

No Game Today—Jupe Pluv Must Want Our Battling Beavers to Pick on Angels

No Need to Play Hookey To See Game

Youngsters Who Desire to Attend Contest Must Bring Written Excuses From Home.

THERE is joy in the hearts of the pupils of Portland public schools for City Superintendent D. A. Groat has issued orders to the effect that all students desiring to attend the opening of the 1920 Pacific Coast league baseball season in Portland will be excused for the afternoon providing that they bring a written excuse from home stating that they are going to the contest. The game originally was slated for today but it was postponed until Thursday.

The four sections of the Portland Grammar school league will suspend operations for the day, even though all are away behind in the schedule, due to the poor weather of the last two weeks, and every good day means a great deal in getting down to the championship series.

Because the opening game at Vaughn street grounds cannot be held today as planned, due to the activities of Jupe Pluv, the excuses will go for the day on which the first match is played.

ERROR GIVES OAKS WINNING SCORE IN GAME WITH BEES

San Francisco, April 21.—The Oaks defeated the Bees Tuesday in the first game of the series, 3 to 2. Both Holling and Levern pitched airtight ball, but the failure of either Johnson or Krug to cover second base on Byler's hit in the fourth, gave Oakland the run that tied the score, and Krug's error on Arlett's grounder put the winning run over for Oakland in the same inning. The score:

SENATORS KNOCK 14 RUNS OUT OF ANGEL HURLERS

Los Angeles, April 21.—Sacramento hit Dell Schneider and Hill at will and piled up a total of 14 hits and 14 runs off the Vernon hurlers. The final score was 14 to 4 in Sacramento's favor. Wheeler Dell went to pieces in the second inning and five runs were made off his delivery. Schneider, who relieved him, was touched for seven hits and six runs in the fifth and Hill allowed three runs in the succeeding innings, though he hit freely, pitched a good game.

Knocked senseless by a pitched ball, Molwitz, Sacramento first sacker, revived to stay unconscious. He returned to first, scored and then retired. The score:

Beavers Won't Secure Ellison

There is no chance of the Portland Beavers securing the services of Bert Ellison of the Detroit Americans at the present time. The Tigers have been unable to get waivers on the hard hitting utility infielder, the Boston Nationals and the Washington Americans putting in claims for the tossers.

SEATTLE MAKES BIG PLANS FOR FIRST GAME OF YEAR

Seattle, April 21.—(I. N. S.)—Weather permitting, fully 10,000 fans are expected to witness the opening game here this afternoon between the Seattle Rainiers and the San Francisco Seals.

LOOK OUT! SCARLET DAYS COMING

Spokane, Wash., April 21.—Henry Irslinger, prominent heavyweight wrestler and former holder of the light heavyweight championship of England, has been matched to meet Ted Thye of Spokane, world's middleweight, in a finish match at the Auditorium theatre here Monday, April 26.

TAGGING ALL THE BASES

Umpire McCormick made a bad decision at the plate against the Phils and Manager Cactus Cravath got riled up. With two on, he went in to pinch hit in the eighth and knocked a home run, Rube Benton. Phils beat Giants 3 to 0.

Hood, a Brooklyn recruit, smacked a double in the eighth inning and beat the Braves, 1 to 0. Brooklyn going into a tie for first place.

Walker, Connie Mack's left fielder, rapped out two home runs, but the Senators were on a rampage and beat the Mackmen, 8 to 5.

Sherdell, pinch hitting for his stablemate, Ferdie Schupp, in the seventh knocked a home run. Cards made it two out of three from the Cubs, 10 to 3.

The Indians and the Tigers used five pitchers each before Speaker's men were able to win out, 11 to 10.

Babe Ruth failed to get a hit and the Red Sox took another swing on the Yankees, 3 to 2.

IDAHO HERALDED AS LEADING BIG GAME STATE OF U.S.

Game Warden Otto Jones Compiles Data Which Features Gem State's Wild Life.

MOSCOW, Idaho, April 21.—That Idaho is one of the leading big game states of the Union is shown by reports just compiled by Otto M. Jones, state game warden, taken from figures and data supplied by the forest reserves agents and rangers. Detailed reports have been received from 11 forest reserves in Idaho, including the Weiser, Boise, Sawtooth, Cachesn, Caribou, Idaho, Lemhi, Minidoka, Payette, Salmon and Targhee reserves. These reports show the amount of big game that came through the winter in these reserves and the count is believed to be approximately correct. The list of big game animals reported follows:

Deer led all others, with a total of 16,775. Mountain goats are next in number, with 2861. Elk are third, with a total of 1260, and mountain sheep are a close fourth, with 1134. Timberline antelope and 70 moose. The reports show that during 1919 there were killed in these reserves 1090 deer, 80 mountain goats and 80 elk.

