BEANS, ATTACKS HER COMPANION

Oregon City, March 20 .- A hearty supper downtown, which prevented him from eating much at home a lie Kellogg, son of Mrs. F. Kellogg, poisoning Friday night, poison having been placed in a jar of baked beans coking in the Kellogg home vain. by Mrs. Rose McAnulty. Mrs. Mc-Anulty has been living with Mrs. feat is a tragedy whose poignancy is in-Kellogg for the past month, during tensified by the sordidness of the final her husband's absence in the logging camps.

Mrs. McAnulty, while considered to be slightly deranged, had not given trouble until a few days ago. Friday fected with his narrowness and were evening, when the two women sat down thus unable to lift themselves to levels to supper, Mrs. McAnulty remarked to of statesmanship. Mrs. Kellogg she shouldn't eat the beans. a small portion of the beans, telephoned doctor to find the boy and treat him.

Mrs. McAnulty offered to show Mrs. Kellogg what poison she had used and women went upstairs, when the by the throat. Mrs. Kellogg broke away, rushed to the telephone to summon help, when she was again attacked by Mrs. McAnulty with an iron rod. lowed by the apparently crazed woman. R. W. Kirk, city superintendent of schools, quieted Mrs. McAnulty, who was taken to a neighbor's house, where of her husband, James McAnulty.

Leslie Kellogg, a student in the Ore-gon City high school since his return from overseas, has felt no ill effect from

Circus Man Faces Charge of Violating

Los Angeles, March 20 .- (I. N. S.)before United States Commissioner Stephen G. Long, to answer charges of violating the Mann white slave act. Barnes is accused of having taken Jane Thompson, wife of one of the animal write: trainers, from Phoenix, Ariz., to various points within the jurisdiction of the southern district of California.

Jane Hartigan, formerly of Portland, Or., is said also to be involved in the charges. Barnes admits "transporting women, elephants and the whole show' from point to point. "I'm in the show transporting business," he said.

Negro Drug Addict Fined; Sells Enough

Eddie Simms, colored drug addict, topaid a $250 fine in federal court violating the Harrison narcotics 'Simms, like nearly all other addicts'

Assistant United States Attorney Flegel told the court, "buys some morphine, and to pay for his own dose, sells half of his purchase at a big price increase. His dose otherwise would cost him $8

Municipal Railroad Is what will be said of Americans in $500,000 "in Hole"

Seattle, March 20 .- (I. N. S.) - State accountants, after a six months' investigation of the books of the Seattle municipal street railway, declare there is a loss to the city of $500,000 in the operation of its own streetcar system. The accountants base their estimate on the fact that sufficient allowance was not made for depreciation in the value of

OWEN MOORE IN

"SOONER

The Season's Biggest

Laugh

Columbia Orchestra Afternoons and Evenings

Other Picture Features

STARTS TODAY Two-Bits Still Does It!!

On Defeat of Treaty

the peace treaty by the senate follows: New York Evening World-The country had no wish to have the treaty short time later, probably saved Les- thrown into the campaign. It had every reason to expect that, through compromise, and concession, senate and presiresiding on Monroe street, from dent would be capable of serving its honor and its interest by establishing it in the new peace of the world without further delay. It finds its expectation

New York Tribune-The treaty's descene. The country beholds the president wrecking a great undertaking for no better reason than because he was not allowed to ignore the constitution. The whole country beholds him assisted by a group of senators who became in-

New York Morning World - Insofar as she had poisoned them, and told of the action of the senate is a victory for anybody it is victory for Senator Borah having found the potson in a chest and and the irreconcilable Republican senplacing it in the food. Mrs. Kellogg, ators who have followed his leadership. knowing that her son, Leslie, had been They have held the balance of power in home a short time before and had eaten both parties. So far as the United States senate is concerned the dead of this war have died in vain.

New York Times-The wreck of the treaty is so complete that the country may well despair of any salvage. But to say that this great instrument of liberty and peace cannot be saved would be indeed a counsel of despair unworthy of the acceptance of a nation which only Mrs. Kellogg ran from the house, fol- a few months ago cherished noble aspirations. The senate we are sure has learned much in these months of strife. Certainly the president must have learned something. Confronting, as we she is being cared for until the arrival do at this hour, a great peril, let animosities be laid aside, let both departments of the treaty-making power join in the effort to put the treaty and the League of Nations' covenant into effect. Chicago Journal-Senator Lodge and his treaty rippers have succeeded in keeping the United States at war with Germany for yet another season. Lodge s in no small degree responsible for the reactionary plot which has just failed in Germany, and for the bloodshed now White Slavery Act prevailing in that country. If Bolshevism follows reaction, he will be responsible for that.

