

MISS ZETTA BARDE, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Barde of 856 Marshall street, who will leave Portland on Monday for New York city, where she will be the guest of her brothers for a few months.

Miss Bennett Is Hostess for Her School Friends At Card Party

MISS ELAINE BENNETT entertained a large number of high school friends at a delightful card party at the Laurelhurst club, February 27, in celebration of her sixteenth birthday. The club house was artistically decorated with lavender and yellow streamers and spring foliage. A basket of yellow daffodils adorned the serving table.

Assisting Mrs. Bennett were Mrs. Nelson R. Jacobson and Mrs. F. H. Call. Chaperones for the occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Call, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson R. Jacobson, W. L. Fries and Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Bennett. Those who enjoyed the hospitality of the young hostess were: The Misses Mildred Johnson, Susan Davis, Josephine Orput, Jesse Hurt, Joy Johnson, Elizabeth Hillon, Helen Gripper, Frances Gripper, Josephine Ulrich, Ruth Wood, Marjorie Kattenhofen, Mildred Gable, Ruth Cleland, Delight Ingold, Marjorie Bennett, Virginia Keating, Penelope Gehr, Margaret Alexander, Gertrude Glusich, Leona Mouton, Edith Rydman, Annabelle Clark, Nan La Roche, Virginia Pearson, Annette Byford, Estelle Modlin, Helen Adams, Dorothy Dyer, Josephine Evans, Georgia Shipley, Grace Starr, Katherine Riggs, Junior Seton, Dick Atholson, Robert Tasker, Eldon Peterson, Lloyd Davies, Palmer Miller, Jack Sullivan, Warren Ulrich, Virgil Hodges, Edward Locke, Kenneth Kettenhofen, Dick English, Harold Huffman, Cadette Howard, Dagg and Royal Conley, Rodney Keating, Herbert Cronkhite, Walter Tennyson, August Glusich, Bob Murton, Bob Hadley, Bill Clark, Earl Newberry, Bill Johnson, Walter Pearson, Willis Barker, Jack Riverburgh, Fred Small, Chester Dutcher, Warren Clark, Corlis Sherman, Paul Riggs, Maurice Inman, Clayton Morse.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Savinar are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a daughter on February 22. The little miss has been named Miriam Segal Savinar. Before her marriage Mrs. Savinar was Miss Evelyn Segal.

ONE of the gay parties of the winter was the recent mask ball given at Laurelhurst club when almost every unique costume in the list of follies was represented in the company of dancers. More than 100 of the community folk and their friends were in attendance.

At the recent masked ball at Laurelhurst club more than 100 persons of the community and of the club membership participated. Among the dancers were Mrs. Devers, Mrs. F. C. Clark and Mrs. Ollie Rude as colonial dames with powdered hair and dainty hooped skirts. Other costumes represented were the rick-ing sun, Mrs. Nelson Pike; Lady Gainsborough, Mrs. Fred D. Weber, sailor lass, Mrs. Call; Valentine girl, Mrs. T. L. Perkins; Little Red Ridinghood, Miss Violet Nutting; Chinese ladies, Mrs. Goshier and Mrs. Stannard; Jockey, Mrs. Fred Burgard; Turkish maiden, Mrs. Tanner; senoritas, Mrs. Belland and Mrs. Searies; Stock-

Mrs. Buland Is Hostess at Tea For Mrs. Bryan

MRS. G. L. BULAND was a charming hostess Wednesday afternoon when she entertained with a small tea to meet her house guest, Mrs. E. A. Bryan of Boise. The afternoon was spent informally with social conversation and needlework. Mrs. C. B. Simmons, who recently returned from Chicago, where she attended the suffrage convention, related some of the highlights of the convention, which had to do with social events. Miss Helena Pittelkau gave two beautiful readings. Mrs. J. E. Rand cut tea and Mrs. E. R. Pittelkau poured coffee at a table centered with potted pink hyacinths.

The guests included: Mrs. Bryan, Mrs. A. W. Bryan, Mrs. C. B. Simmons, Dr. Esther Lovejoy, Mrs. J. Coulson Hare, Mrs. J. M. Reeves, Miss Vella Winner, Mrs. E. R. Stockien, Mrs. Pittelkau, Mrs. Rand, Mrs. Alevia Alexander, Mrs. W. J. Hawkins, Mrs. M. E. Stratton, Mrs. Alva Stephens, Mrs. Nathan Harris, Mrs. Emanuel May, Mrs. Lee Davenport, Mrs. G. Hermanson, Miss Pittelkau.

During her three weeks' visit in Portland considerable entertaining has been done for Mrs. Bryan. One of the most enjoyable of these affairs was the tea given by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. A. W. Bryan, at which the guests were women who had attended the Washington State college, of which Mrs. Bryan's husband, Dr. Enoch A. Bryan, was for many years president.

