MISS JANE CAMERON of Portland, whose engagement to William Pestell of Chicago was recently announced. They will be married during the summer. Miss Cameron and Mr. Pestell have been guests of honor recently at several functions.

Social Club to Give Gingham Dancing Party

THE social club of Friendship chapter, O. E. S., will give a gingham and overall dancing party on the evening of May 3 at the Pythian building.
They will also give a card party the evening of May 17. The receipts from both parties will be given to the Masonic and Eastern Star home fund. The parties will be the final ones of the season.

Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Rosemary Bowden Skipworth, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Walter Skipworth, and Alfred L. Mansfield, for Wednesday evening, May 6, at the First Methodist church.

In compliment to Mrs. A. S. Kerry, who is a visitor in Seattle, Mrs. Albert Charles Phillips entertained at her home in that city Tuesday at a musicale and tea. Mrs. Henry Jukes of Bellingham shared honors with Mrs. Kerry.

Dr. and Mrs. Dorwin Palmer announce the birth of a son born to them April 16.

A dramatic recital will be given at the Waverleigh Heights Congregational church, Thirty-third street and Woodward avenue, Thursday evening at 8:15 o'clock. This program will be the same as that given a week ago at the East Side Christian church by this choir, assisted by outside talent, and which proved itself a most enjoyable evening's entertainment.

Mrs. George T. Gerlinger left for Eugene Friday afternoon and will return to the city this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Lawrence Phipps of The Dalles, formerly of Portland, announce the birth of a son, April 8. The baby has been named Preston La Wall Phipps.

Many Mothers And Daughters Attend Banquet

AN INTERESTING sequel to the after, Father and Son week was a mother and daughter banquet given Wednesday evening at the Sunnyside Congregational church. Nearly 200 mothers and daughters enjoyed the social hour and the dinner served by the men, who acted as general "kitchen police." Appropriate songs, led by Miss Earsley, were sung during the evening. Then came "demonstrations" by each of four Sunday school classes.
Miss Violet Johnson was a charming toast mistress. The following guests responded: To "Parables," Mrs. Dodge; "Values," Gladys Young; "Bubbles," Mrs. Young; "Buds," Dr. J. J. Staub;
"Blossoms," Mr. Rankin.

In the parlors later a delightful program, arranged by Mrs. S. R. Shean, revealed splendid talent in the participants. Numbers included a recitation by Esther Bliss, with vocal accompaniment by Dorothy Phelps; piano solo, Dorothy Dodge; piano duet, Virginia Burdick and Miriam Tobey; cello solo, Miss Elsie Worden; reading, Miss Smith; vocal duet, Misses Bessie and Ruth Earsley, accompanied by Mrs.
Earsley at the piano and Miss Anna Starbuck and Ellen Vaughn; vocal solo, Miss Elsie McPherson; piano solo, Miss Margaret Hyatt. The program was under the able vision of Mrs.
C. D. Green, educational director of the Sunday school.

A tea and art exhibition featured the formal opening of the office of the dean of women at Reed college Tuesday afternoon, when Dean Bertha K. Young was hostess. The work of R. Bruce Horsfall and of Mrs. Albert Sweetser was shown, the latter loaned through the courtesy of the University of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Whitney left Portland Tuesday evening for Alaska.
They expect to be gone from the city for several weeks.
