PORTLAND APRIL

Frank A. Vanderlip, former pres ident of the National City bank of New York, and now chairman of the board of the American International company, chairman of the board of the International Mercantile Marine and director of the Union Pacific railroad and many other corporations, accompanied by a distinguished group of financiers, writers and business men, will arrive in Portland April 7, en route to Japan on a trade mission, according to advices received by the Chamber of Commerce this morning.

With Vanderlip are Darwin P. Kingsley, president of the New York Life Insurance company; Jacob Gould Schurman, former president of Cornell unithe American Exchange National bank; Lyman J. Gage, former secretary of the treasury; Henry Taft, vice president of the New York State Bar association; Julian Street, writer, and H. E. Bene dict.

The party is scheduled to arrive at 3:30 p. m. and arrangements have been made by the Chamber of Commerce to give a dinner in honor of the party that evening. Vanderlip has agreed to speak at this dinner. The party will proceed to Seattle that evening to embark for Japan a few days later.

In Japan the Americans will be guests of the Japanese Welcome association an organization of business men to bring more friendly relations between Japan and America. The head of this association is Prince Tokugowa and other members include Baron Megata and Baron Shibusawa. Shibusawa was a visitor in Portland several years ago.

recognized in findings filed Massachusetts supreme court earlier in the month. The contention of the churches is that the board of directors of the church are empowered to exercise authority over the publications and their personnel. Among the publications involved are the Christian Science Monitor, Christian Science Journal and Christian Science Sentinel. Recent figures from Boston show that similar ac tion has been taken in 1600 of the 1810 Christian Science churches. A week ago Frank Gilmore announced his resignation as representative of the Christian Science Monitor in this field.

Seven Suspects Are Rounded Up in Hunt For Slayer of Girl AUSTRALIA

Steubenville, Ohlo, March 26 .- (U. P.) -Seven suspects rounded up in the hunt for the slayer of Frances South, 11, near Adena. Ohio, late yesterday, were being hurried to this city by circuitous routes today to avoid heavily armed posses of miners and farmers who threatened to lynch the killer. The child's body was found in a wood about two miles from her home.

Crowd Surrounds Jail Adena, Ohio, March 26,-(U. P.)-A crowd of 500 persons gathered around the jail here today when it was learned that a suspect in connection with the murder of Frances South, 11, was held here. Mayor Stinger immediately swore in 50 men to assist the police and deputies to prevent possible violence.
