

Society Folk Make Merry in Hotel Gardens

THE reopening of the Arcadian gardens at the Multnomah hotel afforded a pleasant opportunity for much informal entertaining during the past week. On Wednesday evening society was well represented in the gathering and reservations for parties ranging from two to 25 covers were made in advance. In fact, so great was the demand for tables for the opening that many had to be disappointed in their plans.

Favors in green, in keeping with St. Patrick's day, gave a brilliant touch of frivolity to the setting, and on the evenings of Friday and Saturday, when supper dances were given at the grill, bright hued caps worn by the dancers added much to the color and gaiety of the scene.

One of the larger no-host parties included: Mr. and Mrs. C. Hunt Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Webster Talbot, Mr. and Mrs. David Taylor Honeyman, Mr. and Mrs. George Low, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brown, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. I. MacGregor, Mr. and Mrs. Jordan V. Easter Ball at Laurelhurst to Be Held April 9

PLANS for the Easter ball, which is an annual event for Laurelhurst club members, are under consideration for this year's event. The date chosen is April 9, and the place will be Christensen's hall. Owing to the unusual success of Laurelhurst club events this year, the event is anticipated with more than passing interest.

During the past week the women's progressive unit met at the clubhouse on Tuesday afternoon for a business meeting. On Tuesday evening the men's unit gave a St. Patrick's eve dance, which was attended by over 150 persons. The club was tastefully decorated in the colors of the Emerald Isle and a number of the dancers appeared in costume. Dinty Moore's "bar" did a thriving business in all refreshments of a greenish tint. The committee in charge of the affair, Messrs. Jordan, Williamson, Carpenter and Duffield, had numerous stunts in surprise for those who attended.

The fortnightly card party was held at the clubhouse Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. William P. Richardson as hosts. At bridge, Mrs. A. H. Wethey and H. R. Landfare carried off the honors, and at "500" Mrs. A. Swearingen and L. C. Boffinger won high scores.

The Laurelhurst Study club will meet Monday afternoon at the clubhouse. The Women's Tuesday Afternoon Card club will meet Tuesday. Mrs. J. Phillip Tamiesle and Mrs. Townsend Wells will be the hostesses.

The regular guest night dancing party will take place at the clubhouse on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Elizabeth Loomis of Tacoma, who is a frequent visitor in Portland at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Antoine G. Labbe, has given up her beautiful farm, "Shelterneuk," near the Northern city, and will live at her new ranch near Elmensburg. The new home will be called "Land's End."

William McKinley W. R. C. No. 45 will hold its regular meeting Monday at the Montavilla L. O. O. F. hall, Eightieth and Gilman streets, at 2 o'clock. All members are requested to be present as this will be an important business meeting.

MRS. THOMAS FOSTER METCALF, who was Miss Dorothy Parsons before her marriage, is a visitor in the city at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Seely Parsons. Mr. and Mrs. Metcalf reside in Danville, Ky.
