

MRS. ABRAHAM L. SHIPMAN, a popular member of the staff of the city schools of Portland, whose marriage was an event of Tuesday evening. Mrs. Shipman was Miss Agathe Grondahl before her marriage. Miss Margaret Malloy, who left the city last week for San Francisco to make her home indefinitely.

K. of C. Will Give Elaborate Party On Lincoln Day

PLANS are now practically perfected for the large and elaborately arranged Lincoln day party to be given Thursday evening at the Hotel Multnomah by the Knights of Columbus assisted by the Alumni association of the Immaculate Daughters of Isabella, Ladies' auxiliary of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, Woman's Catholic Order of Foresters, Ancient Order of Hibernians and Catholic Order of Foresters.

The affair is being given as a benefit for the convent of the Dominican Sisters, located on Stanton street between Williams and Rodney avenues, and the proceeds will be used in installing a modern heating plant in the convent. The ball room and the assembly room will be used for dancing, two orchestras having been engaged. The Knights will be in direct charge of the dancing room, with Patrick Bacon as general chairman. Special provision is being made for those who prefer cards and the hollyhock room will be converted into a card room with Mrs. E. H. Deery and a corps of able assistants in charge. A number of handsome prizes have been donated by leading merchants which will be awarded to those holding high honors. Refreshments will be served in the tea room, Mrs. W. J. Thatcher being in charge of this feature of the evening.

A special point will be made of greeting and introducing everyone who attends, thus assuring a pleasurable evening for all. The reception committee consists of Mrs. Frank Clifford, Miss Genevieve Ryan, Miss Howard Bliss, Mrs. Grace Hershuhl, Mrs. William Kelly, Miss Marie Meagher, Miss Anne Sullivan, Miss Sophie Henkle, Miss Mary MacKinnon, Miss Margaret Kellaher, Miss Madge Quinn, Miss Mary Scherzinger. Tickets for the party, which are $1 per couple, may be secured from the Knights of Columbus headquarters on the eighth floor of the Multnomah hotel.

The following prominent women will act as patronesses: Mrs. J. P. O'Brien, Mrs. M. G. Munley, Mrs. Patrick Bacon, Mrs. P. J. Hanley, Mrs. J. C. Costello, Mrs. Charles E. Cheney, Mrs. John M. Coghlan, Mrs. James Laidlaw, Mrs. J. P. Kavanagh, Mrs. Daniel Maher, Mrs. B. D. Coffey, Mrs. John W. Kelly, Mrs. John E. Coffey, Miss Margaret R. Burke, Mrs. John G. English, Mrs. O. M. Lowell, Mrs. Roger E. Sinnott, Mrs. J. Frank Sinnott, Mrs. J. F. Neidermeyer, Mrs. Daniel Kellaher, Mrs. M. H. O'Connor, Mrs. A. E. McGrath, Mrs. Arthur C. Dayton, Mrs. H. F. Kalvalage, Mrs. Charles B. Duffy, Mrs. J. J. Burke, Mrs. Miles J. Sweeney, Mrs. D. W. Ward, Mrs. A. C. Greenwood and Mrs. J. N. Casey.

Miss Mary Remlinger was hostess for a birthday party at the home of her parents, 225 Cook avenue, February 2 in honor of her grandfather, Nicholas Remlinger, on his eightieth birthday anniversary. Those present were: Mrs. Annie Schmitt, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Houser, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Remlinger, Mr. and Mrs. Marx Remlinger, also the grandchildren and great-grandchildren of the family. After a sumptuous repast the children and grandchildren presented Mr. Remlinger with a purse containing a sum amounting to a dollar for each year of his life.

Miss Agathe Grondahl became the bride of Abraham L. Shipman on Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Betty Grondahl at 430 East Sixty-fifth street. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Wil-

Portland Man Plans for Party To Be Married To Be Held by To Seattle Girl O. E. S. Progress Chapter Biggest One O. E. S. Has In This State

THE work of the committee in charge of the benefit dancing and card party, to be given by the social club of Portland chapter 97 Order Eastern Star, February 12 at the Auditorium, is progressing favorably.

Patrons and patronesses include: Mrs. Robert McMurphy, worthy grand matron of Oregon; E. E. Kiddle, worthy grand matron of Oregon; Mayor and Mrs. George L. Baker, Commissioner and Mrs. J. M. Mann, Commissioner and Mrs. S. C. Pier, past grand matrons and also matrons and patrons of the local chapters of the Order of the Eastern Star, Beaverton, Forest Grove, Vancouver, Gresham and Oregon City members will attend this affair.