St. Louis Times-The plous historian of the future, in writing of America's Al Barnes, circus owner, appeared to- deliverance from the gravest 'danger that ever threatened its destiny as the political light of the world, will puzzle over the queer alignment of forces that encompassed the treaty's defeat and "The Lord hardened the heart of Woodrow Wilson."

Detroit Times-Just as Grover Cleveland's one column tarrif message of 1887 limited the campaign of 1888 to a single with the president means that we are in for one subject in the exciting months ahead of us. It is tragically regrettable, but the referendum upon so weighty a matter has to be taken some Boston Post-What next? Will the president at once move to negotiate a separate treaty with Germany or will be hold the whole matter in abeyance To Pay for Own Dose until next fall to become a campaign testure? Something must surely be done issue? Something must surely be done to end the grotesque situation in which | LEAGUE FRIENDS PLEAD

Cleveland Plain Dealer - Obviously the senate and the president must continue as partners in the matter of are sitting down to dinner. The calling peace-making. The constitution sees to that. The country is weary of pseudo peace. It is weary of deadlocks, Buffalo Courier - A sorry ending. surely, to eight months of debate on one of the most important treaties in the world's history. . . Americans did not fail to do their part in the war.

Philadelphia Evening Bulletin - The death of the treaty was due to the presence of a foreign substance—the League of Nations—in its organism and the end only serves to confirm the diagnosis of its fatal ailment which was made at its

Grim Reaper Takes Away Infant Who Had Cheated Death

San Francisco, March 20 .- (I. N. S.) -Once cheating death, only to later fall its victim, a 3-year-old baby died here

The baby, pronounced dead at a pri vate hospital, was carried to an under-taking establishment in a suitcase. There, when embalmers prepared to arrange the body for burial, the little tot emitted a mighty howl and was rushed back to the side of its mother. Today, 24 hours after its experience the babe died. It was the child of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Frietzche.

Strange Selected as Astoria School Head

Astoria, March 20.-A. C. Strange, former superintendent of schools at Baker, has been selected by the city school board as superintendent of the city schools here for a period of two years, beginning July 1. He will succeed H. L. Hussong, who has served in that capacity for three years. Strange was selected from 45 appli-

Europe to Buy U.S. Wheat for Credit

Washington, March 20 .- (I. N. S.)-The senate finance committee today favorably reported without amendment the Fordney bill providing for the disposal of 5,000,000 barrels of soft wheat flour by the grain corporation to European nations on credit.

Sutherland Appointed

Appointment of C. G. Sutherland to his former position of assistant to the general manager of the O-W. R. & N. was announced this morning by J. P. O'Brien, general manager. During government operation of the railroads. Sutherland served as special representa-tive of the federal manager in this dis-

Dr. Youngson Preaches Sunday Dr. William Wallace Youngson, district superintendent of the Methodist church, was called upon today to preach at the Rose City Park M. E. church Sunday morning because of the day—at your newsstand or from Fields, wife of the pastor. The Rev. A. L. Howarth will preach in the evening.

The big Sunday Journal—all the news of the day—at your newsstand or from your newsboy. Price 5c. Order your copy in advance so you'll be sure to get it.—Adv.

Press Comment JAPANESE MAIDEN IS DELIGHTFUL IN

the Gallo English Opera company at the Heilig theatre Friday night crowded house and there was no diminution of the enthusiasm appreciation which marked the performance of the piece Wednesday

Hana Shimozumi, the charming little Japanese maiden who sings the part of Yum Yum, is gifted with a voice of unusual sweetness and her personation of the demure little sweetheart of Nanki Poo wins instant applause.

