

MRS. PAUL FRENCH, a charming young matron of Irvington, who has recently returned to the city from British Columbia to make her home. Miss Rachel King, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Elliot King of Mount Tabor, who will leave Portland on Wednesday for Chicago to visit former Portland friends and remain indefinitely.

Card Party at Laurelhurst Is Very Successful

THE women's Progressive unit of the Laurelhurst club was hostess for an unusually successful card party at the clubhouse on Tuesday afternoon. Forty-six tables were placed for players of bridge and 500.

Oregon grape and cut flowers placed in baskets about the clubhouse added to the attractiveness of the affair. Miss Katherine Jordan violinist, accompanied by Miss Dodge on the piano, gave a group of selections during the afternoon. Tea was served following the cards. Prizes in bridge were awarded to Mrs. I. P. Richardson, Mrs. W. D. Dalton and Mrs. C. B. Duffy. The 500 awards went to Mrs. F. M. Graham, Mrs. L. S. Stinson and Mrs. S. Raphael. The reception committee consisted of Mrs. Nelson Jacobson, Mrs. L. Goehler, Mrs. R. C. Long, Mrs. F. L. Steele and Mrs. F. A. Burdard. Floor committee, Mrs. L. H. Kluge, Mrs. Emil Nelson, Mrs. J. P. Buchanan and Mrs. Fred Weber; refreshment committee, Mrs. J. O. Pitt.

The regular fortnightly card party given at the clubhouse on Thursday evening was well attended. Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Neth were hosts for the occasion. Those taking honors at bridge were Mrs. E. T. Hall and L. P. Richardson. Mrs. William Rice and W. B. Haines took honors in 500. The women's afternoon card club will be entertained at the clubhouse on Tuesday afternoon, by Mrs. W. J. Bishop and Mrs. Fred Dose.

The Laurelhurst club annual mask ball will be held at the clubhouse on Thursday evening, February 12. This event has always proved to be a enjoyable affair and good attendance is expected. The affair is for members of the club only.

Mr. and Mrs. Christopher D. Brunne presided over a smart dinner party on Saturday evening at their home on Riverside drive honoring Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Cobb, who will leave Portland on Wednesday evening for the south to spend the remaining winter months. Guests for the occasion included Mr. and Mrs. George F. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Cannon, Dr. and Mrs. George Flanders Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Franklin T. Griffith. Mr. and Mrs. Cobb on their trip through the south.

Miss Elizabeth Peters, who is spending the winter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Peters in Oakland, Cal., was given a reception and dance at the Town and Down club by her former classmate, Miss Doris Baldwin of Berkeley. Miss Baldwin and Miss Peters were at Dana Hall, at Wellesley last year. Miss Peters left last Saturday for a three months visit to the Atlantic states, spending the most of that time with relatives and friends in New York, Boston and Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew R. Porter left the city on Saturday for San Francisco to visit their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Van Rensselaer Sternberg (Margaret Porter). They were accompanied by Miss Sara Patrick.

Mrs. William McCall who was last week a visitor in Seattle at the home of Mrs. George T. Myers has returned to her home at Alexandra court.

Washington's birthday will be celebrated at Reed college by a masquerade ball given Saturday evening, February 21, according to plans formulated by the

A WORTH WHILE TIP
TAKARA
Trade Mark
ANTISEPTIC POWDER
is a cleansing, healing, germicidal and invigorating douche. A great aid in hemorrhoids and female disorders. 50c and $1 per box. Sold by
PORTLAND HOTEL PHARMACY

Entertainment Of Delegates' Wives Planned

PORTLAND women are making extensive plans for the entertainment of the visiting delegates and their wives during the third annual convention of the Northwest Master Builders' association of February 26, 27 and 28. To afford recreation for the women visitors whose husbands will be in session at the convention, a reception committee has been appointed to be assisted by the wives of local contractors. Mrs. O. G. Hugheson is chairman of the committee and will be assisted by Mrs. Oscar Wayman, Mrs. J. S. Sead and Mrs. M. R. Paralus. The visiting women will be received on the mezzanine floor of the Multnomah hotel, which has been selected as headquarters for the convention. The women will be registered and looked after during their stay in Portland.

Plans for their entertainment include a rose luncheon to be given in the black and white tea room of Meier & Franks on Thursday, February 26, at 12 o'clock. The committee in charge of arrangements for the luncheon is composed of Mrs. J. J. Tranchell, Mrs. J. L. Quinn and Mrs. A. C. Meyer.