Betsy Ross tent No. 1 Daughters of Veterans held its installation recently at 525 court house. Miss Caroline Scherer acted as installing officer assisted by Mrs. Mand Gelman as installing guide and Miss Myrtle Mendish as musician. The officers installed were: Mrs. Lydia Wendick, president; Mrs. Della Eley, junior vice-president; Mrs. Mary Orewille, chaplain; Mrs. Agnes Mastie, treasurer; Mrs. Florence Sturdevant, Mrs. Cheney, Mrs. Alice Williams, members of council, Mrs. Minnie Anthony, patriotic instructor; Miss Lillie Misenheimer, secretary; Mrs. Applegate, Miss Doris Streeter, musician; Mrs. Adella Hanson, color bearer No. 1; Miss Ella Frost color bearer No. 2; Mrs. Sarah Merrill, color bearer No. 3; Mrs. Alice Williams, color bearer No. 4; Mrs. Adeline Strecker, 5th division; Mrs. Williams, assistant guard. The honorary guests were: Miss Florence Sturdevant, department president; Miss Caroline Scherer, department patriotic instructor; Miss Cora McBride, department secretary.

Word has been received in Portland of the arrival in New York of Daniel Woodward, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Woodward, and his bride, who was Mademoiselle Marthe Jeanne Gerard of Paris. Mr. Woodward has been in service of the United States navy as master signal electrician and was for a time stationed in Paris. He enlisted in 1917 with the 41st telegraph battalion. Mr. and Mrs. Woodward have been visiting in New York city for the past week with the former's sister, Mrs. Perry D. Myers. On their arrival in Portland Mrs. Woodward, mother of the bridegroom, is planning a large reception.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hahn were hosts for an informal party Saturday evening, for which 16 guests were bidden. Music furnished diversion for the occasion and an informal program was planned. Those who were included in the guest list are: Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Holmes and Mrs. John A. Martin, Mrs. Martin Sr., Mr. and Mrs. William Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Berridge, Miss Anna Naeve, Miss Ethel Jones, Miss Pearl Kendall, Messrs. Roy Marion Wheeler, Virgil Edwin Inham, C. W. Cottam, Harry H. C. Naeve.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Holcomb are being extensively entertained by their friends in Portland. Mrs. Holcomb (Dorothy Nell) is a recent bride, who was married in Los Angeles a short time ago. Her girlhood was spent in Portland, where she was a popular student at Washington high school. Mr. Holcomb is the son of Sam Holcomb of the trunk and bag factory, and is also a Portland man. Mr. and Mrs. Holcomb are making their home at 528 East Stark street.

Mrs. Isabelle Flynn of Mandan, North Dakota is a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Edith J. Steele. A sister of Mrs. Steele's, who is spending the winter in Southern California, is expected here for a visit in March.

R. H. Sawyer returned to Portland Tuesday morning from a three weeks' sojourn in Southern California. Mr. Sawyer was accompanied on the trip by his brother, George Sawyer of Salt Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Pernot and daughter of Corvallis are staying at the Hotel Portland while in the city.

Among the Portland visitors in San Francisco who have been stopping at the Bellevue hotel during the past week are: Dr. C. W. Cornelius, James Keho, F. W. Arriss and Mrs. Arriss, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Harmon and B. F. Shepherd.

Mrs. H. T. Love, who recently left Portland to make her home in Salem, was the guest of honor at a tea on Wednesday afternoon, in the Capital city, for which Mrs. James Nicholson was hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Moore were hosts on Tuesday evening for an informal dancing party honoring Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Pallitz, who are leaving the city in the near future for California.

Mr. and Mrs. Meyer Simon will be at home today from 2 to 5 o'clock at 872 Northrup street.

ANNOUCEMENT is made of the engagement of Miss Sophie Belkin of Seattle to Benjamin N. Katz of this city, formerly of San Francisco. Miss Belkin has a wide circle of friends in this city as well as in Seattle, where she was graduated from the Franklin high school. She is the daughter of Mrs. A. R. Belkin of Seattle. Mr. Katz had the distinction of being chosen boy mayor of San Francisco in 1910, after a competitive examination conducted among 40,000 public school pupils. He studied law for several years, enlisting in the aviation officers' reserve corps shortly after war was declared. Mr. Katz is in business in Portland with Blank's Sample Shop.

