

Elison encampment Tuesday evening had an open meeting with an attractive program at I. O. O. F. temple, 226 Alder street. Dancing followed the entertain held its usual weekly meeting in Pyth- the film might incite race antagonism. ian building Tuesday evening, with a class of 16 to receive the rank of knight. The class stood a splendid examination in open lodge in the rank of esquire previous to the final degree of knight be-ing given. After adjournment the Abd-Uhl-Atef temple, the dramatic inner order, held its sessions. . . .

Tuesday night held an attractive meet- "The Tong Man," a motion picture ad-ing in W. O. W. temple. Class degree vertised for showing at the Hippodrome work was given.

Members of Tabor lodge. Degree of Honor, will entertain their families and friends tonight at Montavilla. Geek—I've just bought my wife a gon is now under command of any pair of eye glasses and my daughter a pair of earrings and my boy a new men enlisting in the medical corps will friends tonight at Montavilla. Anchor council, Security Benefit association, held a successful and well at- and have to buy hats by the pair. tended dance and social at W. O. W. temple Tuesday evening.

St. Johns council, Security Benefit association, Monday evening had a large attendance and class initiation. L. M. Thomas, state manager, addressed the council.

Woodlawn lodge, I. O. O. F., Monday night conferred the third degree upon a class of four, followed by refreshments.

The county clerks had their innings at Lents Monday night when the Ma sonio team of that calling conferred degrees at the Lents lodge. A banquet ollowed the degree work. Many visitors were in attendance from Portland lodges.

HIP-O-LITE is luscious marshmallow of "spreadable" consistency, strictly ready for use. You merely spread it on the layers and over the cake as you spread butter on bread! This for plain marshmallow filling and frosting, while the more ambitious "Lady Balti-more," "Fig," "Nut," "Choco-late," "Cocoanut," and others is endless variety are quite as easily prepared, merely by mixing in the fruit or nut ingredients. "Wonderfull" you'll say.

To really enjoy life, all you need is a jar of HIP-O-LITE. Your grocer has it.

HIP-O-LITE a ready to use Marshmallow Creme teenth and Davis streets, will give a so-On 'Tong Man clal in the church parlor this evening at 8 o'clock. All will be welcome.

On recommendation of W. W. Banks, National Guard Oregon assembly, United Artisans, an attorney representing local Chinese, vertised for showing at the Hippodrome tomorrow, has been rejected and con-demned by two members of the local turned veterans to assume command incorporated for $100,000 and the papers

Ivanhoe lodge, Knights of Pythias, board of censors, on the ground that whenever possible in the Third Oregon, were signed by A. D. Frost, Josephine Major Eugene Moshberger has been ap- E. Frost and O. D. Woodward. Colorado The film is to be given another viewing pointed to his old battalion name com-today by the entire membership of the mand in the new Third Oregon. He the new enterprise. went overseas as commander of board of censors and Mayor Baker. "The Tong Man," was originally passed by the censors, without elimination, on command of the same battalion in the by the censors, without elimination, on December 4 last year. new Third Oregon, succeeding Major Milton L. Meyers, resigned.

The Pair Crop

The medical staff of the Third Ore-

Guke-Lucky you aren't two-headed receive valuable instruction in matters and have to buy hats by the pair. of surgery, hospital work and various

Why Peter Rabbit Changed His Mind

Plain stubbornness you'll always find In one who will not change his mind. Peter Rabbit was scampering ahead to quite the degree that does this fierce hunting call of the one person they most

Peter Rabbit was scampering and fear at night. of the Black Shadows across the snow-covered Green Meadows straight toward side of the Old Orchard. Right away, the Old Orchard. Feter was in a hurry Peter lost all desire to visit the Old to get there. He always wants to hurry Orchard that night. He wished, with all across open spaces because he never feels across open spaces because he never feels his might, that he hadn't left the dear under. He had stolen away from the Old Briar-patch. His first thought was He had stolen away from the dear Old Briar-patch unknown to timid little Mrs. Peter. She had been on the to turn and scamper back there as fast as his long legs would take him. But it other side of the dear Old Briar-patch and Peter had taken the opportunity to slip away. You see, he knew that she would think him foolish and reckless to leave the dear Old Briar-patch. "I've done it any number of times before," muttered Peter as he hopped along, lipperty-lipperty-lip. "I've done it any number of times before and there isn't any reason why I shouldn't do it again. Mrs. Peter is altogether too nervous and timid. I guess I can take care of myself, no matter what happens. Once I reach the old stonewall on the edge of the Old Orchard I will have nothing to fear. There are ever so many places in that old wall where I can find safety. In fact, that old wall is quite under which he could hide, in all that as safe as the dear Old Briar-patch." distance. The Green Forest was nearer. As a matter of fact Peter felt quite On the edge of it was a fine, old bram-carefree. He had been over to the Old ble-tangle, where more than once Peter Orchard so many times without running had found safety.

