Miss Brown and Harvey O'Bryan Wed Saturday

A WEDDING of interest to Portland friends is that of Miss Elsie Lillian Brown and Harvey O'Bryan of this city, which was an event of Saturday. The service was read at the First Presbyterian church at 2 o'clock by the Rev. Levi Johnson, in the presence of about 40 relatives and friends. The bride was given in a smart frock of white crepe, gossamer and satin worn with a white hat. Her flowers were of bride roses and orchids.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Cora Gammill sang the bridal hymn, accompanied by Miss Alice Johnson, who also played the wedding march. The bride was attended by Miss La Verne Herschner as maid of honor. Harvey Wells was the bridegroom's only attendant.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held in the church, after which Mr. and Mrs. O'Bryan left for California. They will return to the city in about three weeks to make their home here. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Brown and is a member of a pioneer family of Oregon. Mr. O'Bryan is a prominent insurance man of the city.

Pendleton—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Boylen was the scene Wednesday afternoon of the wedding of their daughter, Lillian, to William Howard Bull of Arlington. The ceremony being read in the presence of the family and a few close friends, by Rev. Alfred Lockwood, pastor of the Church of the Redeemer, Episcopal. Both Mr. and Mrs. Bull formerly attended the University of Oregon, where she was a Gamma Phi Beta and he a Kappa Sigma. Miss Beulah Smith, a sorority sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, having come from Eugene for the event. Eugene Boylen, brother of the bride and a Kappa Sigma, attended the bridegroom. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Bull left on a short trip and will reside at Arlington where the former is superintendent of the Smythe Brothers' Sheep company.

Miss Frances Scholz became the bride of Harold Hammack of Toledo, Or., at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Scholz in Scappoose, on Sunday, February 15. The service was read by the Rev. C. H. Johnston of Portland. The house was tastefully decorated with ferns and carnations. The bride wore a gown of georgette crepe and wedding veil, and carried showery bouquet of carnations. She was attended by Mrs. Roy Copeland. The bridegroom was attended by Fred Wist as best man. After the ceremony a dinner was served to 25 guests. The young couple will make their home in La Grande, Or.

Another informal dancing party will be given by the Omega club of the Portland Social Turn Verein on Friday evening. This will be the fourth of a series of dances being planned for the members of the organization during the winter. The committee in charge, composed of the Misses Helen and Flora Herrmann, Bessie Burgess, Kathryn Kelm and Roberta Daniels, is working very hard to make this party an even greater success than those given heretofore. All former friends of the Omega club are invited to attend.

A quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Pearson on Wednesday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, when in the presence of a few relatives, Percy N. Pratt and Grace E. Lansworth were married. Dr. E. H. Pence performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Pratt will make their home at 533 East Seventeenth street north.