The marriage of Miss Esther Caroline Schiewe and Alfred Edward Whiteside was an event of mid-January at the Church of the Madeleine in Irvington. The service was read in the evening by the Rev. Father E. E. Hertzler assisted by Father C. H. Davis. Walter Hobbard was best man and Miss Ruth Schiewe, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Cleo and Helen Zotaw attended the bride as flower girls. The wedding march was played by Dr. Emil Enna. Following the ceremony an informal wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schiewe on Michigan avenue, with about 150 guests in attendance. The bride has a wide circle of friends in this city and attended school here. Mr. Whiteside is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Whiteside. During the war period he served for two years in France with the 1st division. Mr. Whiteside will make their home in the Eldridge apartments.

Last Friday evening a number of the members of the forest service and their friends were entertained at a leap year party by Misses Gladys Palm and Katherine Vignar, at the latter's home in Laurelhurst. The evening was spent in dancing and card playing. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Scrutton, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Harbord, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Vignar, Mrs. George Moyer; Misses Gertrude Conroy, Edna Patchin, Leola Blount, Louise Wehtie, Alice Ure, Mildred Sinnott, Florence Barnhart, Helen Ulin, Katherine Vignar, Gladys Palm, Messrs. F. E. Ames, Walter H. Love, N. C. Cary, B. F. Heintzleman, B. A. Eddy, H. T. Glasborne, Henry Deutch, T. Mehring, Henry Freeberg, Charles Conroy, Ray Ure and George Jankowsky.

Nydia temple, Daughters of the Nile, held their inaugural ball last week at the Multnomah hotel. Eighteen officers were installed for service during the year. The queen jewel was presented to Mable Holman, who has been the highest official, by Queen-elect William S. Hutchins. The evening was a beautiful remembrance was given by her officers. Dancing and cards were enjoyed by members and guests following the ceremony. The honorary guests were: Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Cowgill Jr. and Walter J. Holman.

Interesting visitors in Portland are Dr. and Mrs. F. C. Farmer of Chicago who are house guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Farmer of Irvington for a short time. Dr. Farmer has been in service with the army medical corps for some time and has recently been in charge of wounded soldiers on board the steamship Manchuria when it was doing transport duty. Dr. and Mrs. Farmer are on their way to California, where they have been given three months' leave from duty owing to recent illness.

Miss Carrie M. Tyrer became the bride of Sidney J. Harris on Tuesday evening at her home, 1184 Greeley street. The bride was given in marriage by her father. The service was held in the presence of a number of friends and relatives of the bridal couple by the Rev. J. Bowersox.

Harold Henry, pianist, who is to appear Wednesday evening in concert, is a member of Sigma Chi fraternity and will be the recipient during his stay in Portland of a number of social attentions from his fraternity brothers in this city. He was graduated from the University of Kansas.

Mr. and Mrs. William MacMaster expect to sail late in March from New York for abroad. They expect to go to France, England and to visit their home in Scotland, where they have been absent from the city about three months.

Among the Portland visitors in San Francisco who have been stopping at the Bellevue hotel during the past week are: Dr. C. W. Cornelius, James Keho, F. W. Arriss and Mrs. Arriss, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Harmon and B. F. Shepherd.

Mrs. H. T. Love, who recently left Portland to make her home in Salem, was the guest of honor at a tea on Wednesday afternoon, in the Capital city, for which Mrs. James Nicholson was hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Moore were hosts on Tuesday evening for an informal dancing party honoring Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Pallitz, who are leaving the city in the near future for California.

Mr. and Mrs. Meyer Simon will be at home today from 2 to 5 o'clock at 872 Northrup street.

Chapter Biggest One O. E. S. Has In This State

By A. D. Crige
MARtha WASHINGTON Chapter No. 14, Order Eastern Star, was chartered June 17, 1891, with 23 members. Of this list only six are living. They are Mrs. Caroline Blackley, N. B. Crane, Mrs. M. E. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. McClung and Charles E. Miller. The first worthy matron was Mrs. E. T. Bullock and the first patron, O. B. Crane. The first associate matron was Mrs. M. E. Hall. Martha Washington chapter met first in Ross hall, Union avenue between East Pine and East Ash streets. In January, 1908, it moved to the Masonic hall at East Eighth and East Burnside streets.

