Benjamin-Anderson Contest Postponed : Milwaukie Boxing Card Is Announced

BENJAMIN RING BOUT SET BACK

Portland Smoker to Be Held February 27; Milwaukie Card Announced by Kendall.

FOLLOWING the receipt of a telegram from Billy Gibson, who is managing oJe Benjamin, the Northwest lightweight sensation in addition to handling Benny Leonard, the world's lightweight champion, that Benjamin had been ordered not to hox again until the last week In February, Jack Grant, matchmaker of the Portland boxing commission, has postponed his smoker to February 27.

JOE DUE THIS WEEK Benjamin will arrive in Spokane this week and will be in Portland next Saturday or Sunday to start conditioning himself for the contest. Freddie Anderson, who will box Benjamin, is not in the best of shape, according to reports, hence the postponement will be welcome in both camps.

As Gibson and Leonard are due on the coast this month, it may be possible that they will come north to witness Benjamin battle.

Grant is working on the other bouts on the card and promises to give the

PUTTING ON GLOVES

New York Lawmakers Scratching Heads Over Best Way to Regulate Boxing.

By Henry L. Farrell TEW YORK, Feb. 2 .- (U. P.)-Amer-IN ica, so to speak, is putting on the gloves

Millions of robust young Americans came out of the army confirmed boxing fans. They boxed as a part of their fighting education. They saw boxing conducted on a high standard and they want to see more boxing.

The United States is strong for the gloved sport, but the states individually are afraid of it. Only a few of the 48 are conscious of its elevation from back-of-the-barroom orgy to sport appealing to the best in the highest type

GAME NEEDS REGULATION Boxing needs no recommendation as a builder of strength in body and char
