

Small Functions Most Popular At Present Time

By Helen H. Hutchison

There are just 17 days before Ash Wednesday and the subsequent lull in social doings. Small functions for a few congenial friends still seem to be the favored form of entertainment for society. Even the extensive plans which were announced a short time ago by the house committee of the University club for "Mardi Gras," February 12, when the club was to have given a function similar to the carnival balls given in the South at this time, have been set aside and the usual dinner dance without the extra frivolities will be given on that evening at the club.

The buffet supper and dance given Saturday evening at the Portland Hunt club was the event of greatest interest during the past week. The affair was planned with unusual care and attention to details. The supper was served from a long table decked with seasonal blossoms and pussywillows. Oregon fire trees barked in profusion about the nooks and corners of the veranda, which was enclosed for the occasion, and lighted with gaily colored lanterns made a cozy retreat for the moments between dances later in the evening. James A. Beckett was chairman of the committee on arrangements for the event. His assistants included Mrs. C. Edward Grellie, Mrs. Ambrose M. Cronin, Mrs. Ralph W. Wilbur and Miss Carrie Flanders. Among the club members who made reservations for parties for the event were Mr. and Mrs. Beckett, Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Gilmore, Mr. and Mrs. James Nicol, Mr. and Mrs. W. U. Sanderson, Mr. and Mrs. Claude D. Starr, Mr. and Mrs. Lovell D. Winters, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Cronin, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wilbur, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Fagan, Mr. and Mrs. C. Edward Grellie, Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Kerron, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Page, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick L. Warren, Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Coghlan, Miss Mabel Wood, William Kavanaugh, Howard D. Charlton, George P. Stanley, E. H. Oppenheimer, Pat Riley, Major James McEl Wood, Mr. and Mrs. John Claire Monteth, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Martin, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cook.

Mrs. Charles B. Moore asked a few friends in for the tea hour on Thursday afternoon to meet Mrs. J. L. Carter of Hood River, who is a visitor with her husband in the city for a short time.

Honoring Miss Dorothy Bliss, whose engagement to Arthur Norman Wray was announced recently, Mrs. Loring K. Adams presided over a luncheon at the University club on Wednesday. Among the guests for the luncheon were the

MRS. W. C. BRISTOL, one of Portland's charming matrons, who was a recent hostess, entertaining at a California visitor. Mrs. J. B. Montgomery, who entertained at a tea for her niece, Mrs. Montgomery Russell.

Miss Honeyman Will Be Wed on Wednesday Next In Past Week

THE marriage of Miss Helen Honeyman to Arthur Trumbull Brown will be an event of Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James D. Honeyman on St. Clair street. Miss Nadine Caswell will be maid of honor, Miss Elizabeth and Miss Mary Bacon will be bridesmaids. Little Barbara Aya and Thomas H. Hindman, who are cousins of the bride, will be ring and ribbon bearers. Walter Brown, recently returned from service and a brother of the bridegroom, will be best man. The service will be read by Dr. A. A. Morrison.

Mrs. Paul French, who has recently returned to the city from British Columbia to make her home in Irvington, was the guest of honor at a tea given on Tuesday by Mrs. M. H. Lamond at the Betty Lampe tea house. Mr. and Mrs. French included Mrs. William C. Alvord, Mrs. G. B. McLeod, Mrs. C. J. Smith, Mrs. Warren Keeler, Mrs. A. Wurzweller and Miss Helen Drain.

A Valentine dancing party will be given at the Portland Heights club on the evening of February 14, for which the Misses Eloise Higgins, Ninon Trunkman, Martha Shull and Mabel McKibbin will be hostesses. Invitations for the affair have been sent to more than 200 of the school set for the occasion. The parents of the young hostesses, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Higgins, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Shull, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. McKibbin and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Trunkman, will receive with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Wilton Tevis are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son born to them on Sunday morning. The baby, who is the grandson of Senator and Mrs. George E. Chamberlain, will be called Wilton Childs Tevis. Mrs. Tevis was Miss Fannie Chamberlain before her marriage, and has made her home for some months past at Winlock, Wash., where Mr. Tevis is in business.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Cook, who are spending some time in San Francisco, were recent hosts at a dinner party at the Hotel Cecil. The dinner table was decked with seasonal flowers for the occasion. Their guests included Dr. and Mrs. Hartland Law, Hubert Law, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Warner, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Miller of Detroit, Mich., and Mrs. Willis R. Morris.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Wilson presided over a dinner party at their home on Westover Terrace Wednesday, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Appleby. Later the party attended the Helix theatre. Guests for the occasion included Mr. and Mrs. Appleby, Mrs. J. B. Montgomery and her niece, Mrs. Montgomery Russell of Seattle, and Mrs. Robert Howard.

