

Beaver Boss Counting on Maisel for Center-Milwaukie Club Will Stage 2 Shows in March

MAISEL TO LAND WITH MACKMEN

Centerfielder Will Be Back, Provided Terms Are Reasonable; Seeking Left Gardener.

By George Bertz
GEORGE MAISEL will be one of the regular outfielders of the Portland Beavers this season, provided he is reasonable in his demands for new figures in his contract.

Although he had an off season in 1919, Walter McCredie believes that Maisel will be able to deliver the goods this year and is banking on him to hold down the center field berth.

The McCredies have offered Maisel the same contract as he received last year, but in view of the lengthening of the season and the high cost of living, the former Seal has asked for a bigger salary.

His batting mark last year was .262, which is about 60 points under his usual standard. He writes from Baltimore that his leg, which was injured last year, is as strong as ever and that he is in good condition.

With Maisel holding forth in center field and "Biff" Schaller slated to hold down the right pasture, McCredie's worries as far as his outfield is concerned are centered on the left garden.

Using Walker as bait
He has Jack Farmer, Richard Cox and Cuyler, the Los Angeles semi-pro, on the reserve list, but is using Frank Walker as bait to hook a 300 hitter from one of the eastern circuits. Bill Clymer, manager of the Columbus club, is after Walker, but his offer of McCarty, an outfielder who is capable of putting up a fair game at center base, as well as the one for Bailey, have been rejected by the Beaver boss.

McCredie is willing to swap Walker for Taggart, the star of the Columbus outfield, but Clymer is not very anxious to part with him.

Should it develop that McCredie is unable to land an outfielder for Walker he will likely ask Frank Navin of the Detroit Tigers to lend him a hand.

If Jack Farmer, who is a holdout, reports and is in good health he will likely be stationed in left field.

Carpentier to Sign for Battle On Tour of U. S.

Paris, Feb. 6.—(U. P.)—Georges Carpentier, European heavyweight champion, probably will sign with Jack Dempsey to fight for the world's title during his coming tour of America.

M. Deschamps, manager of the Fresno fighter, announced his sailing plans.
"Carpentier and I are to sail from Havre March 15 on the Touraine. We probably will sign Dempsey during our tour of the United States," he said.

Deschamps also denied reports published in Paris newspapers that Carpentier is to be married soon.

BENNY LEONARD TO SEEK BATTLE WITH CHAMPION O'DOWD

This, of Course, Depends on His Showing With Johnny Dundee Monday Night.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—(I. N. S.)—Benny Leonard will step out of his class to take on Mike O'Dowd, the midweight champion, if he knocks out Johnny Dundee in Jersey City next Monday night.

Dave Driscoll, promoter of the Leonard-Dundee bout, today announced that he has offered Leonard the O'Dowd match with the proviso that the light-weight champion must put Dundee away and Benny has agreed to try for it.

Driscoll originally intended to match O'Dowd with Jeff Smith, but Smith has sailed for France with Al Lippe and a string of boxers. Leonard has long cherished an ambition to meet O'Dowd, and since Jack Britton outpointed the midweight champion, Benny is confident that he, too, can defeat the boy from St. Paul.

Dundee, however, is somewhat of a stumbling block. The Italian boxer has suffered only one knockout in his long career — at the hands of Willie Jackson — and has stood Leonard off seven times.

Those who will start the game are Stinson and Arthur, forwards; Elkeman, center; Hubbard and McCarty, guards.

TWO CARDS TO BE HELD IN MARCH

FRANK KENDALL, matchmaker of the Milwaukie boxing commission, has announced the dates of the next three smokers to be held at Milwaukie. They are:
February 20 or 24, March 17, March 21.

The decision of the Milwaukie commission to stage a second smoker this month was reached after it was announced by the Portland boxing commission that its next smoker would be postponed from February 27 to March 2. Kendall is negotiating with some eastern battlers for his March cards. He refuses to divulge the names of any of the mitt wielders until he is absolutely sure that they will come.

TO BE HELD IN HELIG

Jack Grant, matchmaker of the Portland boxing commission, was forced to postpone the Joe Benjamin-Fredde Anderson contest on account of the fact that the latter, who is on the trail of Jack Dempsey, is anxious to come to Portland to display his wares. Jack Grant, matchmaker of the Portland commission, is negotiating with Tom O'Rourke, Fulton's manager, and it is likely that his offer for a contest will be accepted.

