

Churches Observe Washington's Birthday and Father and Son Sunday Jointly

HELPFUL LESSONS DRAWN FROM LIFE OF WASHINGTON

Services of a Specially Fitting Character to Be Held in Portland Places of Worship.

The anniversary of George Washington's birth will have a double significance in the churches of Portland this year. From the life of the "father of his country" the clergy will draw lessons to be presented to the fathers and sons of today, who are expected to attend their respective churches on mass Sunday, "Father and Son Sunday" and also Washington's birthday.

During the past week banquets have been held by many churches for fathers and sons. The week of activity will culminate with the special Sunday service.

In keeping with the week's program the First Baptist church invites fathers and sons to be present at the Sunday evening service. Dr. P. J. Lerrigo of New York will speak on "Life Service." He is visiting large coast cities and speaking to young people on life service work.

CHRISTIAN LIFE STRESSED A George Washington day service will be held in St. David's Episcopal church Sunday night. The pastor, the Rev. Thomas Jenkins, will preach on his Christian experiences.

The young people's society at the Pro-Cathedral will hold a Washington service at 8:30 p. m. Sunday. Godrich Hays is leader.

Father and Son week will be brought to a culmination at the First Congregational church Sunday morning by a special sermon by Dr. W. T. McElveen. Fathers are requested to bring their sons and sit with them in the auditorium.

MESSAGE TO THE BOYS Thursday evening the Mt. Tabor Presbyterian church will hold a father and son banquet. A father who does not have a son must find some boy without a father, in order to be admitted to the feast. Last year 220 men and boys attended this banquet. Professor L. A. Wiley will be toastmaster. The Sunday school orchestra will play.

District Conference of M. E. Church So. Begins Wednesday

A two-day district conference of ministers of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, will be held here next Wednesday and Thursday. Bishop H. M. Du Bois of Berkeley, Cal., and District Superintendent W. F. Fenton will be in the city and direct the conference, which will be held in the First M. E. church, South Union avenue and Multnomah street. Clergymen between Portland and Medford, about 20 in number, are expected. An equal number of lay delegates are also looked for. The women's missionary society will also hold their annual meeting in connection with the conference. The district superintendent is already in the city and will preach on "Abraham's Legacy" in First church. He will conduct the quarterly conference Sunday night.

delivers a message to the boys. A. S. Wiley will talk on "Our Sons." Walton Crane on "Our Daughters" and A. F. Bittner on "Abraham's Legacy."

Highland Congregational church holds a meeting Sunday night in celebration of Washington's birthday. Mrs. Oral R. Stock will sing.

This birthday of the father of his country will be Father and Son Sunday at Alkison Memorial Congregational church. The Rev. E. E. Flint has designated Sunday night as "Sons' night" in this church. Two reels in the film "Sons of Democracy," showing the life of Lincoln, will be given. The Boy Scout troops will attend this service.

JUDGE GATENS SPEAKS The Rev. J. F. Gormley announces the observance of Father and Son Sunday at Kern Park Christian church, Sunday night Judge Gatens will speak to the boys.

Both Sunday services at the First United Brethren church are to be for fathers and sons. There will be boy ushers and in the evening a male quartet will render the special music.

The Boy Scouts will have charge of the Sunday night service at Fourth United Brethren church. The scout master and pastor will speak.

A sermon in observance of the 187th anniversary of the birth of Washington will be given Sunday morning at the Church of Our Father by the Rev. W. G. Elliot.

Other churches sending announcements of the observance of Father and Son Sunday are: Highland Baptist, St. Paul's Lutheran, Central Presbyterian and Forbes Presbyterian.

Scappoose Pastor Goes to Pendleton

Scappoose, Feb. 21.—The Rev. George V. McClure, pastor of the Congregational church here, has accepted a call to the First Congregational church at Pendleton. He will preach his farewell sermon Sunday morning. In the evening he will give his Chautauqua lecture entitled "A Fine Toothy Bomb."

Will Discuss Lodge L. K. Dickson, evangelist, will speak in "Christianism's Last Sunday" night on "Spiritualism—Sir Oliver Lodge and Raymond." Mr. Dickson believes that this manifestation can be understood and the source and character of the tipping spirit rappings revealed. Seats are free.