Mrs. J. E. Rand gave a luncheon for Mrs. Bryan last week and Mr. and Mrs. Pittelkau entertained with an evening party. Mrs. Bryan left Wednesday evening for her home in Boise.

The marriage of Miss Blanche Hellyer to Paul Bruce Stuart was an event of Saturday evening, February 28, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Phillips in Rose City Park. The service was read by the Rev. H. H. Griffith. Little Ardis Thrasher, groomed in pink tulle, was ring bearer. The bride wore a smart frock of midnight blue crepe georgette with hat to match and carried an arm bouquet of sweet peas and freesias. The wedding march was played by Miss Naomi Woodcock and Miss Alice May Phelps sang the bridal hymn. The rooms were decorated with spring flowers for the ceremony, with large bouquets of yellow tulips used in streamers. Following the ceremony a buffet supper was served from a table decked with daffodils, yellow candles and tulle. Mrs. Frank Thrasher and Mrs. Lynn Ambrose served. Mrs. Elmer Littlejohn presided at the punch bowl. Troop A quartet sang several selections during the evening as Mr. Stuart was a member of Troop A in service on the Mexican border. Mr. Stuart is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hellyer and is well known in musical circles for her beautiful voice. She was graduated from Jefferson high school. Mr. Stuart is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Stuart of Los Angeles. He is a navigating officer and will sail about March 10 on the relief ship Bearport, with her parents during her husband's absence, in the St. Francis apartments.

Miss Edna Frances Slater became the bride of Rev. Robert H. McGinnis, rector of Holy Communion Episcopal church, Tacoma, Wash., on Tuesday evening, February 24, at Grace Memorial church. The wedding was a quiet affair, only relatives and a few close friends being present. Rev. Oswald W. Taylor read the service. Just before the ceremony, Mitylene Fraker Sides, aunt of the bride, sang "Love's Coronation" (Aylward) accompanied by Gladys Morgan Farmer. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Robert J. Slater of this city, granddaughter of the late Senator Slater of Oregon. She was leading soprano in Grace Memorial church and very popular among the younger musicians of the city, besides holding an important position in the federal government service. Rev. McGinnis and his bride left immediately for their home and after a wedding trip to Victoria and Vancouver, B. C., will be at home at 1604 South I street, Tacoma, Wash.

The March meeting of the A. T. B. girls' club was held at the home of Miss Mary Kinneer, 128 Williams boulevard, and the following officers were installed for the season: Ann Tindula, president; Valkyria Larsen, vice president; Alice Johnson, secretary; Frieda Zeller, treasurer; Mary Kinneer, correspondent. A hard time costume party is being planned for the near future.

A dance will be given at the Modern Woodmen of America hall at 8 Eleventh street, on Wednesday evening by the Court of Honor. All persons interested are invited to attend.

Mrs. I. A. Reed and Miss Frieda Snyder came down from Aberdeen last week to attend the meetings of the Interchurch World movement and were guests at the Hotel Portland.

Miss Anna F. Jones of Paisley, arrived Thursday for a month's stay at the Multnomah hotel. Miss Jones is a niece of Mrs. B. F. Irvine.

MRS. ROBERT H. M'GINNIS, who was Miss Edna Frances Slater prior to her marriage at Grace Memorial Episcopal church February 24. The Rev. and Mrs. McGinnis will make their home in Tacoma, where Mr. McGinnis has a pastorate.

British Societies And Veterans to Give Reception

THE various British societies of Portland will unite with the Canadian War Veterans and the auxiliary to the Veterans in giving a reception Wednesday evening to honor Miss E. McVeigh, a Portland nurse, who won the British distinguished service medal, and has recently returned to her home in this city.

The reception will be held at the Canadian Veterans' clubrooms, Manchester building, 854 Fifth street. The medal will be presented by the British consul, John P. Trant. There will be an address by Mayor Baker, and there will also be a musical program.

The general plans for the affair are in charge of C. R. Parrott, president of the Veterans association, and Mrs. Henry Kirk, president of the woman's auxiliary, assisted by the entertainment committee, of which Miss Kathleen Cockburn is the chairman, other members being Mrs. Norman Christie, Miss Madge Mackenzie, Miss Helene Hughes, C. R. Parrott, Dr. Claud Powell, Captain W. B. Murray, G. E. Baker, A. C. Black and W. H. Kearley.