The "census" just completed shows a marked increase in big game and this is believed to be due, in part, to the high prices paid for furs, which has induced hunters to go after the "predatory" animals that have been so destructive to big game in the past. The woods have been filled with hunters during the winter months for the past several years and great numbers of coyotes, mountain lions and other animals have been killed.

FURS BRING "BIG" MONEY But while big game, such as mentioned in the report of the forest ranger, has increased, there has been a marked decrease in the number of fur bearing animals left in the woods of Idaho, for the slaughter of these, especially during the past winter, has been heavy. Men have made big money by going into the wilds of Idaho and trapping these animals for their fur. Marten skins were sold at 25 cents and beaver skins during the winter, and their hides are reported to be worth all the way from $25 to $150 each. In Clearwater county, which comprises some of the wildest regions of Idaho, several trappers made "big money" during the winter. James Johnston and George Engstrom of Pierce caught 45 martens, two foxes and many mink, weasels and coyotes. Charles Foster and Charles Wright of Teaklen trapped 75 martens, 67 weasels, many mink and coyotes and killed one elk. They saw one herd of 21 elk, but killed none, as this was in the close season. William Nisham of Pierce got 25 martens and four lynx during the winter season. These are a few of the trappers in this county. They report 10 feet of snow in the mountains and say there will be no shortage of water for irrigation this year.

Twirlers Who Were Expected To Deliver Fail

Babe Adams Surprises Followers of Major Leagues by Winning Two Games.

NEW YORK, April 21.—(U. P.)—Hardly away from the shore on a seaman's cruise, the pitching staff of several major league clubs is sprawled out on the rocks.

The "bust" of the mighty among the elite hurlers has been one of the most marked developments of the infant 1920 season.

The Cubs were to chase the Reds for the pennant on the strength of an A-1 pitching staff. Alexander the Great was knocked out of the box twice and he totes the rep of the league's best pitcher. Hip Vaughn was driven out once and "Toothless" Tyler cut in for a drubbing. Between them they have only won one out of four games.

"SWELLEST STAFF" WEAKENS The Giants brought up from Texas what was painted in flaming red as the "swellest staff in the league. Barnes, leader in games won and lost last year, Art Nehf, the $100,000 beaut; Rube Benton, Fred Toney and Jess Winters have brought McGraw only one victory out of five.

The Gibraltar of the Yankees is made out of putty. Shawkey, Quinn, Mordridge and Mays have also turned in only one game out of five.

Walter Johnson has been knocked from the box and chunks of disagreeable experiences have been served to Uln, the young Indian; Walter Reuther, the Red bulwark; Cooper, the Pirate portlander; Sothoron, the ex-angler of the Browns; Dick Rudolph and Rube Marquard.

"FAIR STAFFS" DELIVER Some of the "fair staffs" are soaking up all the rays of the spotlight. The Red Sox are at the top of the American league ladder, the White Sox and the Indians are right below them; Brooklyn and Pittsburgh are on the crest of the National heap and the Reds and the Phils are riding nicely a pace in the rear—like the uncaptured.

Babe Adams, figured a shrewd fixture two years ago, has won two games. So have Ferdie Schupp, Leon Cadore, Coveleskie, Pennock and Causey.

Claude Williams and Eddie Clotte, who pitched Kid Gleason to a world's series last year, have turned in the game apiece with ease.

CLACKAMAS COUNTY TRACK MEET SLATED FOR GLADSTONE MAY 8

Nineteen Events Are on Program for Both Boys and Girls; Ball Games, Too.

OREGON CITY, April 21.—The big annual track and field meet for the grade schools of Clackamas county will take place at Gladstone park, Saturday, May 8, and the event promises to be the most interesting and warmly contested of the kind ever conducted here.