Jefferson D'Angells, finished product of many seasons of comic opera, responded to no end of encores in the part of Ko Ko, the Lord High executioner. "The Flowers That Bloom in the Springtime," "Tit-willow," and all the old time songs made popular by "The Mikado" through two generations have lost nothing of their savor, and D'Angelis was called on to sing them over and over again. J., Humbird Duffey's tenor opening act. Duffey takes the part of Nanki Poo, son of the Mikado and heir to the throne, who abandons the im-perial court disguised as a minstrel because of his love for Yum Yum. Harry A. Collignon, with his heavy fairly lives the part of Poo Bah, Lord High chancellor and everything else of Quinn adds to the general delight of pool hall.

company at the Hellig closes tonight was notified. with "The Gondoliers," another Gilbert and Sullivan opera well known and appreciated by music lovers. A matinee performance of "H. M. S. Rinafore" will

(Continued From Page One.)

the senate will have no authority to recall it, and the president is not likely to return it to the senate unless he can obtain reasonable assurance that ratifi-Next Monday the senate will imme diately turn its attention to the proposition of declaring peace with Germany by a resolution which both houses of congress will be asked to pass. Senator Knox began the discussion of his resolution on the subject shortly after the vote against the treaty had been recorded, but at the suggestion of Senator Lodge he consented to wait until Mon-day for formal action on it.

That such a resolution will pass is senate, in view of the second failure of the attempt to bring about peace by ratification of the treaty.

The death of the treaty was accomof the roll was started at 6:10 o'clock after an all day debate in which friends of the treaty pleaded with its foes to "loosen up" on the reservations and allow the treaty to be ratified.

The galleries were crowded. had extreme difficulty to keep the visitors in order and outbursts of enthusi- are included. asm when the final vote against the treaty was announced were restrained only by the vigilant guards.

There was much conferring and discussing in the cloakrooms where senators gathered to talk over what they proposed to do. To add to the dignity and solemnity of the occasion, Post-master General Burleson and Secretary of the Navy Daniels went into the Democratic cloakrooms to encourage the administration followers to stand demand that the treaty with the Lodge the senate voted down is much different in some particulars from the one prepared by Senator Lodge last No-

That one contained a preamble or resolving clause and 14 reservations. DEMOCRATS VOTE AGAINST

Analysis of the vote by which the treaty was defeated shows that 23 Democrats and 12 Republicans voted and 28 Republicans voted for it. The democrats who voted against ratification last November and voted to ratify today were: Ashurst, Beckham, Fletcher, Henderson, Kendrick, King, Nugent, Phelan, Pittman, Smith of Maryland, Trammell Walsh of Montana, and Wolcott.

VOTE ON TREAT'. Following is the vote on the treaty: For ratification: - Democrats-Ashurst, Beckham, Chamberlain, Fletcher, Gore, Henderson, Kendrick, King, Myers, Nugent, Owen, Phelan, Pittman, Pomerene, Ransdall, Smith (Georgia), Smith (Maryland), Tremmel, Walsh (Masschusetts), Walsh (Montana), Wolcott-21. Republicans-Ball, Calder, Capper Colt, Curtis, Dillingham, Edge, Elkins Frelinhuysen, Hale, Jones (Washing ton), Kellogg, Kenyon, Keyes, Lenroot, Lodge, McLean, McNary, New, Page, Phipps, Smoot, Spencer, Sterling, Sutherland, Wadsworth, Warren, Watson-28. Total for treaty, 49.

Against: Democrats-Comer, Culberson, Dial. Gay, Glass, Harris, Harrison, Hitchcock, Johnson (South Dakota) Kirby, McKellar, Overman, Need, Rob-Sheppard, Shields, Simmons, Smith (South Carolina), Stanley, Swanson, Thomas, Underwood, Williams-23. Republicans-Borah, Brandegee, Fernald, France, Gronna, Johnson (Califor-nia). Knox, Lafollette, McCormick.

Norris, Sherman-12. against treaty, 35. When the votes on ratification were counted, it was found the treaty was seven short of the two-thirds necessary. Twenty-one Democrats bolted their party eader and voted to ratify with the lifying" Lodge reservations. This was 14 more than on November 19, 1919. oted for Lodge's program. The 14 who changed over are: Ashurst, Beckham,

Chamberlain, Fletcher, Henderson, Kendrick, King, Nugent, Phelan, Pittman, Ransdell, Smith (Maryland), Trammell

and Walsh (Montana).

