

BROKEN PROMISES MAKE FAMINE IN AUSTRIA GREATER

Hundreds of Persons Drop Dead in Vienna Streets From Starvation; Condition Is Serious.

By William E. Nash
Special Cable to The Journal and The Chicago Daily News.
(Copyright, 1920, by Chicago Daily News Co.) Paris, France, Feb. 13.—The announcement of the impending arrival of two cabinet officers from Austria turns attention once more to the miserable plight of that unhappy country.
None of the promises made to Chancellor Renner in December last has been fulfilled. No credits have been advanced and no food has been shipped, save only the 10,000 tons of grain lying in the harbor of Trieste which had already been bought and paid for. In consequence of this starvation is actually at hand, and the head of the Austrian delegation in Paris. Every day several hundred persons drop dead in the streets of Vienna.
YOUNG SUFFER MOST
"What makes the situation more terrifying," continued Baron Eickhoff, "is the effect it is having on the future of the race. Women and children suffer the most. A large percentage of the latter under 15 years of age are already dead. Ninety-seven per cent of those who remain are under-nourished and according to an American report, they are deformed, emaciated and crippled. All the schools have been closed for it was found that the children went to sleep as soon as they entered a well heated room. As for the women the conditions are even more tragic. It is a calamity for them to enter the period of childbirth for rarely, if ever, does mother or child come out of it alive. They therefore seek by every means in their power to avoid having children. It means the death of the race.

"Oh," groaned the envoy, pressing his hands to his forehead in a sort of stupefaction, "if America would only understand. If out of her richness and plenty she would only save 7,000,000 poor people from starvation! It is so little we ask. Moreover, it is not charity we seek but a good business investment we offer for our factories and waterpower are of real value and once the raw materials are supplied it will not take money. We Austrians cannot understand why Americans refuse it to us.
For Germany, France and Italy the case is comprehensible. They cannot afford to spend when they themselves are so sorely in need but America is a country of wealth, sympathy and liberty.
Why will she not hear our call?
ROBBERS BUST
"Vienna is at the end of her resources.
As Chancellor Renner has announced, all the stocks of food gave out January 31 and now the people live on little or nothing. Some get a bit of food from friends in the country, some go out to steal and some have a little money left to waste. But it is an existence which cannot last. Mass starvation, robbery and brigandage such as have been seen in the world before are in sight and no government can prevent them. As the papers have announced our ministers of finance and food are coming to France again. They want to explain the situation once more in all its horror. Likewise we are trying to get passports for a commission to go to the United States to convince the people there of the genuineness of our needs. Then perhaps Chicago, New York and Philadelphia will respond."

Princess Pat Has
Her Way About Name
Of the Young Hopeful London, Feb. 13.—"Princess Pat's boy," England's most talented of babies, will be named Alexander Arthur Alphonse Maule.
This was declared after a royal conclave at which the mother declined to allow Queen Mary or other members of the royal family to act as sole arbiters on this "momentous" question.
"Princess Pat" had her way in the choice of names. Alexander and Maule stand for the child's father, Arthur or his grandfather, the duke of Connaught, and Alphonse for the king of Spain.
The royal christening ceremony will take place at St. James palace on February 23.
The son is described as a pretty blue-eyed babe with rich dark hair and bearing a striking resemblance to his beautiful and popular mother. He already is Queen Mary's pet. The Prince of Wales calls frequently to see his gurgling young cousin, whom he has presented with a two-handed christening cup.

MISSING LINK FORM COSTUMES EDICT OF SPRING'S FASHIONS

Phantom Stockings, Shortened Skirts and Low Bodies, Features Displayed in Paris.

Paris, Feb. 13.—What has been appropriately named the "Missing Link" costume is being shown at spring fashion openings.
Shortening of skirts to knee length, cutting bodices to below the waist line, abolition of sleeves and the adoption of "phantom" stockings, have threatened to reduce evening gowns to the proverbial string of pearls.
Fashion designers were thus confronted with a serious problem. Unless some addition could be made to woman's costume, silk manufacturers were likely to go broke within the year; they therefore turned to Darwin and produced the new model.
SAVE THE CLOTH
The "missing link" costume bears a real tail, from the small of the back, gracefully trained to the gown and tapering off with a gold tassel.
The same policy of saving the manufacturers from bankruptcy and at the same time pleasing the present taste which demands the greatest possible display of feminine charms is responsible for the adoption of the Egyptian style, which combines the greatest waste of material with the greatest effect of makedness.