John L. Gary, principal of the Union high school, West Linn, who is secretary of the league, announces the following events will make up the track meet: For boys—50-yard dash, boys up to 9 years and under; 50-yard dash, boys up to 12 years and under; 50-yard dash, open to all; 100-yard dash; 200-yard dash; 400-yard dash; 800-yard dash; 1 mile; 1 1/2 mile; 2 mile; 3 mile; 4 mile; 5 mile; 6 mile; 7 mile; 8 mile; 9 mile; 10 mile; 11 mile; 12 mile; 13 mile; 14 mile; 15 mile; 16 mile; 17 mile; 18 mile; 19 mile; 20 mile. For girls—50-yard dash, girls 9 years and under; 50-yard dash, girls 12 years and under; 50-yard dash, open to all; 100-yard dash; 200-yard dash; 400-yard dash; 800-yard dash; 1 mile; 1 1/2 mile; 2 mile; 3 mile; 4 mile; 5 mile; 6 mile; 7 mile; 8 mile; 9 mile; 10 mile; 11 mile; 12 mile; 13 mile; 14 mile; 15 mile; 16 mile; 17 mile; 18 mile; 19 mile; 20 mile.

Each school will be allowed not more than two contestants in any one event, and each contestant will be allowed to take part in three events only, one of which shall be a race besides the relay. The judges for the meet will be selected by the officials of the Clackamas school league. In addition to the track and field meet the following baseball games will be played by the teams in the league. The schedule is as follows:

Boring vs. Estacada, Milwaukie vs. Oak Grove vs. Boring, East. Inter-mediate eight finished second in the race at the Worcester championships last year. Union Boat club of Boston; also Union boat club of New York, as well as the Vespers of Philadelphia and Undine of the Quaker City, made up largely of Fox-Penn crewmen, and Duluth Boat club, are all expected to have entries in the Olympic try-outs this summer.

RIVERSIDE Boat club of Cambridge, Mass., will develop a crack senior 8-oared shell crew to try for representation at the Olympic regatta. Their intermediate eight finished second in the race at the Worcester championships last year. Union Boat club of Boston; also Union boat club of New York, as well as the Vespers of Philadelphia and Undine of the Quaker City, made up largely of Fox-Penn crewmen, and Duluth Boat club, are all expected to have entries in the Olympic try-outs this summer.

Each school should endeavor to bring out a large crowd for the track meet at Gladstone. It would be a good idea for schools to have a picnic picnic for that date. The Gladstone park is a good place for such an event, and it will add to the interest of the school meet to have the patrons present.

The date for the high school meet will likewise be May 8, instead of May 12 as previously scheduled, due to the fact that several of the schools wish to participate in the state school meet, which will be held in Corvallis, May 15.

If for any reason the schedule to meet each other in baseball is not convenient the school should notify the other school immediately, so that they will know how to plan for the work.

Umatilla County To Hold Gathering

Pendleton, April 21.—Sectional track meets to determine entries in the Umatilla county track and field meet in Pendleton on May 15, will be held next Saturday throughout the county. Both high school and grade school youngsters will compete. The finals on May 15 are for cups put up by the Pendleton Commercial association and ribbons by the county school system. Lack of training weather is expected to prevent the making of any records in the high school division.

No Game Today At Vaughn Street Because of Rain

After sitting beside the window for more than three hours this morning and with every sign that Jupiter Pluvius would not call off his army of rain for this afternoon, Judge William Wallace McCredie was forced to call off the first game of the Los Angeles-Portland series slated for the Vaughn street grounds this afternoon. "There is no use trying to start the opening of the Pacific Coast league season in Portland this afternoon," said the judge.

"and we have planned to hold everything over until tomorrow or the next day that is good. Both teams arrived here ready to stage the fracas, but the grounds would not be fit to play on as soon as we lifted the canvass."

Fred Fulton vs. Jack Thompson, heavyweights, 10 rounds. Mexican Joe Lawson vs. Tiny Herman (Oscar Koch), light heavyweight and heavyweight, 10 rounds. Joe Gorman vs. Frank Pete featherweights, 8 rounds. Johnny Noye vs. Muff Bronson, lightweights, 6 rounds. Henry Krieger vs. Kid Meeker, welterweights, 4 rounds.

Jack Dempsey To Fight July 5 Is Latest Rumor

Chicago Elks Are Going to Support Champion's Appearance in Ring.

BENTON HARBOR, Mich., April 21.—(U. P.)—Jack Dempsey's first fight as champion heavyweight may be staged here July 5.

Jack Kearns, manager of the champion, gave the rumor impetus today when he arrived here to confer with Promoter Floyd Fitzsimmons. Kearns did not deny Dempsey will fight. Neither did he discuss the bearing pending government action against Dempsey and himself will have on a fight this summer.