Sunday Journal 5c

Prof. Barnes Coming $50,000 SPEN University of Oregon

University of Oregon, Eugene, March 20.-Walter Barnes, professor of history at the University of California, has been appointed professor of history in the history department of the University of Oregon and will arrive March 29 rofessor Barnes is a graduate of Oxford college, England, where he took his masters' degree. He will teach modern history, European history from 1500 and a new course, intellectual and philowas greeted with delight by a sophical forerunners of the French revolution. He is an Englishman by birth. Dr. R. C. Clark will be acting head of the history department, filling the vacancy left by the departure of Dr. Josenh Schafen, who leaves next week to take the superintendency of the Wisconsin State Historical society. Dr. Clark will teach American history since the Civil war, history of the Monroe doctrine and Europe since 1815.

FAILURE TO FILL-OUT QUESTIONNAIRE LANDS AUSTRIAN IN JAIL CEL

shows to excellent advantage in the Joe Peel, Austrian, must serve 10 days song of the wandering minstrel in the in the county jail because he failed to fill out and return a questionnaire in the early days of America's participa-tion in the war.

Peel, testimony in federal court today showed, worked at Seaside, and gave basso and rare ability as an actor, an improper address to the registraation When his questionnaire came back, unsigned, investigation showed the account in the Mikado's realm. Edward address he gave was a Second street

He recently returned to work in Seathe performance, and all the parts are Eide after many months' absence, The stay of the Gallo English Opera the United States attorney's office here Many more similar cases are yet be heard in federal court, according to

Assistant United States Attorney

Charles Reames. According to the selective service law, a man had to fill out a questionnaire whether he received one in the mail or not. The obligation was on him to see that one was turned in to the

Snow Falls First Time In Three Full Months At Klamath Falls

Klamath Falls, March 20 .- Snow has fallen this week for the first time since early December to the extent of several inches on the lowlands and one foot in the mountains, making roads and highways muddy and almost impassable in cipitation for three months and is greatly appreciated by farmers.

Admirers of General Leonard Wood have organized a "Wood-for-President club." Walter L. Tooze Sr. of Salem, Wood organizer, was the chief speaker. onceded by the ablest leaders of the C. K. Brandenburg was elected presi-plished under dramatic circumstances at Seventh and High streets, the ap-at just about the hour when gentle folk proximate cost to be $15,000. Bishop lice) have been supporting the Ebert Robert L. Paddock of the Eastern Ore- government, but it is pointed out that gon diocese is here in the interests of the new church building.

The new Warren Hunt hospital, erected at a cost of $30,000 and considered one of the finest in Southern Oregon, Senator Cummins, president pro tem, has been completed. An up-to-date pharmacy and pathological laboratory

Reward Offered for Arrest of Men Who Attacked Engineer

The Dalles, March 20.-A reward of $200 was placed with Sheriff Chrisman firm in submission to the president's by M. A. Dunham, brother of George Dunham, who was attacked Tuesday reservations should be defeated.

The resolution of ratification which of this city, suffering two broken ribs night near the O-W. R. & N. car shops and a broken collar bone, for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the two assailants. Dunham is a pile driver engineer and late at night was called to the outside of his car, where he was assailed from behind by two unidentified thugs. Robbery was not attempted.

E. L. Westover, silo and farm expert, will arrive in the city Monday to conagainst ratification, while 21 Democrats duct a series of talks and demonstrations throughout Wasco county under the auspices of the farm bureau.

Wheat Growers Are Behind Association

Lewiston, Idaho, March 20.-The North Idaho organization committee of the Wheat Growers' association, consisting of H. J. Hermon, Genesee; J. S. Thompson, Moscow; George W. Stevens, Grangeville; N. H. Jacobs, Nez Perce; R. R. Fluhurty, Culdesac, and E. G. Fry, Ferdinand, met in Lewiston Friday and gave out a statement that they are solidly behind the association and urging every farmer to join at once.

Corvallis Defeats Tillamook in Debate

Corvallis, March 20 .-- The Corvallis debating team won a unanimous de-cision over Tillamook here Friday night, discussing the question: "Resolved, That by use of the injunction, labor disputes should be prohibited by federal had the affirmative. Corvallis also won at Tillamook. The Corvallis team holds the district championship, and the winners will go to Eugene to participate in the state championship contest.

Liberty Bonds Stolen From Room While Charles Schack was away at work Friday a thief entered his room. 220 Couch hotel, and stole his two $50 Liberty bonds. Schack had the bonds concealed under a receptacle belonging to the room, according to the report of nspectors Coleman and Collins.