He started across for the Green Forest edge of the Old Orchard I will have

in big jumps.

into danger that he no longer thought of the possibility of danger lurking there. the Owl, rang out. Once more Peter's It was good to stretch his legs. For heart went pit-a-pat, pit-a-pat, and little three days he had hardly put his nose shivers ran all over him. But this time outside the dear Old Briar-patch, and in he was able to tell just where that dreadthe dear Old Briar-patch there was little ful sound came from. "Hooty is in the opportunity to getting any real exercise. So Peter scampered along, lipperty-lip, meadows toward the Old Orchard and Meadows toward the block and the light energy and the light wondered if he would be lucky enough the edge of the Green Forest."

to find a frozen apple on the ground. He hoped he would. It would be a wel-come change from bark which had been He didn't waste another second. He started across for the Green Forest in big jumps, and he didn't stop until he was safely in the friendly bramblehis chief food for some time. Peter was about two thirds of the way to the Old Orchard when a sudden and terrible sound caused him to stop short terrible sound terrible so his chief food for some time and crouch down perfectly still. It made a Rabbit dinner that night. Quite, withhim shiver and it set his heart to going out knowing it, Hooty had upset Reddy's pit-a-pat, pit-a-pat, pit-a-pat, pit-a-pat. It was the hunting call of Hooty, the plan. (Copyright, 1920, by T. W. Burgess) Owl, and there is no sound which strikes terror to the hearts of the little people of The next the Green Forest and the Green Meadows other Plan. The next story: Reddy Fox Tries An tax-and we hope Uncle Sam gets it, though we have our doubts. S. _____ R.

Film Company Incorporates

Incorporation papers of the Ore-Col Film company, a local motion picture ren parsonage, Wednesday at 2:30 clock, Rev. Walter Reynolds officiating. Rev. and Mrs. Laudy leave Saturday for their home at Everett, Wash.

Irvington club will be host for an inand Oregon capital is said to be backing the new enterprise. studies of aid to any intending to take a medical course a medical course.

the

medical course. Colonel J. F. Koester, U. S. A., will Lirthday idea. The committee includes inspect the National Guard organiza-tions of the Third Oregon in Portland Mrs. J. L. Bowman, Mrs. Thomas Wynne on the following dates: Regimental Watts, Mrs. Henry M. Hendershott and headquarters and staff, March 2; head- Mrs. R. M. Irvine.

quarters company, March 3; supply company, March 4; machine gun com-Among the Portland folk in California pany, March 5; Company E, March 8; Company F, March 9; Company G, March 10; Company H, March 11; Com-pany I. March 12. pany I, March 12.

A dancing party was given in honor

Non-commissioned officers' school of Miss Dorothea Tatum recently at the Thursday night was well attended at country home of her aunt, Mrs. Eunice the Armory. Colonel C. C. Hammond Froeschle, at Cape Horn, Wash. Mr. the Armory. and staff held an informal meeting in and Mrs. Charles Froeschle chaperoned his headquarters to consider various the young people. Those who enjoyed matters. Owing to the occupation of the affair were the Misses Esther and the Armory by the truck exhibitors. Lucie Brown, Elizabeth Costello, Stella no drills are being held this week. and Pauline Gory, Rosie Mickley, Ge-

BABY'S

FIRST OUTFIT

VERY SPECIAL

$27.85

-48 pieces are all ready to use-finishingnighties.

PIECE LAYETTE

Included: 12 outing diapers, 12 Red Star diapers, 3 wool bands. 3 Merino shirts, 3 pairs cashmere hose, 2 blankets, 1 quilted pad, 1 piece rubber sheeting, 1 lap towel, 2 small towels, 2 wash cloths, 2 flannelette wrappers, 1 knit jacket, 2

1 nainsook dress, 1 nainsook slip, 2 dimity slips, 2 nainsook gertrudes, 3 flannel gertrudes, 2 Daisy cards safety pins, 1 "Handee" Baby bath bed.

DOUGLOI

-11 pieces, cut or stamped ready to make, including ribbons, buttons, crochet and embroidery threads for

-Copy of Holt's "Care and Feeding of Children" free.

388 Morrison-Below Tenth

25 cents for the men.

Kintara: Gault Patton, Kinaya; Alice Jones of the senate commerce commit Mrs. Retta G. Clark of Portland and Aldrich. O Loya San; Christian Kisky, tee said today. Hearings on this subthe Rev. Allen Richard Laudy of Everett, the prince; Alice Schmidt, O Laka ject will be concluded this week, it is Wash., were quietly married in the San, and Wilmar West that of To- expected. Private ownership and opera-presence of relatives and a few intimate kiscki. The students have been work- tion of American ships with provisions friends at the Cloverdale United Breth- ing for several months upon the opera. against foreign control are expected to tisement"; LUTES BROTHERS, "The Wis-and of the Feet"; THE FOUR BILLPOST-ERS," Comedy and Music; ERNEST JONES, Classical to Jazz on the Xylophone; OHONG TOI DUO, Ohinese Marxels at Juggling and Magic and Their Spectaenia; "Dive THROUGH KNIVES" Kiddies" Balloon Day Saturday Afternoon.

all times. 5000 square feet of swimming surface. Accommodating 400 bathers.