The fight, if staged, will have the support of the Chicago Elks lodge as part of the entertainment for the national convention in July.

Possible opponents for the champion, as named by Fitzsimmons, are Carpentier, Fred Fulton, Willie Meehan, Bob Martin, Bill Brennan, Billy Miske and Tony Melichar, with the chance strong it will be one of the minor fighters on that list.

Claude Williams and Eddie Clotte, who pitched Kid Gleason to a world's series last year, have turned in the game apiece with ease.

BOXING

CANTON, Ohio, April 21.—(U. P.)—Paddy Malone, New York, manager of Mike O'Dowd, middleweight champion, wired acceptance of a local club's terms for a match here May 10, in which O'Dowd will meet the winner of the Britton-Malone match on April 18.

Lorain, Ohio, April 21.—(U. P.)—Johnny Kilbane, featherweight champion, and Alvie Miller, Lorain, will meet here tonight in a 10-round bout.

This is the first time Kilbane has fought since he was defeated by Jimmie Dunn in Miller's corner. Kilbane and Dunn parted several months ago.

Los Angeles, April 21.—(I. N. S.)—Kazo Kripovsky, San Francisco boxer, won over Cliff Jordan of Los Angeles here last night in the main event of the Vernon Athletic club. Other results were:

Young France beat Young Ketchel, Kid Merle beat Joe Rooney, Johnny Myers trimmed Jack Rautz, Joe Peña knocked out "Red" Andrews in a round and Fred Young walloped Phil Moss.

Ad Santel Stages 'Comeback,' Wins

San Francisco, April 21.—(U. P.)—Ad Santel, appearing here for the first time in almost two years, staged a comeback by flopping the massive Chris Sorenson for two straight falls.

Santel was outwrought by Sorenson, a younger man. The latter succumbed each time to an arm scissors. The first one required an hour and 20 minutes and the second little over 20 minutes.

RIVERSIDE Boat club of Cambridge, Mass., will develop a crack senior 8-oared shell crew to try for representation at the Olympic regatta. Their intermediate eight finished second in the race at the Worcester championships last year. Union Boat club of Boston; also Union boat club of New York, as well as the Vespers of Philadelphia and Undine of the Quaker City, made up largely of Fox-Penn crewmen, and Duluth Boat club, are all expected to have entries in the Olympic try-outs this summer.

Fred Fulton vs. Jack Thompson, heavyweights, 10 rounds. Mexican Joe Lawson vs. Tiny Herman (Oscar Koch), light heavyweight and heavyweight, 10 rounds. Joe Gorman vs. Frank Pete featherweights, 8 rounds. Johnny Noye vs. Muff Bronson, lightweights, 6 rounds. Henry Krieger vs. Kid Meeker, welterweights, 4 rounds.

At 8:30 o'clock tonight the bell will toll Krieger and Meeker together at the Milwaukie Arena, and what should prove one of the biggest fistic carnivals held hereabouts will be under way.

There is no feeling of friendship between Fulton and Thompson, and if each lives up to his pre-fight sentiments their bout ought to be a grueling contest. Thompson avows that he will fight as he never fought before to dispose of Fulton and put himself at the top of the ladder. Fulton declares that he will go out to end the affair as soon as the opportunity presents itself.

Surprising to say, some fans have gone so far as to predict and pick Thompson to win. Many fancy that the worst he will get will be a draw, and there are still others who assert that Fulton may win, but that he will knock Thompson out few believe.

Nevertheless, the majority are picking Fulton as the winner, basing this prediction on the fact that Thompson's record has some queer spots in it.

There is one thing certain: If Thompson will fight, as he is capable of doing and as he has shown himself in a gymnasium, Fulton will find a mighty task on his hands.

Of course, no one now knows how really good Fulton may be. Since his improvement over his Dempsey fight, he has not met an opponent who could make him extend himself. Under extension will be so good that he will outclass the gorilla Thompson. That is the question which is being asked.

Only the result of tonight's battle will indicate how good Fulton is.

Portland, in common with the rest of the Northwest, is being written on the pugilistic map in large letters. Our local colony of boxers is already almost beyond self-sustaining proportions. Some of them, of course, are not as good as they believe themselves to be, and must be satisfied with the crumbs left by the better battlers. But, however our boxing quarters may be at present, there are other migrations promised to this way which will make it of ominous voting stature if they ever light long enough to establish residence.