The tanagra figure shares popularity in the models for the coming season with Cleopatra's royal robes. Corsets of any sort are entirely abolished.
The slim outlines so popular last season must disappear in compliance with the latest edict of fashion. Women are already crowding the physical culture studios while physicians are besieged with demands for prescriptions that will bring the necessary embonpoint.
VENUS SET FACE
The Venus de Milo is the ideal type with round full form, and unmarked waist line.
In order to enhance the appearance of waifness, women are resorting to lavish use of colored powder, preferably green, which gives extraordinary charm to the back, shoulders, and arms under the dim dancing lights.
For street wear tailor made suits are favored to the exclusion of the one piece dresses. The suits maintain straight lines and have knee length, plaited skirts and short tight jackets or long flaring coats.

Prince's Offer Noble, Says Ludendorff Berlin, Feb. 13.—(U. N. S.)—"Noble, but impracticable," was the comment made by General Ludendorff today upon the former crown prince's offer to stand trial instead of the German officers demanded by the allies.
Phillips Minister to Holland Washington, Feb. 13.—(U. P.)—Willam Phillips, assistant secretary of state, is the president's choice as minister to The Netherlands, it was authoritatively stated today. Phillips' name was sent to the state department several days ago for submission to the Dutch government, it was learned.
There is usually more comfort in getting ready to take comfort than there is in taking it.

"I'm strong for them because I know they stand the wear," said an old customer of ours just the other day, as he was investing in a Bradbury suit. That's the test of good clothes—how well they wear, keep their shape and style.

An Unprecedented Annual Report

The Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company of California

The Pacific Mutual has just completed its Fifty-second Annual Statement for filing with the Insurance Departments in the different states, as required by law, and it is with unusual satisfaction we give to the public the figures for the year's business because they so far surpass all previous records.

The Life Insurance written by our agents during the year, and paid for, was almost double that of the preceding year, up to that time the largest in the Company's history.

Life Insurance Written and Paid for in 1919	$ 71,177,949.00
Total Life Insurance in Force (Paid Business)	265,796,787.00
Net Gain in Life Insurance in Force	57,149,267.00

Although the Death Rate was unusually heavy in the opening months of the year, due to the influenza and the war, it declined to even better than normal during the summer and autumn months, so that the rate for the year as a whole was very favorable.

Death Rate, Actual to Expected, in 1919	63.60%
Total Paid Policyholders in 1919	$ 4,878,279.27
Total Paid Policyholders Since Organization	63,234,313.00

The Accident Department had its best year to date, the Loss Ratio being much lower than ordinary.

Total Accident Premiums Collected in 1919	$2,492,843.62
--	-----------------------

The Company has been able to invest its funds to good advantage and to earn profitable rates of interest thereon. More than one-half of our investments are in approved Mortgage Loans. We aided the Government by the purchase of large blocks of Liberty and Victory Bonds, of which the Company holds $2,933,150.00.

Average Rate of Interest Earned on Invested Funds	5.94%
Average Rate of Interest Earned on Mortgage Loans	6.24%

The Profits from Interest in the Life Department in 1919 were $943,822.27, which is the earnings from interest in excess of the amount required by law.

The following figures indicate the present financial strength of the Company and show some of the handsome gains made during the year:

Total Admitted Assets	$50,641,694.27
Gain in Admitted Assets	5,208,998.66
Total Cash Income in 1919	14,767,475.53
Gain in Income over 1918	2,617,944.91
Total Reserves on Policies of Insurance	43,272,552.52 Gain in Reserves	4,527,768.99
Surplus, Assigned and Unassigned (including $1,200,000 Capital Stock, fully paid)	5,831,422.31 Gain in Surplus	592,093.81

Taxes in 1919 were one of our heaviest items of expense. We paid for Federal Taxes during the year $130,998.13, and for State Taxes on premiums collected, licenses and fees $207,913.87, a total of $338,912.00.
