

HOUSE EXPECTS TO PASS 3 MONTHS REEF JUNE FIRST

Washington, April 2.—(U. P.)—A tentative agreement has been reached by the senate and house to have congress take a recess of about three months, beginning in the early part of June.

The recess plan has been decided upon in preference to an adjournment because if an adjournment were taken, congress would be powerless to convene again until the date set for the regular session in December.

The recess is taken both houses may reassemble whenever in the judgment of the leaders is necessary.

WOOD FOR MILITARISM There are few features of the bill that are likely to arouse much opposition outside from the provision which is designed to establish compulsory training.

Two factions rival After the army bill is out of the way, it is planned to push up the dyes bill, which proposes an increased tariff on the importation of commercial dyes.

Big Warehouse to Be Built in Newberg For Storing Apples A large warehouse here, practically a square block in size, was virtually completed last week when the representative of Dan Wille & Co., Ltd.

Population Figures For Fourteen Cities Stated by Bureau Washington, April 3.—(U. N. S.)—Preliminary population figures were announced today by the census bureau as follows:

Aerial Instruction Units at Colleges Not Contemplated Washington, April 3.—(WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL)—Colonel O. Westover of the air service in a letter to Senator Chamberlain, explains that the service is not prepared to establish units for instruction in flying at colleges and universities.

Box Sent C. O. D. Proves Effective As Bill Collector

Granger, Wash., April 3.—(U. P.)—Postoffice inspectors are investigating a new bill collecting method.

STORY OF GIRL ONE WHICH REVEALS FIENDISH TORTURE New York, April 3.—Marked from head to foot with the scars of hot irons, livid cuts and tissues malformed and hideous from blows.

WOOD FOR MILITARISM There are few features of the bill that are likely to arouse much opposition outside from the provision which is designed to establish compulsory training.

Two factions rival After the army bill is out of the way, it is planned to push up the dyes bill, which proposes an increased tariff on the importation of commercial dyes.

Big Warehouse to Be Built in Newberg For Storing Apples A large warehouse here, practically a square block in size, was virtually completed last week when the representative of Dan Wille & Co., Ltd.

Population Figures For Fourteen Cities Stated by Bureau Washington, April 3.—(U. N. S.)—Preliminary population figures were announced today by the census bureau as follows:

Aerial Instruction Units at Colleges Not Contemplated Washington, April 3.—(WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL)—Colonel O. Westover of the air service in a letter to Senator Chamberlain, explains that the service is not prepared to establish units for instruction in flying at colleges and universities.

Serial Music and Communion to Feature Easter Services

ELABORATE PLANS MADE FOR EASTER PROGRAMS

The following order of services will be observed on the following day: Easter carols and an appropriate program will be given by the church school.

At 10:30 in the church there will be a christening service, at which all of the church school children will be baptized.

The pastor will speak in the evening on "Three Ways of Belief in Life After Death." The music for the morning will be repeated at the evening service.

At 10:30 in the church there will be a christening service, at which all of the church school children will be baptized.

The pastor will speak in the evening on "Three Ways of Belief in Life After Death." The music for the morning will be repeated at the evening service.

At 10:30 in the church there will be a christening service, at which all of the church school children will be baptized.

Serial Music and Communion to Feature Easter Services

The following order of services will be observed on the following day: Easter carols and an appropriate program will be given by the church school.

At 10:30 in the church there will be a christening service, at which all of the church school children will be baptized.

The pastor will speak in the evening on "Three Ways of Belief in Life After Death." The music for the morning will be repeated at the evening service.

At 10:30 in the church there will be a christening service, at which all of the church school children will be baptized.

The pastor will speak in the evening on "Three Ways of Belief in Life After Death." The music for the morning will be repeated at the evening service.

At 10:30 in the church there will be a christening service, at which all of the church school children will be baptized.

The pastor will speak in the evening on "Three Ways of Belief in Life After Death." The music for the morning will be repeated at the evening service.

Serial Music and Communion to Feature Easter Services

The following order of services will be observed on the following day: Easter carols and an appropriate program will be given by the church school.

At 10:30 in the church there will be a christening service, at which all of the church school children will be baptized.

The pastor will speak in the evening on "Three Ways of Belief in Life After Death." The music for the morning will be repeated at the evening service.

At 10:30 in the church there will be a christening service, at which all of the church school children will be baptized.

The pastor will speak in the evening on "Three Ways of Belief in Life After Death." The music for the morning will be repeated at the evening service.

At 10:30 in the church there will be a christening service, at which all of the church school children will be baptized.

The pastor will speak in the evening on "Three Ways of Belief in Life After Death." The music for the morning will be repeated at the evening service.

Serial Music and Communion to Feature Easter Services

The following order of services will be observed on the following day: Easter carols and an appropriate program will be given by the church school.

At 10:30 in the church there will be a christening service, at which all of the church school children will be baptized.

The pastor will speak in the evening on "Three Ways of Belief in Life After Death." The music for the morning will be repeated at the evening service.

At 10:30 in the church there will be a christening service, at which all of the church school children will be baptized.

The pastor will speak in the evening on "Three Ways of Belief in Life After Death." The music for the morning will be repeated at the evening service.

At 10:30 in the church there will be a christening service, at which all of the church school children will be baptized.

The pastor will speak in the evening on "Three Ways of Belief in Life After Death." The music for the morning will be repeated at the evening service.

Serial Music and Communion to Feature Easter Services

The following order of services will be observed on the following day: Easter carols and an appropriate program will be given by the church school.

At 10:30 in the church there will be a christening service, at which all of the church school children will be baptized.

The pastor will speak in the evening on "Three Ways of Belief in Life After Death." The music for the morning will be repeated at the evening service.

At 10:30 in the church there will be a christening service, at which all of the church school children will be baptized.

The pastor will speak in the evening on "Three Ways of Belief in Life After Death." The music for the morning will be repeated at the evening service.

At 10:30 in the church there will be a christening service, at which all of the church school children will be baptized.

The pastor will speak in the evening on "Three Ways of Belief in Life After Death." The music for the morning will be repeated at the evening service.

CATHOLIC CHURCHES CELEBRATE EASTER

The 11 o'clock mass: Vidi Aquam, Gregorius; Hymn: Interior Mass in D; Offertory: Regum Coeli; Vespers: Hymnus, Gregorius; Benedictus; Gloria; Credo; Communion; Hymnus, Gregorius; Resurrexio; Hymnus, Gregorius; Vespers.

The following order of services will be observed on the following day: Easter carols and an appropriate program will be given by the church school.

At 10:30 in the church there will be a christening service, at which all of the church school children will be baptized.

The pastor will speak in the evening on "Three Ways of Belief in Life After Death." The music for the morning will be repeated at the evening service.

At 10:30 in the church there will be a christening service, at which all of the church school children will be baptized.

The pastor will speak in the evening on "Three Ways of Belief in Life After Death." The music for the morning will be repeated at the evening service.

At 10:30 in the church there will be a christening service, at which all of the church school children will be baptized.