

MOVEMENT OF OREGON VEGETABLES SHOWN TO THE EAST

By Hyman H. Cohen
The glad news is here, smelt have again entered the Cowlitz and the first day 35 boxes were sent to one firm in Portland.

It was the rain that brought the big school of smelt into the river. That the smelt caught by the latter part of the season will be gradually lowered.

Oregon carrots are rolling by the carload to the east and middle west. The demand is growing fast and it begins to look as if the outside markets will want every carload that can be obtained here.