The next lecture to be given in the Junior league course at the First Presbyterian church house on Friday morning will be "Some Problems in Citizenship Training," by Dr. Joseph Schaefer of the faculty of the University of California. The lectures are given under the auspices of the Junior league for the woman's building fund.

Thomas J. Mullin was the honor guest at a stag dinner given Monday evening at the Hotel Portland by 50 of his business associates of the staff of The Oregon Journal, of which he has been advertising manager for a number of years, and with which he has just severed his connection to take up similar work in Salt Lake City.

Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Bailey Jr. are visiting in California at present. They have been guests of Mrs. Bailey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Katherine Valentine, in Pasadena for a short time, and will arrive in Portland this week to visit Mr. Bailey's mother, Mrs. Meredith Bailey Sr., who has come to the city recently from Philadelphia to make her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Ehrhorn, who left Portland recently for Belgium, are spending a few days in San Francisco. While there Mrs. Ehrhorn has shared honors at several informal social functions with Mrs. Francis D. Langton (Flora Miller) who is visiting her mother, Mrs. H. M. A. Miller, in the South.

Mrs. Alexander J. Brownlie and her daughter, Mrs. Charles F. Larrabee (Mary Brownlie), of Bellingham, are visitors in the city for a short time, and are stopping at the Mayfield Hotel. Mrs. Brownlie has been for some months past in New York city visiting at the home of another daughter, Mrs. Walter S. Jeliff.

Portland friends will be glad to know of the return to the city of Mrs. Otto Grice, who has been absent from Portland at the home of her parents in Moscow, Idaho, for some months. Mr. and Mrs. Grice have taken apartments at the Multnomah hotel for the present.

Mrs. F. H. Page and her daughter Helen have been hostesses for a gay little happy party at the Long Beach Hotel, during the past week. Guests included Miss Anna Munly, Miss Virginia Tevis, Miss Cornelia Tevis and Miss Jean Stevens.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy R. Fields are spending a short time at Jacksonville, Fla. They are stopping at the Hotel Seminole.

Mrs. M. A. M. Ashley entertained five of her friends at luncheon at the Betty Lampe tea house on Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Anne Hibler, the hostess of Forest Hall on Columbia river highway, has returned to the city following a month's sojourn in Southern California. She will open her attractive home on the highway today.

Mrs. J. C. English was hostess for a delightful surprise party for her son, Richard, at the home in Alameda Park on Friday evening. A group of the younger folk were present and the evening was spent with music and dancing.

Mrs. George A. Nevins presided over an informal luncheon followed by two tables of bridge on Thursday at her home in Marine Avenue. The affair was given in honor of Miss Flora Mason.

Mrs. E. H. Geary presided over a luncheon at Waverley Country club on Monday, which was followed by two tables of bridge. Mrs. Geary's guests were Mrs. Josephine Smith Andrews, Mrs. Elliott R. Corbett, Mrs. C. Henry Davis, Mrs. C. Edward Grellie, Mrs. Frederick L. Warren, Mrs. David Taylor Honeyman, Mrs. Morris H. Whitehouse, Mrs. William O. Vanschuyver and Mrs. Erskine Wood.

Dr. and Mrs. James W. Rosenfeld and Mrs. Aaron Frank, who have been touring through Southern California for the past four weeks, returned to Portland Wednesday.