Two Girls Escape From The Cedars Marjorie Radcliff and Hilda Tomberg, both 18 years of age, escaped from the Cedars Friday night, according to information furnished the police by the matron. The entire department has today sun pore the appearance been ordered to look for the girls and army hospital in the fild. The lower curridors were spattered with blood from matron. The entire department has

Los Angeles, Cal., March 20 .- (I of the charges of his wife. Mildred Harris Chaplin, that he had failed to support her during their married

The statement was confined solely to charges of cruelty and desertion nor any counter-allegations. It stated that Chaplin is in possession of $50,000 in canand expended by his wife, in addition to her salary of $1000 weekly.

When shown the statement, Mrs. Chaplin admitted that her comedian figure named, but said that he "ought to be ashamed to mention the amount." "This money was paid out for house-hold expenses," she said. "But it covers the period of our entire married life, for his expenses as well as my own. I paid for my own clothing. Fifty thousand in two years! Goodness! What I made was my only salvation. I did not intend to press non-support charges against Mr. Chaplin in my divorce suit, but I shall do so now.'

(Continued From Page One) men at this time because of the excited

condition of the public mind. The workers held a mass meeting during the afternoon and decided to keep up the general strike until the government grants concessions. In some isolated instances striking workmen were to work. other things, calls for the soviet sys- send them into France. tem of councils putting absolute dictatorship into the hands of the prole- RED TROOPS MASSED NEAR

BUNGER IS KEEN

The conservative element of the population is fervently hoping for an m.)—Twenty-five thousand red troops amicable agreement between Vice Chanhave been massed at Koepenick, on the cellor Eugene Schiffer and the Socialist factions to prevent any further fighting. This hope is strengthened by the suffering from hunger. No food has come into the city in nearly a week and the poorer classes are feeling the pinch of on the high ground between Berlin and hunger keenly.

Vice Chancellor Schiffer, who was the only representative of the Ebert government here today, is not a member of Democrat. Consequently he has little influence with the Socialist workers.

The streets of Central Berlin were A subscription campaign is to be crowded throughout the day and angry staged by local Episcopalians to raise expressions were heard against the tion of the general strike. funds for the erection of a church Ebert government as well as against building on the property owned by them the fallen Von Kapp regime. So far the factories where the men return these men are professional soldiers who fight for pay rather than patriotism." Fears were expressed that they may flop to the Spartacans if enough inducement is offered.

Vice Chancellor Schiffer has been notified that the British, Swedish and Belgian governments will recognize only the Ebert government.

The banks are now refusing to cept deposits of foreign money. WORKMEN ARM; VIOLENCE IS RAMPANT; MANY ARE KILLED By Carl D. Groat

Berlin, March 19 .- (Night.) - (U. P.) -Violent disorders growing out of attempts by radicals to institute a soviet government were reported from many parts of Germany today. Armed work-men were reported to have captured Essen after two days' hard fighting. More than 300 persons were reported to have seen killed and many others wounded. Social Democrat artillery was reported moving toward Supl. Troops armed with machine guns and flame throwers, a dispatch said, left Unterkirchen, near Stuttgart, for the disturbed areas in Armed workmen were said to occupy the greater part of Westphalia, including the Ruhr industrial district. Armed forces of radicals also were reported in control of Bitterfield, Langen-Salza and Meiningen.

SITUATION ACUTE

The situation was reported acute, with armed conflict imminent in Muenter, Bremen, Thuringia and Macklenburg. Vice Chancellor Schiffer's office has given out a statement warning the peo ple that the situation still is most serious. Twelve persons were killed and 20 wounded in last night's clash near Kot-bustor, it was said. Several wounded soldiers were thrown into a canal.

A commission representing the majority Socialists and the labor unions has issued another statement declaring their organizations opposed to any plan to grant amnesty to those implicated in the late insurrection. TROOPS KILL AND BURN

Regular troops who were ordered to destroy barricades in the southeastern part of the city last night exploded a mine which killed 12 persons and

In Berlin the majority Socialists have demanded of the government immediate disarming of all troops and other concessions, including participation in the government.