The evening will be devoted to a social entertainment to be given at Multnomah hotel. Cards and a program will offer diversion for the occasion. Portland women will act as hostesses for the event, the committee in charge including Mrs. Thomas Muir, Mrs. J. M. Dougan and Mrs. M. W. Lorenz. In addition to this committee, Mrs. J. S. Sead will have charge of card tables for the affair and Mrs. Oscar Wayman will look after details of the program. A delightful dinner and dancing party was given Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Marten at their home in Rose City park, in honor of Miss Emma Kourgenheimer of Spokane, who has been their house guest for the past week. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah Jones, Dr. and Mrs. H. Hurlbut, Mr. and Mrs. William Marten, Mable Rankin, Mae Clarke, Doris Giesh, Howard Archibald, Reuben Charles Goffreiere, Max Lavelle and Louis Westford. Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Burns, Mrs. Giles Coon and Miss Margaret Coon of Meenah, Wis., are guests at the hotel.

MRS. PATRICK BACON, who will act as a patroness for the Lincoln's birthday card party given at the Multnomah hotel by a group of Catholic organizations. Miss Genevieve Ward of the Daughters of Isabella, who is on the committee for the card party. Mrs. I. Aronson, who is in charge of the motor squad for the Near East relief drive this week.

Pennsylvanians Honor Memory Of Gen. Hancock

IN celebration of the birthday anniversary of General Winfield Scott Hancock a dinner will be given on the evening of St. Valentine's day in the Tyrolese room of the Benson hotel in which prominent men and women of the city, members of the Pennsylvania society, will participate.

Mr. William Wallace Youngson, president of the society, will be toastmaster. Mrs. Warren E. Thomas will be at the piano and Mrs. Louis Dahl Miller will sing. Judge Wallace McCannant will speak on "Washington"; Dr. John H. Seacor on "Lincoln"; Attorney W. W. Dugan Jr. on "Dr. Benjamin Rush" and Dr. J. E. Hall on "General Hancock," whom he knew personally and under whom he served.

The committee on arrangements consists of James A. Gurvey, Edgar H. Senonich and P. A. Gatz. The Pennsylvania women's society is invited. Reservations may be made through P. A. Gatz, secretary, 1187 East Yamhill street, Tabor 7846.

Mrs. Charles R. Higgins and Miss Betty Higgins of Astoria, and Mrs. D. S. Warren of Warrenton, are spending a few days in the city and are guests at the Hotel Portland. Mrs. Hinton Denny Jones of Tacoma is spending a short time in Portland. She is stopping at the Mallory hotel.

Mrs. Honeyman Guest of Honor Of Art Club

MRS. JESSIE W. HONEYMAN was the guest of honor at a dinner party given on Wednesday evening at the Portland hotel by the members of the Business Women's Art club of the Portland Art association. Mrs. Honeyman is a visitor in the city at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Rockey for a short time.

Before giving up her home in Portland recently to make her residence elsewhere, Mrs. Honeyman did much toward the organization of the class and has been much interested in its development during the winter months. Following the dinner the party adjourned to the Art Museum where Mrs. Honeyman showed slides and pictures of the work of Tintoretto and of scenes in Venice. The party included Mrs. Honeyman, Mrs. George L. Marsh, Miss Marie A. Rockwell, president of the class; Miss Charlotte M. Harris, Miss Viola Charleston, Mrs. Ocean Jolly, Miss Cora Redheffer, Miss Virginia Muller, Mrs. Crystal Bussling, Miss Mary Armstrong, Miss Jessie E. Elliott, Miss N. F. Flack, Miss Mary E. Mathews, Miss Martha O. Goldsp.

Mrs. Frank J. Cobb was honor guest at a luncheon Thursday at the home of Mrs. C. N. Huggins. Mrs. Cobb expects to leave for the South in the near future for a short time. Guests for the occasion were Mrs. E. C. Griffin, Mrs. George Duskee, Mrs. Cook, Mrs. C. A. McCargar, Mrs. Charles E. Rumelin, Mrs. F. F. Belcher and Madame Belcher, Mrs. Hicks C. Fenton and Mrs. George A. Nevins.

Mrs. John Leonard Riddell (Ethel Malpas) and her little daughter, Patricia, are visitors in Portland for an indefinite period at the home of Mrs. Riddell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick C. Malpas. Captain Riddell who has been stationed near Spokane for some time is now on duty in South Dakota.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Lipman, who have been in New York for several weeks, are planning to arrive in Portland about February 14 and will be at their home, 714 Wayne street.

Mrs. Fred A. Kribs entertained half a dozen women with a line party at the Orpheum Wednesday afternoon and later tea was enjoyed at the Portland hotel.

