STUBBE RESIGNS FROM FIRM; NEW

With announcement by Emery H. Olmstead, president, of the coming of K. H. Dawson from San Francisco to assume managership of the recently reorganized Columbia-Pacific Shipping company, it became known today that A. C. Stubbe, managing head of the concern since its operations commenced, has resigned.

Stubbe's resignation became effective March 15, but he held over at the request of the directors until next Monday, that Dawson, who left San Francisco Friday, may step into his position withfuture plans have not been announced. STUBBE TENDERS RESIGNATION