It was impossible to obtain telephone connections outside Berlin, but motorists who came through the suburbs said that citizens in Schoeneberg yesterday cap-tured a truck loaded with retreating Von law." Robert Kerr and Blair Stewart Kapp insurrectionary troops and massacred them. The dead were variously reported at from 50 to 100 with more than 200 wounded. Scores were killed or wounded in yesterday's fighting in Perlin. Fighting was especially severe near the Brandenburg gate and the Adlon hotel. Additional fighting took place at 11 a. m. today near the hotel, but so far as could be learned none was

> EBERT REPORTED BACK An apparently reliable report said that President Ebert arrived secretly in the capital last night, accompanied by Philip Scheldemann, the majority Socialist Scheldemann, the majority Socialist leader. Scheidemann, it was said, will be entrusted with reorganization of the Hotel Adion, headquarters for mest of the foreign missions and residence of the American correspondents, ficials and several American women. watched the fighting from windows of upper floors. They saw soldiers lear from the ranks and deliberately shoot down citizens on the sidewalk. Other N. S.)—Charlie Chaplin's statement troops poured volley after volley into issued today made a complete denial the fleeing crowd. Dead and wounded lay in the streets. The slaughter lasted shout three minutes.

Several American women watched the entire spectacle and hurried below to aid wounded were brought into the Adlon, Lippold. finances in the Chaplin household, mak- where surgeons hurriedly cared for the Government forces marched into the wounded who were carried into the ho-

had gathered in front of the building

At first the troops responded by firing several volleys in the air. Then sud-denly they began shooting into the Newspapermen, many American of

tel after last night's fighting.

CROWDS SLAUGHTERED

city about 4:30 p. m. Berlin today continued to live in fear that the infuriated Baltic troops will recelled checks, which were paid by him turn. It was said they will refuse discompanies and scattered to different

AMERICANS WARNED

OF DANGER IN GERMANY Washington, March 20. - All civilian Americans, men and women, who are explained. that their venture would be at their own risk when they applied for passports, it was authoritatively announced here.

Because the United States is technic ally at war with Germany the state department at no time has been able to issue a passport to Germany. In a number of instances, however, it issued persons passports to Holland, Belgium, Switzerland and other German borderland countrie and at the same time Riley of the local office of the Pinker- her husband was called from his bed knew that the applicants' objective was ton International Letective agency, who chamber and shot in the chest as he knew that the applicants' objective was Germany.

In all of these cases, however, the ap plicants were warned as a matter of prematic and consular service in Germany, and the inability of the United States to furnish American citizens with adequate or immediate service if danger arose. Now that danger has come to pass the American government is almost powerless, unless it chooses armed intervention, to safeguard its nationals in revoinstructed by local leaders to go back ocialists and insist upon fulfillment of sending an armed train to the German

BERLIN; DEFENSE PREPARED By Frank Mason

Berlin, March 20.—(I. N. S.)—(1:30 a. DL)—Twenty-five thousand red troops outskirts of Berlin, the foreign office All the available reichswehr (government troops) supported with artillery, have been ordered to take up positions

Koepenick to defend this city. Rain is falling here and is keeping the usual crowds off the streets. The government holds out hope that the railroads may be running again by tonight, but the Spartacans are making desperate efforts to keep the strikers from returning. Communists are distributing thousands of hand bills urging a continua-

Soviet at Essen

Paris, March 20 .- (U. P.)-A soviet republic has been proclaimed at Essen ome of the great Krupp steel works, in Westphalla, a dispatch from Aix la Chapelle late today said. The dispatch said it was reported a soviet army of 7500 had taken possession of the cities of Mulheim, Oberhausen, Elberfeld, Kattwig and Dusseldorf. Ebert troops have taken refuge in the British zone of occupation. They were disarmed, according to the dispatch. Belgian posts on the right bank of the Rhine were reported to have gone back to their old positions on the left shore.

Allied Forces Concentrate

London, March 20 .- (U. P.) -- Strong allled forces are being concentrated at Strasbourg and Metz, a dispatch from Amsterdam said today. There were in-dications, the dispatch said, that the allies are preparing to invade Germany unless order is restored in the near future. The dispatch quoted advices from Baden declaring the minister of home affairs announced the Ebert government had offered a high reward for the arrest of Dr. von Kapp and Gen- Quarantined School eral von Luettwitz.