Mrs. Frank J. Cobbs was hostess for a smart luncheon at her home on Montgomery drive on Wednesday, her

Brides-Elect Share Honors In Past Week

MISS ESTHER TUCKER and Miss M. Margaret Hewett, two brides-elect, shared the past week at a number of functions planned for their pleasure. On Sunday they were entertained at a tea for which Mrs. MacCormac Snow was hostess. On Monday Mrs. Wallace McCannan asked a few friends in for the tea hours in honor of Miss Tucker. On Tuesday the young women shared the attention at a smart luncheon for which Mrs. Elliott R. Corbett was hostess. Guests for the occasion included Mrs. Spencer Biddle, Mrs. Rogers MacVeach, Mrs. Kurt Koehler, Mrs. Lewis A. Mills, Mrs. Mortimer Hall Hartwell, Mrs. Irving Webster, Mrs. MacCormac Snow, and the guests of honor. On Wednesday Mrs. Erskine Wood was hostess for a similar affair. Her guests included Mrs. Henry Green Reed, Mrs. Rogers MacVeach, Mrs. MacCormac Snow, Mrs. Lewis A. McCannan, Mrs. Mortimer Hall Hartwell, Mrs. Robert H. Noyes, Mrs. Elliott Corbett, Mrs. Spencer Biddle, Mrs. Alan Green, Mrs. Kurt Koehler, Mrs. William Maxwell Wood, Mrs. Gerald Beebe, Mrs. Hallett Maxwell, Mrs. Curtis Bailey, Mrs. Arthur Murray Sherwood, Mrs. Lewis Mills, Mrs. Charles F. Larrabee. On Saturday evening the brides-elect shared honors at a dinner for which Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett was host.

Miss Helen Page presided over a delightful tea at her home on Jackson street Thursday, honoring Miss Helen Honeyman and Miss Esther Tucker, brides-elect, whose weddings will be events of the near future. Presiding at the tea table for the occasion were Mrs. Percy L. Menefee and Mrs. Francis D. Langton, both young matrons from San Francisco who have recently come to Portland to live. Assisting about the rooms were Miss Jean Stevens, Miss Anna Munly, Miss Cornelia Tevis and Mrs. Harold Gill. About 40 of the younger society maids and matrons called during the tea hours.

The marriage of Miss Rhoda Fullam, daughter of Admiral and Mrs. William F. Fullam, to Raymond Welch of Spokane, has been set for February 14. The event will take place at Coronado, where the Fullams have been spending the winter. The wedding of the admiral's daughter is of particular interest to Portland folk because of the visit of the young woman in this city with her parents during the time the Pacific fleet was Portland's guest. Miss Fullam has selected her sister, Mrs. Austin Sanda, for matron of honor. The bridesmaids will be Miss Helen Garrett and Miss Catherine Ramsey of San Francisco.

Mrs. Frank J. Cobbs was honored guest at luncheon for which Mrs. C. A. McCargar was hostess, at the Betty Lampe tea house Wednesday. Covers were placed for 12 guests, their number including Mrs. Cobbs, Mrs. C. W. Baker, Mrs. T. W. Nordby, Mrs. James Thompson, Mrs. Freeman O. Downing, Mrs. George Lawrence Jr., Mrs. W. C. Bristol, Mrs. Hugh Gearing, Mrs. Harry S. McCracken, Mrs. Frederick Morris and Mrs. Illick C. Fenton. Mrs. Cobbs is leaving in a short time for the East.

Mrs. Montgomery Russell of Seattle, who is a visitor in the city at the home of her aunt, Mrs. J. B. Montgomery, was honored at a tea Tuesday for which the latter was hostess. Mrs. Russell, who is the wife of Dr. Russell, has visited in Portland a number of times and has a number of friends here.

Presiding at the tea urns during the afternoon were Mrs. Lucius Allen Lewis, Mrs. W. B. Aver, Miss Failing and Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett.

One of the smart functions of the week was the Valentine party given on Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. James B. Kerr for the young friends of their daughters, Elizabeth and Katherine. Valentine favors decked the clubhouse for the occasion and the party was a delightful one.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Cranston have taken an apartment at the King Davis for the remaining winter months. They have been making their home for some time at the Mallory hotel.

Mrs. Joseph Nathan Teal and her mother, Mrs. D. P. Thompson, who have been spending the winter in California, returned to the city on Friday.

STRADIVARA
"KNOWN FOR TONE"

The one name to look for because it so positively assures you a musical instrument of Superb tone and beauty

The Stradivara tone quality, matched only by the original instruments or voices that produced the records, is the result of the Stradivara soundboard's wizardry. Such tone is possible only because this soundboard is based on the same principle and made in the same fashion as the soundboards of the violin and piano.

Unusual voting privileges in the $12,000 Prize Awarding Contest