The chapter is the largest in Oregon, with 700 members, and is one of the largest on the Pacific coast. The present officers are: Mrs. Ella Johnson, worthy matron; C. L. Carpenter, worthy patron; Mrs. Lulu Mills, associate matron; Mrs. Belle Richmond, secretary (now serving fifteenth year); Mrs. Clara Williams, members of council, Mrs. Smith, conductress; Mrs. L. Maude Ball, associate conductress; Mrs. Jessie Voorhies, chaplain; Mrs. Sarah Z. Alvord, marshal; Mrs. Clara Smith, organist; Mrs. Marie Straubel, Adah; Maude Stokes, Ruth; Miss Amie Young, Esther; Mrs. Rachael Fullman, Martha; Mrs. Beatrice R. Johnson, Electa; Mrs. Kittle L. Day; C. H. Iwing, sentinel. Mrs. Ella Johnson, worthy matron of Martha Washington chapter, is well known in fraternal and social circles. Her husband is J. J. Johnson, master of Evening Star grange, a past master of Palestine lodge, A. F. & A. M., and a well known attorney. Mrs. Johnson is an active member of the grange, the Rebekahs, I. O. O. F., the White Shrine of Jerusalem and the Wilbur M. E. church. At one time she was identified with the Parent-Teacher association and for eight years she has served Martha Washington chapter in different capacities.

Mrs. Lulu Mills, associate matron of Martha Washington chapter, is well known in the order and has served the chapter in various capacities. In 1917 she was treasurer; in 1918 associate conductress; in 1919 conductress, and is now advanced to the position of associate matron, where her friends are confident she will continue to make good and earn further confidence of the chapter.

The second annual mask ball of Portland lodge, Loyal Order of Moose, is to be given Wednesday evening, February 18, at Moose temple, Fourth and Taylor streets. The affair is in the hands of an experienced and capable committee consisting of E. M. Fryer, W. C. H. Smith, L. F. Knowlton, M. B. Coade, each assisted by sub-committee. The ball will be open to the public. In connection with the conducting and presentation of the ball more than 20 persons will be engaged in various activities. The orchestra will consist of nine, and the music will be of the best. The Moose balls and dances are characterized by good order, respectable attendance and the best of care in every way. The large hall will accommodate 600 couples, and the public is invited. All receipts over actual expenses will go to the building fund.

E. P. Ramsey, circulation manager of "The Trestle Board," a Masonic publication with offices in the Masonic temple, San Francisco, has been spending several days in Portland, and has secured over 600 subscriptions to his publication from members of the fraternity. Within the last year this publication has extended its field of activities to include the entire Pacific coast with British Columbia and Alaska, and increased its circulation from 1800 to 22,000.

F. A. Beard, district manager for the Woodmen of the World, is a member of MRS. ELLA JOHNSON, worthy matron of Martha Washington lodge No. 14, Order Eastern Star. Mrs. Lulu Mills, associate matron of Martha Washington chapter. Morris Perkle, dictator of Portland lodge No. 19, Junior Order of Moose, a youth's fraternity allied to the Loyal Order of Moose. Clifford Gardner, past dictator of Portland lodge, J. O. O. M.

Multnomah camp No. 77, and a resident of Portland—when at home. He declares "I am not a Bolshevik if I am all beard, and Spokane has initiated 275 candidates in three months." Beard has

The Woodmen of the World with 187,000 members has over 12,000 veterans of the world war on its rolls.

Brown Kid French Heel 9-Inch Top—$9.85

A beautiful Havana brown high top laced, French heel. "February Special"

BROWN HOSE, to match.... $1.15

In Our Steps to Economy

Knight Shoe Company
Morrison Near Broadway
Business hours 9 to 6, including Saturday

Just a Few Years Ago—

It was not possible to buy a pair of glasses combining near and far vision unless you were willing to put up with unsightly and unsanitary glasses.

But today a pair of Kryptok lenses will give you perfect vision for near and far work. Good looking, no lines or seams to collect dirt and make a black line across your lenses—

And at a nominal price.

Our Optical Department is in charge of experts.

MAY WE SERVE YOU!

STAPLES — The Jeweler-Optician
266 MORRISON ST., Between 3rd and 4th

FINE FURS FOR ALL OCCASIONS
N. M. UNGAR
141 BROADWAY, 340 ALDER ST.
Southwest Corner of Broadway and Alder

NEW SPRING STYLES IN FUR CHOKERS
Hudson Bay Fur Co.
147 BROADWAY

We Excel in CLEANING AND DYEING of DRAPERIES CURTAINS, CARPETS, RUGS and Wearing Apparel of Every Description

WHEN YOU SEE A SPOT PHONE EAST 625

Master Dyers and Cleaners
Broadway Dye Works

Bewitching — the New Millinery for Early Spring

As dainty, as sweet and pretty as a debutante. In those soft, fashionable tints that nature originates.

Hats of Braided Raffia with soft silk crowns

Shiny Patent Leather Hats
trimmed with those touches of hand-worked raffia flowers, some with ribbon that make our hats admired and desired.

Priced $10.00 to $35.00

The Conder MILLINERY Sixth & Alder