Crews Seize Hun Ships London, March 20 .- (U. P.)-Crews of three German cruisers have seized the ships at Kiel, deposed their officers and hoisted the white flag, according to a under quarantine March 8, a school dispatch from Kiel today by way of Hamburg. The cruisers, the dispatch said, were the Schwartzburg, Ragensburg and Wittelsbach. The captain of the Wittelsbach committed suicide by shooting, the message said.

Dusseldorf Captured

London, March 20 .- (U. P.)-Spartacans have captured Dusseldorf, Germany, according to a news agency dispatch received here today. The dispatch said government officials stepped out without fighting.

General Strike Ends Berlin, March 20 .- (11 a. m.) -The of the labor unions and the government. the week over northern portion. Nearly A new cabinet will be formed in which normal temperatures. labor will have stronger representation. 150 Sailors Killed London, March 20.—(U. P.)—More than 150 sailors were killed and many others wounded in the fighting between

Communists and Ebert troops at Kiel, according to an Exchange Telegraph dispatch today. Naval buildings were dispatch said.

Orders Investigation

Washington, March 20 .- (U. P.)-The house today, by a vote of 283 to 0, or dered an investigation of charges that the federal board for vocational education is not taking proper care of the wounded soldiers. The inquiry will be made by the house education committee.

Marriage Licenses Vancouver, Wash., March 19 .- Two

couples secured marriage licenses Friday as follows: Sidney Bricke, 27, and Minnie Bates, 16. Wauna, Or.; Stephen Robertson, legal, Halley, Idaho, and Esther L. Shepard, legal, Portland. Late Thursday Ernest E. Brodley, 31, Emigrant, Mont., and Ella White, 30, Perry-

As the Baltic troops marched by the actel they were jeerd by a crowd which BANK ROBBERY ARE

Identity of the men who robbed the Scio State bank of War Stamps valued at $900 is believed by secret service agents to have been fixed, in the arrest of "Swede" Whitey. in caring for the wounded after the in the arrest of "Swede" Whitey, troops had marched on. Dead and alias Fred Peterson, and Chester

According to the operatives, the registry numbers of the stamps seized in the suspects' room in the Pacific hotel are identical with the numbers on the stamps which were stolen. Identificaarmament and decline to be split into tion of the stamps was accomplished by the use of a powerful magnifying glass, posts, as Defense Minister Noske had the suspects having attempted to wash off the registry designations.

The arrest has started the investigators on a new angle, by which it is hoped that a series of similar robberies at Cascades Locks, Jefferson, Harrisburg, Dayton and Wilsonville will be

Search is being made for a small quence of entering that country and told touring car which the robbers are berounds. Whitney is said to be an old-time > tentiary. He is about 50 years of age Lippold, aged 20, is said to formerly have been an inmute of the Nebraska Three different charges face the men, according to Superintendent James M.

assisted in the arrest

convict, having served in Folsom prison

California, and the Oregon state penicaution of the lack of an American diplo- Trial Set for Second Hand Men Accused as the climax of a long rages in the Cork district.

In spite of the protests of counsel for the defendants, Manicipal Judge Rosslution torn Germany. The only hope the defendants, Manicipal Judge Ross-seen here today for Americans in man set over until Monday afternoon It appeared tonight that Germany's danger in Berlin and elsewhere in Ger- the trial of four second hand men fate depends on whether the majority many rests in probable action by Major charged with receiving and concealing Socialists and workers stand together General Henry T. Allen, commanding stolen property. The court's action was or the workers follow the independent the American forces on the Rhine, in taken at the request of Deputy District which returned a verdict of "not guilty" Attorney Deich. The defendants are the radical, political and industrial pro- capital to remove them to the American W. Jacobsen, Alex Goldstein, Nathan Montesano, the Centralia Central Labor gram of the independents, which, among zone of occupation and from there to Carl and Harry Goldsteir. Police say these four acted as "fences" for Harry Gardner and Eugene Kelley, who are said to have confessed to robbing 10 Portland homes. The police seized a large quantity of goods found in the stores, which they are holding as ovi-Counsel for the merchants sought to have the court reduce the bail so he could obtain his retainer's fee, but the court rieused to grant this. Deich also objected by stating, "I think in the arrest of these men that the police have uncovered one of the worst dens of thickes ever operated in this

Policemen Recover Two Motorcycles

Police visited the home of John Collins at 290 Benton street today and found two motorcycles which it is al-The Bolshevists threaten to blow up leged were stolen by Collins and Jessie Glasgow of 7519 Fifty-third avenue One of the cars was set up and ready to run and the other was buried beneath the floor of the basement. One machine was recognized as naving belonged to Arthur Milling, 792 East Seventh street north, who reported its loss from the Benson Polytechnic school in November. Collins and Glassow will be given hearing Monday.