The patronesses for the affair are: Mrs. Thomas Kerr, Mrs. Peter Kerr, Mrs. James Laidlaw, Mrs. William MacMaster, Mrs. W. D. Wheelwright, Mrs. John Leader, Mrs. Lee Barnes, Mrs. George L. Baker, Mrs. E. T. Steven, Mrs. F. C. Malpas, Mrs. E. J. Chipman, Mrs. Roger Hastings, Mrs. J. Robinson, Mrs. T. R. Armstrong, Mrs. E. A. Wyld, Mrs. Henry Kirk, Mrs. A. W. Payne.

Mrs. Susan Neff and her granddaughter, Miss Blanche Neff, both of McBride, Mich., are spending a few days in Portland as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Oppenlander. Mrs. and Miss Neff are making a tour of the larger coast cities. They expect to leave for California the first of next week.

Peter A. Porter, ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, and comrades and friends of the organization met at the Hotel Portland.

Distinctive Shops For Women

MARINELLO

A BEAUTY AID FOR EVERY NEED—
FACIAL TREATMENT
SCALP TREATMENT
ELECTROLYSIS
PERMANENT HAIR WAVE
MARINELLO PREPARATIONS
AND HAIR GOODS
MARINELLO COSMETIC SHOP
Marshall 9207 908 Broadway Bldg.

TAILORED SUITS

FOR MEN AND WOMEN
IN NEW SPRING FASHIONS
AT MODERATE PRICES
PERFECT SATISFACTION GUARANTEED
M. L. DILBECK
109 TWELFTH ST., N.W. WASH.
PHONE BROADWAY 980

Advance Spring Models

SPECIAL PRICES ON LADIES' SUITS AND COATS
J.K. STERN
LADIES' TAILOR 447 ALDER
Clark's Fresh every day. Morrison st. Bet. 4th and 5th. Tel. 1-1805.

Younger Cadets At Hill Academy Are Given Party

A MERRY festivity of Saturday evening was the party given for the younger cadets of Hill Military academy at the junior annex, 175 North Twenty-fourth street. A group of parents as spectators enjoyed the party equally as much as did the little people who participated. Ice cream and cakes were served at 5 o'clock and the party was all over by 1 o'clock. The older cadets will entertain next Saturday at the academy barracks on Marshall street.

Those on the guest list included May-belle Allen, Janet Alexander, Nan Burkhardt, Nancy Jane Carpenter, Dorothy Donald, Katherine Deyette, Mary Fisher, Helen Gray Gatens, Alura Hindman, Katherine Hart, Jean Hall, Elizabeth Knight, Ethel Knight, Marion Look, Eleanor Look, Madge Matson, Harriet O'Reilly, Katherine O'Reilly, Elizabeth O'Reilly, Barbara Prall, Betty Parry, Helen Peters, Lois Beth Scofield, Virginia Sterling, Jean Spier, Helen Spencer, Isabel Starr, Blanche Stabler, Dorothy Statter, Grace Starr, Chastine Thomas, Alice Tuttle, Elizabeth Talbot, Mildred Thatcher, Virginia Tuttle, Muriel Walther, Josephine Whitting, Mary Ellen Carpenter, Nancy Luckel, Mary Luckel, Josephine Labbe, Margaret Spencer, Josephine Slater, Jeannette Slater, Jeanette Duncan, Katharine Van Schuyver, Marian Statter, Lillian Grover, Billie Armstrong, Donald Bowker, Henry Bristol, Dan Babbitt, Billie Cleveland, Joe Dodd, Melvin Dellar, Wilson Dodd, Alan Donald, Kenneth Duncan, Schenker Eliott, Charles Flagg, Robert Farrell, Mahlon Gillett, Jack Grover, Vergil Guilfoit, Edward Holmworth, Guy Halferty, Robert Kern, Wilmet Lundquist, Ly-sander Logan, Ford Livermore, Walker Myrick, Neal McIntyre, Robert McMath, James Mason, Clyde Moore, Billie Nero, Edward Neff, Charles Randall, Thomas Rowan, John Roth, Robert Roth, Bobby Setters, Billie Stabler, Sanford Smith, Loraine Saunders, Harry Turner, Thomas Whitting, Curtis Whitting, Wallace Wakefield, Carroll Wallis, John Youell, Eldon West, George Boschka, Stuart Martin, Burton Coan.

Cadets officers assisting in receiving: Captain Johnson, Captain Page, Acting Captain Ball, Acting Captain Green, Acting Captain Churchill, Lieutenant Dagg, Lieutenant Austin, Lieutenant Rooper.

Stella, Wash., March 6.—One of the delightful social events of the season was the party given at the Hotel Horton last Saturday evening when Miss Hazel Brinson entertained a number of friends. The evening was spent in games and dancing after which dainty refreshments were served. The hostess was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Brinson, and Mrs. E. Wynn. Out-of-town guests were Wayne Menard and Mrs. Marjorie De-lahunt, Mrs. R. D. Inman, Mrs. D. E. Bowman, Mrs. W. F. Richardson, Mrs. Carl Liebe and Miss Charlotte Hunt.

