St. Pavids Will Observe Its Golden Jubilee With Claborate Ceremony Sunday

MISSIONARY PRIEST STARTED IN WORK

On the eye of Welsh Saints day, St. Davids parish will observe its golden jubilee. From the time the missionary priest, the Rev. J. R. W. Sellwood, started the work in 1870 down to the present day, this parish has steadily grown.

Special services will be held Sunday Holy communion will be administered at 7 and 8 a. m. All old-timers and friends are urged to make these two services a feast of happy memories. At 10:30 a. m. Bishop W. T. Sumner will full of beauty and color, such as has been employed by the denomination for nearly 1500 years. Special anthems and a Eucharist will be sung. At 7:30 p. m. the bishop will have a confirmation service. Dr. S. E. Josephi will also give a historical address on the varish during this service. The doctor and his wife have faithfully served this parish for 50 years.

On Monday, St. Davids day, there will be a benediction of the new altar. This service will be at 7 a.m. In the evening at 7:30 o'clock there will be a special Te Deum and an historical ad-

A beautiful window is to be erected as a memorial to four faithful rectors. In addition a memorial fund is to be raised in order to perpetuate the memory of four brave boys from this church who merly he held important pastorates at Presbyterian church. James F. Ewing. made the supreme sacrifice upon the fields of Flanders.

The big event in Protestant church circles during the coming week will be the state pastors' conference, called for Wednesday and to run Thursday and Friday in White Temple under direction of the interchurch world movement. About 350 state are expected here. They will Church Federation on the Harvard plan. Clergymen internationally known are on their way to Portland to address this conference.

In addition to the interchurch conference several denominational conferences will be conducted. Church leaders will take advantage of the opportunity afforded to get their workers together for a short conference on denominational affairs.

Congregational ministers of Oregon will meet Tuesday at the First Congregational church. Evangelical ministers will meet Thursday afternoon and Friday to discuss the possibility of two branches of the denomination uniting. Rev. B. F. Bronson, state secretary of the interchurch movement, is directing the conference.