Much Wheat Under Contract for Sale

Spokane, Wash., March 20 .- Promoters of the Washington Wheat Growers' association, a cooperative selling organization for the producers, say ap-proximately a third of a million bushels of wheat are covered by contracts already drawn with Washington, Oreminimum set by the organization is 15 .-000,000 bahels in the three states by

Has Its Own Paper

Vancouver, Wash., March 20 .- Since paper has been published called "What Next," and is described as a paper with a kick in it. A glance through the paper shows that the pupils are not lacking in humor, and Editor Elmer Beard has plenty of backing in the new enterprise.

Occasional Rain Is Weather Forecast

Washington, March 20 .- (I. N. S.)-The weather bureau today issued the following forecast for the next week: general strike ends at noon today. An Pacific states: Generally fair weather agreement to this effect was reached indicated during the week, except ocat a conference between representatives casional rains during the first half of

Wren and Hoskins Mail Bids Rejected

Washington, March 20 .- (WASHING-TON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL)badly damaged in the bombardment, the The postoffice department has informed Senator Chamberlain that bids were rejected for mail service between Wren and Hoskins, the expense being too

Vocational Board America's Greatest Battleship Launched

Newport News, Va., March 20 .- (U. P.)-America's greatest battleship, the Maryland, was launched at the Newport News shippard today in the presence of Secretary Daniels, the governor of Maryland and other notables.

Bond Increased for Federal Witness Fear that Edna Harper, chief governnent witness against two alleged hibition law violatrs in Pendleton, was going to flee from the jurisdiction of the court here, late Friday caused an increase in her bond from $1000 to $3000 and a bench warrant for her arres

Centralia Normal Territory Is Fixed By Board's Action

Centralia, Wash., March 20.-Lewis, Pacific, Grays Harbor, Wahkiakum, Thurston, Pierce, Clarke, Cowlitz, Skamania and Mason counties have been assigned to the Centralia state normal chool by action of the state board of education at Olympia. The teaching force in the 10 counties numbers ap proximately 2210, about one-fourth of the teachers employed in the state. Miss Olive Calpetto of the Oregon Agricultural college has arrived in Centralia to succeed Miss Marie Paar as instructor in domestic science at the Centralia high school. Miss Paar, whose father was killed in a recent bolier explosion in one of the city power substations in Seattle, resigned to make her home with her mother in Seattle.

HIS OWN RESIDENCE

Cork, March 20.—(U. P.)—Thomas MacCurtain, lord mayor of Cork. was shot and killed in his home at-Blackpool at 1 a. m. today. The murder was committed by a band of armed, masked men, who had smeared their faces and hands with Mrs. MacCurtain answered a rap or the door and was overpowered. Then opened the door. The men fled. MacCurtain had been a prominent Sinn Fein leader. He served several terms in prisons for activities in behalf of the Sinn Fein. Today's shooting came as the climax of a long series of out-

As Thieves' "Fences" Labor Jury Verdict Opposition Downed

Centralia, Wash., March 20 .- By negative vote on a motion to condem the verdict of the so-called "labor jury, in the recent I. W. W. murder case at council placed itself in the position of indorsing the labor jury's verdict. Th motion to condemn the verdict was made by John McKay and seconded by A. L. Dahl, both members of the typographical union. Prolonged applause greeted the motion. Former Policeman Seeks New Trial

A. L. Long, former policeman recentconvicted on charges of impersonating a government officer and seizing liquor from L. L. Adcox near Madras, today filed motion for a new trial in United States district court. He asserts new witnesses will prove that Adoox shortly after the liquor theft did not mention anything about Long representing himself to be a government

There is no substitute for imported Pompelan Olive Oll - Adv

He was a doctor without practice and a spender without funds. So he sent a "fake" wedding announcement to every one he knew and planned to live on the returns. Which made him a "husband" without a wife! What has this to do with Mary's ankle? Everything! A picture made of laughs and trimmed with chuckles! IT'S WORTH GOING MILES TO SEE!