club. Luncheon guests for the occasion included Mrs. Gilbert Durham, Mrs. Gerald E. Beebe, Mrs. Stanley L. Jewett, Mrs. Lewis A. McArthur, Mrs. Arthur Murray Sherwood, Miss Stella Frohman and Mrs. John Carr. Tables were placed for 12 guests at bridge for the afternoon.

The Purola club of Blumauer-Frank Drug company will give its first dance of the year at the Multnomah hotel Saturday evening. Special leap year features will be introduced.

St. Roses court, W. C. O. F., will give a card party Friday evening in the Forester's hall, East Forty-second and Taylor streets. Tables will be placed beginning at 8:30 o'clock.

The Catholic Order of Foresters, Sacred Heart court No. 728, will give a dance and card party Wednesday at Gregory hall, Center and Milwaukie streets.

Of interest to Portland friends was the announcement made last week of the engagement of Miss Mary Emma Kuckenberg to Nicholas Edward Long. Miss Kuckenberg attended Jefferson high school and also St. Mary's arrivals from Oregon who are spending the winter season here. At St. Petersburg, Fla., reservations have been made for 25 other Oregonians due there by February 1. Extreme cold weather that has been prevailing throughout the northern states has caused the registration of tourists to be the greatest in the history of St. Petersburg as a resort.

The Ladies' Auxiliary to the Ancient Order of Hibernians will entertain with cards and dancing Monday evening in Hibernia hall. Five hundred will be played from 8 to 10, and prizes have been secured for the winners. A three-piece orchestra will furnish music for dancing which will be the principal diversion after 10 o'clock. Light refreshments will be served. This is the pre-Lenten social evening of the auxiliary and every effort is being made to make this the most pleasant affair of the season.

The Officers' and Guards' club of Portland No. 7 of Lady Macabees spent a delightful afternoon January 13 at the home of Mrs. Baker, 561 Hoyt street. Business of the club was discussed, after which a delightful luncheon was served. It was announced that the club would give a card party this coming Tuesday afternoon, January 27, at the home of Mrs. Campbell, 769 Hoyt street. All are invited.

The social club of the Sunnyside chapter of the Order of Eastern Star will give a card party at the new Masonic temple in East Thirty-ninth street on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Miss Pearl Ellis, who has been absent from the city during the past year, has returned to her home in Portland at 454 East Twenty-second street north.

Mrs. Mabel Holman, who has served as queen of Nydia temple, Daughters of the Nile, since its organization, will install the newly elected officers Monday evening at Multnomah hotel ballroom. Members will be hostesses to their husbands or brothers. After the ceremony, dancing will be enjoyed, card tables will be placed for those who do not care to dance. Regular business sessions will be held Wednesday, February 4, at 2 o'clock at Knights of Pythias temple.

Distinctive Shops For Women

MARINELLO

A BEAUTY AID FOR EVERY NEED—
FACIAL TREATMENT
SCALP TREATMENT
ELECTROLYSIS
PERMANENT HAIR WAVE
MARINELLO PREPARATIONS
AND HAIR GOODS
MARINELLO COSMETIC SHOP
Marshall 2207 208 Broadway Bldg.

GREAT REDUCTIONS ON EARLY SPRING SUITS AND COATS

J. K. STERN

LADIES' TAILOR. 447 ALDER.
Clarks' Fresh every day. Morrison st., Bet. 4th and 5th. Tel. FLOWERS Main or A-1805.

JANUARY CLEARANCE SALE of QUALITY FURS

Savings of 20% to 40% on our reliable garments Splendid assortments

Hudson Bay Fur Co.

147 Broadway

ADVANCE SHOWING OF NEW Spring Millinery

UNUSUAL FASHIONS DIRECT FROM NEW YORK

BON TON MILLINERY

Third and Morrison at Moderate Prices

The HOME OF CONVENIENCE

WESTOVER is kissed by the forest's breath—and yet it is the near neighbor of the city's business district. It takes your auto or the street car only a few minutes to carry you from Westover's tranquil slopes into the throbbing world of business life.

IN SHORT, Westover offers you the ideal site for your home. Its nearness to the heart of things is only another reason why the terraces are the sites for so many of Portland's most beautiful homes. Added to its magnificent view is counted its extraordinary location. It is the place for the home of convenience.

THE area of Westover can never be increased. There are only a limited number of home sites available. Why not select your site now? If you desire to build, we can help you. If you want a site for future building, or as an investment, we offer you liberal terms.

WESTOVER TERRACES

"Portland's Best View Homesites"

For any information you may desire, just call on, phone or write HAROLD JUNGCK, Secretary INTERNATIONAL REALTY ASSOCIATES, OWNERS 1307 Yeon Bldg. Phone Mar. 630, Reg. E. 1999

Home of Mrs. M. L. ARONSON
2011 Westover Terrace Road
Westover Terraces

January Economy Sale

NOW IN ITS FOURTH WEEK
Wonderful Assortment—Big Reductions

Patent leather Pumps$5.45 and $6.45
Patent leather Oxfords$5.45 and $6.45
Fancy patent Oxfords, "extra"$6.45
Brown calf Shoes, cloth top, $11.00, now$8.45
Brown kid Shoes, cloth top, $8.00, now$6.45
Black kid lace, all leather$5.45 and $6.85
Black kid button, French heel$6.85
Some broken lines$1.85, $2.85, $3.85, $4.85

Knights Steps to Economy

It will pay you to come and just take a look in our Steps to Economy Department.

KNIGHT SHOE CO.

10th and Alder
Largest Oriental Rug Dealers in the Northwest

Oriental Rugs

—new importations of choicest Persian and Chinese weaves— at prices that positively cannot be duplicated, because of Mr. George Atiyeh's presence in the Orient and our policy of buying in immense quantities direct from makers? Come in at your early convenience.

Atiyeh Bros

10th and Alder
Largest Oriental Rug Dealers in the Northwest.