1200 OF 30,000 ROOMS Fight Over Liquor WANTED FOR SHRINERS ARE ALREADY RESERVED

Persons Who Will Rent Room to Delegates Visiting Here in June Are Asked to Tell Committee.

been listed with the Imperial Shrine committee of Portland residents who will furnish rooms for the visitors to the Shrine convention in June, Mark Woodruff, secretary, said. Since only 20 of the 180 volunteer workers canvassing the city have reported and since many of the districts have not been touched Woodruff predicts that they will easily have 30,000 rooms listed before April 1, the date on which assignment will com-

Thirty thousand rooms was the number assigned to residence portions of the city, other visitors to be cared for downtown hotels, schools, churches and public institutions.

Besides rooms for housing the visitors, the Shrine committee must also obtain rooms in residences for those occupants of the Y. M. C. A. and different hotels who have volunteered to give over their rooms for the Shriners.

Mrs. Jesse Herrington, formerly manager of the Remington Typewriter company, has been placed in charge of the housing division and will handle all the card lists and attend to the assignments. Applications for rooms are already on hand from all portions of the country.

them to get in touch with each other. The visitor will be asked to notify the resident at what time he expects to arrive, so that all arrangements will be complete. This will obviate Portland women staying at home and missing all the fun downtown while waiting for a 'roomer" who never shows up, said Woodruff.

Persons with rooms to spare for the Shrine convention may telephone their names in to the committee in the Gasco building and thus facilitate the work of the canvassers.

Rich Woman Leaves $100,000 to College

Seattle, Feb. 12.-(U. P.)-One hundred thousand dollars was left to the University of Washington by the will of Mrs. Frank McDermott, pioneer Seattle business woman, founder of the Bon Marche department store. The bequest was made for the furtherance of medical research work at the university and for the purchase of radium. The bulk of the estate of $1,200,000 was left to Frank . McDermott, husband of the deceased and to her four children. Minor bequests were made to Seattle charities.

Lands 2 Marshfield Ranchers in Court

Marshfield, Feb. 12.—As the result of of trouble over liquor G. E. Bennett, prominent sheep and cattle man of Curry county, and his brother, Ernest Bennett, were fined $250 in a justice court and bound over to the Curry grand jury. William Johnson of Port Orford was fined $50 for illegally trans-porting liquor. In addition to these charges, the United States marshal's office at Portland has been asked to investigate the case. It is claimed Johnson was sent to Crescent City, Cal. get liquor for Bennett, and that the latter suspected Johnson would not deliver it. Johnson claimed he was held up in his auto at the Bennett ranch with a gun and the liquor taken. He started an assault case against Bennett and the i lal brought out the liquor
