FRANK LACEY, manager of the Majestic theatre, who puts pep in his shows and gets them over with original exploitation.

"Tong Man" Not To Be Shown Locally

MINORITY members of the local board of censors who condemned "The Tong Man" booked for showing at the Hippodrome for the non week beginning today, were upheld by a majority vote of the board and Mayor Baker at a re-viewing of the film held Friday afternoon. The film was accepted without eliminations by a member of the board last December, but when it was booked for showing by Manager Lacey of the Hippodrome, it was re-viewed on the ground that the picture is not a true representation of Chinese life and that it might create some disturbances.

Walter Evans, district attorney, urged condemnation of the film and assured Manager Lacey that he would see to it that the Hippodrome theatre is fully reimbursed for whatever cash expenditures it may have made in contracting for the picture and in advertising same.

These who met at the Multnomah hotel picture to be presented publicly, were Mayor Baker, Mrs. Mille Trumbull, Mrs. Henry Vorst and J. Fred Larson. Frank Coffinberry and William Grason were opposed to the condemnation. Mrs. J. C. Frankel, another member of the board, is out of the city, and L. Krause, the remaining member, was ill and could not attend the viewing.

Fraternal Notes

Hassalo lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, Friday night had a class of 20 to take the initiatory degrees. The lodge expects to have a class of more than 100 to erect Grand Master Hubbard in April for the reception from him of the third degree.

Webfoot camp, Woodmen of the World, had a smoker Friday night that was one of the most successful in its history. It entertained several hundred members and guests in its large hall with a series of boxing and wrestling matches, music and literary features and specialties.

Kirkpatrick council, Security Benefit association, in Swiss hall crowded Friday night with members and their friends at its free dance and social.

The dance Thursday night given by the Knights of Pythias at the Pythian building was much enjoyed by its members and guests.

Ellison encampment, I. O. O. F., will go to Hillsboro this evening to conduct degrees there for the new encampment.

Multnomah camp, Woodmen of the World, Friday night had its big ball on the East side crowded with members and guests at its quarterly dance.

Eric Zardo, concert pianist, made his initial vaudeville appearance in the East recently, and scored a hit.

Thirty-two former bluejackets, known as the United States Glee club, are headlining vaudeville bills in the East and capturing their audiences with their delightful rendition of past and present popular melodies.

Lawrence Grant, who will be remembered by Orpheumites for his impersonation of the deposed German ruler in "Efficiency," has secured the rights to "One of Them Had a Wife," a new act played by Comco Hamilton. Mr. Grant will produce the act for vaudeville and will play the leading role.

Reality Man Arrested

William B. Balle, real estate man of 34 Fourth street, was arrested Thursday on a warrant sworn to by Captain Roberts of the fire marshal's office and charging maintenance of a fire hazard. Balle was released on his own recognizance. It is alleged a fire on November 15, 1919, at 285 North Twenty-fifth street, was caused by failure to provide a metal cover for a fire cleanout.
