Water street. The company has for the past 20 years acted as Pacific coast agent for a concern of the same name located at Milwaukee, Wis. The company's products are used largely for the treatment of railroad cross ties and telegraph and telephone poles. According to H. J. Fisher, president of the company, provision has been made for handling various kinds of building material in addition to the wood preservative and a warehouse adjoining the Water street address will be used for this purpose.

Yellow Cab Service is reliable. The rainy weather always adds to the number of calls on the taxicab business and when the streets are slippery it is well known that the Yellow Cab Service employs the most experienced drivers in the city. Every one of them has years of experience. The rates are the lowest in the city, cents first half mile, 10 cents each additional quarter. These facts make the Yellow Cab Service the service you need. THESE FAKE SOUTHERN DAMES SET FAY KING'S GOAT TO ROMPING

By Fay King
(Miss King is a Portland girl, whose first newspaper work was published in The Journal several years ago. She now is located in New York.)

"Mah goodness, how ever did you all discover Ah'm from the South?" That's her favorite line after pulling that plantation lingo for the benefit of the South. She met them, and then when you say, to her joy and satisfaction, "You're from the South, aren't you?" she bubbles over with a long list of names, addresses and personal experience of how at various times she has been taken for a Southern lady, and she just can't figure out how it is that everybody seems to know it at once.

That leads to a confession of how she has found herself the center of attraction on so many occasions, and how she is always being urged to repeat the cunning, quaint expressions of the South. All that naturally leads up to her helplessness and the hundreds of acres in their plantation, and how the butter biscuits, etc., etc.

Well, I've never been in the "South," but I have met a few real Southerners that have given me an idea of the really splendid qualities that Southern folks are noted for, such as mint juleps and hospitality; but if there is one thing that gets my goat it's these dames from the South (Perry) that reel off that Southern talk until you want to bean 'em with a snow shovel. Most of that set have gone into the chorus, and when they are in about the middle of that scenario they're reeling off, they'll snag themselves on a good old Western "r"! Then you discover their plantation came on during a two hours stop-off in Baltimore one day when they decided to turn anti-r and Southern so they'd have an alibi the rest of their lives for laziness and bad "grammah!"
