THIRD and WAL SAVINGS STAMPS on Sale at Business Office, The Journal.

Plan Vandeville for Bennett—Vandeville will be presented Friday night in a big benefit entertainment at The Auditorium. Proceeds will be given to the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Multnomah Guard band. Eight acts selected from local show houses will appear, and afterwards dancing will be held in the wings of The Auditorium. Music will be furnished by the Multnomah Guard 62-piece band. Money raised in the entertainment will go to defray expenses of bi-monthly visits to ex-service men now in hospitals, and also to pay for uniforms used by the guard band.

Small Fruits Topic—Small Fruits, Their Care and Management, will be the subject of a lecture to be given in room F, Central library Friday night, one of the series of Oregon Agricultural college extension lectures on home gardening, being offered to the general public. The talk will include the problems involved in raising strawberries, raspberries, loganberries and other small fruit. Professor A. L. Peck of the college lectured last Friday on making the home grounds attractive, before 300 employees of the Portland woolen mills at luncheon, as well as in the evening at St. Johns public library.

Christian Science Lecture—Second Church of Christ, Scientist, of this city announces a free public lecture on Christian Science by Mr. John W. Doolery, C. S. B. of Leeds, England, Member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., in The Auditorium, Thursday evening, April 22, at 8 o'clock, doors open at 7:30. The public is cordially invited to be present.—Adv.

Capital Punishment Debate—The question as to whether capital punishment should be restored in Oregon will be debated at the Press club luncheon in the Tyrolean room of the Benson hotel Thursday noon, Judge Thomas J. Cleton appearing in the affirmative and Rev. W. T. McElveen, pastor of the First Congregational church, opposing the measure. W. J. Kerr, president of the Oregon Agricultural college, will speak on the higher education millage tax and Hamilton Johnston will discuss the duties of a delegate to a national political convention.

Auto Injures Woman—Mrs. L. E. Payne, Wagner apartments, was taken to St. Vincent hospital Tuesday night after being struck by an automobile driven by E. H. Wiles at Ella and Washington streets. She suffered laceration over the left eye. Wiles was held for court on a charge of reckless driving. He told the traffic department he was going 10 miles an hour, saying he did not see the woman until she was in front of his machine.

Benefit for Dancing Meel—A benefit entertainment and dance for the Dancing Masters' convention to be held in Portland the first week in September will be given at Ringler's cottillon by the Oregon State Association of Dancing Teachers Thursday night. Various dance numbers will be given, representing talent from the different schools, with social dancing between numbers. The public is invited.

To Release Salmon—Two hundred thousand black spotted salmon were removed this week from the state hatchery at Bonnevile to the government hatchery on the Clackamas river, from which place they will be released later in the season, according to a report made to the fish and game commission by Dr. E. Canton, superintendent of hatcheries in Oregon.

Malarkey to Address Club—Fresh from a three months' trip through the Orient, Dan J. Malarkey is to make the chief address before the Progressive Business Men's club at the Benson hotel Thursday noon. A political conference of Malarkey's, State Senator Gus C. Moser, will serve as chairman of the day.

Chalk Talk to Men—On Friday Frank J. Meyer of the service department of the Y. M. C. A. will deliver the second of a series of chalk talks in the "Y" lobby on "What Men Live By." The talk is given under the auspices of the association service department. An invitation is extended to all men.

Homes Built and Sold at Cost
I had to foreclose mortgages on some choice residence lots. For responsible purchasers I will build houses according to accepted plans and sell them at foreclosure cost of lots, plus cost of construction of houses. Want no profit—simply return of original loans and costs. Address J-833, Journal.

"Don the Denim" —if you can get away with it!
BUT the non-radical business and professional man must still dress his part, and we are here to demonstrate that it can yet be accomplished within his means by our $60 to $90 tailored suits.
Our stock of woollens is as large, the assortment as varied and workmanship as good as can be found at other high grade tailoring shops. But there is a difference in prices.

The Wiley B. Allen Co.
For Homes Where Children Are—A Player
Every home needs a Player Piano—needs it for the comfort it brings, for the entertainment it offers, for its educational influence and for its ever-readiness to amuse, to furnish music for the informal dance or the impromptu gathering.
THE EUPHONA PLAYER PIANO
Far more desirable than any Player that we know at even price is the Euphona. Tested by years of use, it has proved its durability and its musical worth, but it is the beauty of its design and its great simplicity and ease of operation that especially attract. Musically it meets every expectation and creates enthusiastic admiration.

We Thank You —All
IT WAS a wonderful welcome you gave us yesterday when we opened, for the first time, the bank of Friendly Service. And we wish to thank you, each and everyone.
To the many firms and people who opened either checking or savings accounts we wish to pledge ourselves anew to serve you well and to work with you sincerely.
"Friendly Service," as many have already learned, goes much further than providing merely a safe depository for your funds. It need no longer be sought, because it is here.
You may not need "Friendly Service" today. Tomorrow the seasoned advice of our experienced bankers may save you loss or put you on the road to higher prosperity. In passing, drop in, any day, and meet our officers and, if you care to, discuss your problems with them.