The dancing party of the Tillamook club will be given on the evening of February 14 at the Multnomah hotel. Dancing begins at 9 o'clock.

The marriage of Mrs. Lulu Lowry and James S. Church was an event of January 31 at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. F. L. Williams, the Rev. J. Bowersox officiating. The bride is a graduate nurse from Sioux City, Iowa. Mr. and Mrs. Church will make their home at 125 West Alberta street.

The Iowa State society will meet at the Turn Verein hall, 255 Thirtieth street, Wednesday evening. A short program will be followed by cards and dancing and refreshments will be served. All former residents of the state of Iowa and their friends are invited to attend these meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Rittman and daughter, Frieda, left Portland on Wednesday for San Francisco. They will visit also in Oakland and in Southern California. Mr. Rittman is president of the L. B. Baking company. They will be absent from the city about a month.

Mrs. Thomas Frothingham of New York city is a visitor in Portland at the home of her sister, Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett, for a short time. Mrs. Frothingham will return to California Tuesday and will be accompanied on the trip by Mr. and Mrs. Corbett.

Miss Lillian Bennett, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. M. S. Bennett, entertained at a birthday luncheon and theatre party on Tuesday afternoon. Guests for the occasion included the Misses Barbara, Prael, Julia Crew, Marjorie Warren, Aileen Monks, Anita Tichenor and Maxene Bennett.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Morrow are visitors in San Francisco and are stopping at the Cliff hotel in that city.

Spring's Mirror

Reflects Smartest of New Fashions at

H. Liebes & Co.

Skill, Talent and Ingenuity has produced for the Spring season styles with unprecedented charm and grace.

The Suits—

of navy blue tricotine, poiret twill, serge and fancy check and stripe velours in spring colors.

Priced at $55, $75, $95, $125 and to $175

Plain tailleur style, coat having triple pocket effect and tuxedo collar, skirt plain.

Semi-fitting style, braided and embroidered, hand embroidered buttons. A very clever model.

Heavily embroidered suit with ripple effect, shown off very attractively with vest of white satin.

Eton suit with underblouse of black satin, fancy sash with large silk tassel, accordion pleated skirt.

The Coats—

Short jaunty models for sport, spring motor wear, street wear and other wear of the most wanted fabrics in stylish colors.

Priced at $25, $29.50, $39.50, $45, $55 up to $165

Polo coat plain in design, leather belt, fancy stitching on pockets.

Covert cloth coat, three-quarter and full length, leather belt, fancy linings.

Attractive heather coat, three-quarter length, leather collar and cuffs.

Plain jersey coats and jersey trimmed with angora collar and cuffs, belted models, very suitable for sport wear of most any kind.

The Dresses—

Elaborately trimmed and simple, yet cleverly styled models, in the new favored colors, fabrics of silk and wool, and combinations.

Frock of tricotine for street wear, pockets and buttonholes, faced with brown leather; a very cunning style.

Frock of navy taffeta, accordion pleated hip ruffle, gold embroidered, collar and cuffs of white lace.

The Skirts—

$9.75, $19.75, $29.75 and to $45

A very unusual grouping of finely styled skirts consisting of taffeta, fancy faille, Fan-ta-si, crepe, tricolette, moire, Paulette, baronette satin, silk jersey and georgette, made into most fascinating styles, rich colorings and blendings.

Wool skirts in fancy plaids, checks and stripes; most attractive colorings and favored styles.

Beautifully colored angora skirts for early sports wear are now shown.

The Blouses—

$12.50 $17.50 $22.50 $37.50

The new blouse styles are very likeable, featuring the basque, over blouse and regular styles, in crepe de chine, georgette, crepe meteor and Mignonette, new short sleeve effects, trimmed with yarn embroidery of contrasting colors, gold, rope silks and coins.

Spring Furs

Many pretty summer fur designs are now shown. Main floor.

H. Liebes & Co

ESTABLISHED 55 YEARS FURS 149-151 BROADWAY

Distinctive Shops For Women

MARINELLO
A BEAUTY AID FOR EVERY NEED—
FACIAL TREATMENT
SCALP TREATMENT
ELECTROLYSIS
PERMANENT HAIR WAVE
MARINELLO PREPARATIONS
AND HAIR GOODS
MARINELLO COSMETIC SHOP
Marshall 2997 208 Broadway Bldg.

GREAT REDUCTIONS ON EARLY SPRING SUITS AND COATS
J. K. STERN
LADIES' TAILOR. 447 ALDER.

Clark's Fresh every day. Morrison st., Bet. 4th and 5th. Tel. A-1805.

Buy Next Season's Furs Now

Prices will be higher later on furs and fur garments.