David Warfield Welcomed Again

By S. R. Jr. IT MAY be that our perceptions and sensibilities are growing keener, or it may be that the art of David Warfield is ever developing stronger appeal, but the fact remains that "The Auctioneer," at the Helig last night, attracted roused our sensibilities and turned at our heart strings, to a considerably greater degree than it did when we saw "Dave" in the play some years ago.

DAVID WARFIELD playing in Portland again this week in his master success, "The Auctioneer."

Fraternal Notes

Rose City camp, Modern Woodmen of America, held a largely attended social meeting at Turn Verein hall on Monday night at its hall, 8 Eleventh street. The evening closed with dancing and the dancing closed with an old-time Virginia reel. Many young folks and some who thought themselves old enjoyed the evening immensely.

Mrs. Laber Is New Head of Study Club

By Vella Winner MRS. J. B. LABER was unanimously elected president of the Tuesday Afternoon club at the annual meeting held this week at the home of Mrs. H. F. Travis. Mrs. Laber has been a prominent member of the organization for a number of years and the club is indeed fortunate in securing such an able executive. Other officers chosen were: Vice-president, Mrs. William Cavanaugh; secretary, Mrs. Harry E. Chipman; treasurer, Mrs. W. H. Dickson; historian, Mrs. H. J. Jackson. These officers do not assume their duties until the first of October.

The Tuesday Afternoon club is one of the older organizations of the city. It has a limited membership of 25 and is essentially a study club, although it has to its credit many deeds of patriotism and philanthropy. The Laurelhurst Study club held its regular meeting Monday. The study of French literature was continued, "Marquise" being the subject for the day.

The woman's auxiliary to the Railway Mail association will give a Valentine party Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. L. M. Ireland, 29 East Twenty-seventh street.

A debate, the subject of which is "Resolved, that censorship of moving pictures as practiced in Portland is right," will be the principal feature of the meeting of the Oregon Typographical union, to be held Saturday at noon in the crystal room of the Hotel Benson.

The Psychic club will give a Valentine entertainment Saturday evening, February 14, in the parlors of the church, East Seventh and Haswell streets. There will be a musical program and dancing, games and refreshments from 10:30 to 11:30 p. m.

An organization meeting of the Junior auxiliary of the Council of Jewish Women was held last Sunday. The officers elected are: President, Marian Sichel; vice president, Sylvia Wienslein; secretary, Ora Kishner; treasurer, Minerva Holzman; directors, Anna Guterson, Ruth Herrns, Margaret Nesbitt, Lena Winsten, Bertha Goodman.

The Wisconsin society held a largely attended meeting at Turn Verein hall, on Thirteenth street, Thursday evening, and the ballroom was filled with members at an early hour. Refreshments were served in the basement stein room under the direction of President F. C. Carey and Secretary Miss Alma Alstie, assisted by an active committee.

Kirkpatrick council, Security Benefit association, gives its Valentine, leap year and fraternal dance at Swiss hall, Third and Columbia streets, this evening.

Eureka council, Security Benefit association, Monday night, at Multnomah W. O. W. hall, had initiation and full fraternal. President Fred P. Holms presided.

Multnomah tent of the Macabees held a card party Monday night in Orient hall, on the east side, and the Ladies of the Macabees held joint meeting. George A. Graves, deputy district commander, promises to have a class of candidates next time. Linton tent of the Macabees has a class ready for adoption this (Tuesday) evening at the lumber suburb.

Williamette tribe, Improved Order of Red Men, Monday night gave the adoption and warrior degrees to a class of candidates. The committee on Wicwam reported that the subscriptions for the building, which is to be on East Ninth and Hawthorne avenue, are coming in steadily. As soon as $20,000 are assured the building will be started.

Columbia lodge, Degree of Honor, entertained members and visitors Monday night at the East Side Business Men's club with cards, dancing and refreshments.

THE Stroller notices

THAT we're glad that we have found no mysterious newspaper-wrapped bundles about our premises.

That when a morning contemporary can't find anything else to print it falls back on a picture of the Striker baby.

That a couple of birds were fussing around a nest in a tree at the side of the path through the woods this morning.

That we never realize how handy our pocket-knife is until we leave it at home in our other clothes.

That some of our friends miss it too, when their lead pencils break.

That the Portland hotel buses need painting.

That the stars no longer twinkle in the dome of the Helig theatre.

That children under 10 are not admitted for fear they might disturb the performance.

That men with hacking coughs and squeaky shoes can get by all right.

That "Sheep" on the B. M. line lost his trolley rope this morning.

That climbing atop street cars is no job for a fat man.

That a high school boy passenger rescued the rope for him.

Brickbats once in a while do a fellow good. It makes him appreciate the bouquets more fully. It's like getting your health and strength back after you've been picking at the coverlets for a month or so.

That's why we're so tickled at the kind letters, a lot of 'em, that have come in since our little unknown "Martin" borrowed someone's typewriter and two-cent stamp. He didn't bother us much; we're kind of tough, but he made the little Titan cry, and that gets our Rocky Mountain goat.

Anyway, the regular letters have more than soothed the bumps and dried the tears.

One of Them Portland, Feb. 11. Dear Stroller: My name is not in the city directory because I'm not a Portlander, but just the same I'll say "James H. Martin" is a "nut." Sincerely yours, Boise, Idahoan. Sure he is, a loose one, too.

Another One Portland, Feb. 11. Dear Stroller: We do not agree with James H. Martin. We think your like column is the most interesting item in all the paper. As sure as the Journal comes each evening I read what "The Stroller" has to say to four interested kiddies, and Ed, aged 8, says "Mother, The Stroller is the best because I'm not a Portlander. He comes to see us every evening." So you see what seems to bore Mr. Martin gives pleasure to a few youngsters. You should worry what he thinks. Keep the good work up. Here's luck to you and the little family. From an Interested Reader.

Bless the kiddies. Still Another Feb. 11. Dear Stroller: Congratulations, and more power to you, on becoming such a splendid drawing card in the center of our city. You are the best paper in Portland. They are to be congratulated, too. "James H. Martin" certainly has liver spots on his disposition, and should take a plunge in the Willamette to get rid of them. F. B. To be continued tomorrow.

Vaudeville at Lincoln High Lincoln high school students have given tonight in the assembly hall. The high school orchestra will furnish music. A movie made by the school's own machine will be shown; a mock wedding will be put on by the boys of the high school. A few rows were staged by the Hakanaki campfire girls; the Adelphean society, the Philolexian society and Aeolian society will furnish numbers, and the event will close with a jivey dance in the gymnasium.

The Misses Helen and Phyllis Coplan will entertain with a Valentine party at their home on Wasco street Friday evening. Thirteen couples of high school folk will participate in the affair.

Members of the Portland alumnae of Gamma Phi Beta will hold their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Harold N. Wheeler, at 747 Weidner street, Saturday afternoon.