Johnny Griffiths, one of the best welterweights in the world, will soon be with us. Marty Farrell, middleweight

OPENING GAMES OF MOUNTAIN LEAGUE SLATED FOR SUNDAY

Eleven-Game Series Planned Between Six Teams of Eastern Oregon Circuit.

PENDLETON, April 21.—The Blue Mountain league baseball season will open on a 11 game series Sunday with games at Pendleton, Athena and Walla Walla. Pilot Rock meets Pendleton here, Helix plays at Athena and Milton-Freewater opens at Walla Walla. The final games will be played July 4.

All six teams have garnered an array of fast local talent and no attempt will be made to import semi-pro stars for the season. Pendleton Athletic club is putting the local team in the field and Marshall Spell, for several years identified with the sport here before the war, is manager.

Among the well-known men who will wear the Pendleton uniform are Sid Williams, former Harriman twirler; Gunner Peterson, ex-Beaver infielder; Ed Olson, O. A. C. infielder, and Larry Ammon, formerly with the University of Washington nine.

Of undoubted class, is being himself Portlandward, Bob Martin, A. E. F. champion, is casting long eyes toward the fatted calf of the Northwest and will be seen in action here before long. And in the wake of these good boys will be the usual plethora of ruffians and parasites and lesser boxers of more or less class. Then, again, we must not forget that Benny Leonard, kingpin lightweight, is sojourning only a few miles south of us and may be seen here if inducements are seductive enough. And there is a multitude of others, ham-and-eggers and bean-fighters—both too numerous and too inconsequential to be mentioned—but they, too, will be in our midst, loudly clamoring for opportunities to show their wares. Yes, sirree, we are on the pugilistic map stronger than horse-adish, and still going.

U.S. Davis Cup Team Has Three Players Chosen

Two National Champions and a Former Title Holder Already Selected.

NEW YORK, April 21.—(I. N. S.)—America will be represented in the preliminary Davis cup matches this year by the best team of tennis players ever gotten together on this side of the Atlantic.

Announcement today that the Davis cup committee in the United States Lawn Tennis association has selected William M. Johnston, William Tilden and R. Norris Williams as members of the team, with a fourth member to be chosen later, met with popular approval among tennis followers everywhere.

In selecting two national champions and a former champion the cup committee holds the national out-door singles title. Tilden is the national indoor champion and Williams formerly held the outdoor title. The possible identity of the fourth player to be chosen caused the little speculation among devotees of the net game today. Some went so far as to predict that the youthful Yorkers star, Vincent Richards, Helix plays at Athena and Milton-Freewater opens at Walla Walla. The final games will be played July 4.

Hardy will pilot team Samuel Hardy, the veteran Californian, will be captain and director of the team. Hardy has had much experience in England, where he lived for many years, and is thoroughly qualified to handle the American team in its matches against France.

The Americans will sail from New York late next month or early in June and will play in the British championships beginning June 21. They will compete against the French Davis cup team early in July, probably in England.

LISTEN! You have heard, of course, of our wonderful clothes for Boys—faultlessly tailored from the far-famed, Oregon-made, all-wool cloth known as "OREGON BUCKSKIN." This cloth has passed the "Test of Time," as well as the "Test of Boys." Fifteen years of wear and tear! Fifteen years of service! We are as enthusiastic as ever—so much so, in fact, that we think the name—"OREGON BUCKSKIN" (which signifies that it wears like buckskin)—does not do either the cloth or the clothing justice. It gives no hint of the soft, firm texture, perfect style and workmanship and altogether fine appearance of these suits of which we are so justly proud.

WHAT WE WANT—is a name that suggests all these qualities, a name of preferably one word—not more than two. Now it's up to you! This is your chance to earn real money! This is your chance to create a name!

REMEMBER! Oregon-made suits from Oregon-made woolen, perfect in every detail, are developed right here in our own factory and sold direct to you through our "MAKER-TO-WEARER" plan, thus giving the maximum of style as well as wear, at the minimum of cost.

DIRECTIONS: Visit our factory in the Brownsville Woolen Mill Building, Third and Morrison streets. See the suits as they are being made. Get a good general idea of these splendid Boys' Suits, then go home and invent a name—a good name for which we are willing to pay cash. Contest blanks and full particulars furnished at our store. Out-of-town boys may write for blanks. Answers must be in on or before May 15th, 1920. Store and Advertising Managers will act as judges. Address all inquiries to the Advertising Department.