Mrs. L. B. Nixon of San Francisco was hostess for a Washington party recently in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer A. Hanson of Portland, who are visiting in the South. The ball room was decorated in the national colors and a five-piece orchestra furnished music for dancing. Other guests from Portland were Captain William A. Rhodes, Lieutenant J. Walter Reasing, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Abel (Margaret Harvey), Mr. and Mrs. William Henry (Norma Jones), and Miss Nona Taylor. During the dance Mrs. George Dewey presided at the punch bowl. After an enjoyable evening a dainty supper was served. The tables were decked with spring flowers and covers laid for about 65 guests as a large number of Ashbury Heights young people were invited to meet the Portland guests.

THE FIRST NOTE of Spring

BRINGS THE MESSAGE OF THE TAFFETA FROCK

It has taken the world of fashion by storm and its popularity bids fair to be unequalled here.

$33.75

Is the astonishingly low price of taffeta dresses of exquisite charm that are now being shown here.

Shanahan
Third & Washington Sts.
Henry J. Ditter, Mgr.

The Sunday Lennogram

VOL. 2 PORTLAND, OREGON, SUNDAY, MARCH 7, 1920 NO. 10

PUBLISHED BY Lennon's
CHAS. F. BERG
Vice President and Manager
809 Morrison Street
Postoffice Opposite

KID GLOVES
are coming over now from France again and Chanut Glace Kid Gloves Are $3.75
Beauties—of soft fine glaze kid, with two tone embroidery—wide and effective—for trimming. In white and the new Spring shades.
Also delightful arrays of Tre-fousse and Vallier kid gloves—just here from France, too!

Women's Silk Hose in a Special Sale—$1.35
Hose of unusually fine quality at such a modest price these days with the cost of raw silk higher than it has ever been! There are black hose and brown ones—with lisle tops and heels. All sizes—wonderfully special.

BLOUSES
1/2
Regularly Priced $10 to $49.50
A group of charming blouses reduced to half price to make room for incoming Spring stocks! Many of these have been in the house but a few short weeks. Included are

Fownes Doette Gloves—$1.50 For Street Wear
Eight-Button Length
Soft doette gloves—washable—look like kid and wear better! The new slipover style with two clasps—very smart in castor, brown and a few tailleur shades. Fabric gloves in the fashionable 8, 12 and 16 button lengths—new shades—range from $2 to $3.25.

Well-Known Makes Silk Hose $1.75
Every Pair Perfect
Included are such brands as Maud Tware, Eiffel and others just as well known. Black, nigre, fieldmouse, Cordovan, taupe, Piping Rock, slate and tan—all with lisle tops and soles.

Silk Boot Hose Extra Special $1.09
Two Pairs for $2
This is a sale you cannot afford to miss—if you contemplate wearing silk hose all Spring and Summer! Practically every color in first quality—with a group of blacks in "substandards." Better buy 4 pairs!

Georgette Satin and Taffeta Blouses
Simple little blouses and elaborate affairs with sashes that loop in soft bows. Many have one color over another—some hand embroidered—some with peplums—some daintily lace trimmed. All sizes in the lot.

SILK GLOVES
All the better kinds are here—$1 to $4.75.

Something New in Sox for Kiddies and Older Children
A new Richelle Rib in sox for kiddies is most attractive with its irregularly placed "open" rib. And there are lisle and silk sox in the most delightful array of colors and combinations for kiddies from 2 to 12!

TAILORED SUITS
FOR MEN AND WOMEN
IN NEW SPRING FASHIONS
AT MODERATE PRICES
PERFECT SATISFACTION GUARANTEED
M. L. DILBECK
109 TWELFTH ST., N.W. WASH.
PHONE BROADWAY 980

The Waist Shop
is showing the most entrancing new jersey coats—that will replace sweaters in so many wardrobes! Tuxedo style, bright interwoven linings. $15.50.

$2.00 to $3.95 Silk Camisoles $1.45
Dainty camisoles of society satin that launders so beautifully. There are lace trimmed, embroidered and plain tailored styles. A variety that makes choosing a pleasure—especially when the saving is so great as in this instance!

MEN $1.50 Wool Mixed SOX—95c
Excellent quality Brown Cordovan wool hose at this special price!

Lennon's
GLOVES, HOSIERY, UNDERWEAR
Chas. F. Berg, Vice President and Manager
309 Morrison Street—Postoffice Opposite
THE WAIST SHOP, PORTLAND HOTEL COURT