O'Rourke is also handling Billy Afleck, the English lightweight, who came over on the trail of Jack Dempsey, and it is likely that he will offer for a contest with Leonard's title.

Harry Casey's miserable showing against Pugzy Morton Saturday night has caused the local fight followers to make Stanley Willis favorite over him in the contest at Milwaukie next Wednesday night.

FULTON MAY COME HERE

Fred Fulton, the lanky plasterer, who is on the trail of Jack Dempsey, is anxious to come to Portland to display his wares. Jack Grant, matchmaker of the Portland commission, is negotiating with Tom O'Rourke, Fulton's manager, and it is likely that his offer for a contest will be accepted.

Counsel for the defense had medical practitioners on hand to prove with aid of the skeleton, that Mrs. Daniels would have been unable to walk had she suffered the injuries she claims.

STARVING While the World Looks On

No. 5 of a series on "Know Portland and the Northwest"

Portland—Established as the Center of the Livestock Industry of the Northwest

The ninth annual Pacific International Livestock Exposition November 17-22, 1919, emphasized the importance of and gave new impetus to an industry already firmly established in Portland, having for its particular feature the completion of a $300,000 pavilion, covering 7 1/2 acres.

Take a glance at these very interesting statistics for the year 1919, received at the Portland Union Stockyards, North Portland:

Hogs	204,870
Sheep	214,523
Calves	11,418
Beef cattle	113,985
Horses	2,308

or a grand total of 7216 carloads, exclusive of dairy cattle, evaluated at over $20,000,000.

LADD & TILTON BANK

Oldest in the Northwest
Washington at Third

Though these figures will of themselves establish Portland as the livestock and packing centers of the Northwest, they furnish no criterion for 1920, for the receipts are increasing with unprecedented rapidity, and 1920 will be the biggest year in the history of the livestock industry. No small part of this success has been due to the co-operation of the banks of the community, and Ladd & Tilton Bank feels the keenest interest in its promotion and development. It therefore stands behind it in all legitimate banking ways.

Jimmy Wilde Only Foreigner Holding World's Boxing Championships; Europeans Named.

PARIS, Feb. 6.—(U. P.)—America, England and France were apportioned 10 votes each here yesterday at the organization and establishment of the international boxing union.

Major Drexel-Eddie, president of the American boxing board, called that the apportionment was satisfactory to the sport.

With the exception of the light heavyweight title, which was declared vacant, the holders of all the world's championships were agreed upon:

Hal Chase to Quit Baseball Diamond

Reports that Hal Chase, first baseman of the New York Giants, intends to quit the national game, came as quite a surprise to baseball folk throughout the country. No reason for Chase's retirement has been given, but it is understood that the veteran first baseman intends to devote all of his attention to business.

Should Chase quit the game, it is probable that Manager McGraw of the Giants will try George Kelly, the youngster acquired from the Rochester club of the International league two years ago, at first base. Kelly was quite a sensation in the International league and when signed by McGraw was given a chance at first base. He was still a bit green at that time, but has apparently now reached the stage where he will fit in right should Chase decide to quit.

OREGON HOOPERS DEFEATED BY W. S. C. IN CLOSE CONTEST

Spurt in Second Half Enables Cougars to Annex Victory Over Lemon-Yellow.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Feb. 6.—Overcoming a five-point lead which Oregon established in the initial period, Washington State hide hurriers defeated the fast Lemon-Yellow team Thursday night in one of the fastest games ever seen on a local floor by a score of 29 to 27. Eddie Durno, the university's brilliant forward, starred for the Eugene team, annexing 19 of Oregon's counters, and Brick McIver, all-coast guard of W. S. C. last year, who watched Durno, was perhaps most noticeable of the victors' performers.

At the beginning of the second half, with the score board registering 18 to 13 in favor of the Eugeneans, both aggregations started off with a bang and the game settled down to a clean exhibition of the knock-down-drag-out variety. During all of the last period it was either team's game.

The lineup:
W. S. C. (29): For. Oregon (27)
Moore (18).....F.....(11) Durno
Kocher (8).....C.....(2) Lind
King (1).....G.....(4) Latham
