Miss Harding Charming Bride Last Wednesday

AN INTERESTING wedding ceremony occurred at the Sunnyside Congregational church, Wednesday evening, when Ward W. Robinson and Miss Jessamine Jeanette Harding were united in marriage by Dr. J. J. Staub. The auditorium was artistically decorated with palms and narcissuses. Preliminary to the service Miss Elsie Smith played three selections on the organ, Miss Marion Bennett and Gordon Onstad sang a group of songs, followed by the wedding hymn from "Lohengrin" for the entrance of the bride.

The bride was crowned in ivory tulle with full length veil and carried a bouquet of white roses and sweet peas. Mrs. Le Roy Robinson, a sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She was gowned in white satin and wore a lavender tulle hat. She carried a basket of lavender sweet peas. The bridesmaids were the Misses Margaret Harcus, Fay Robinson, Eleanor Anderson and Mildred Hawes, who wore frocks of coral tulle with tulle hats to match, and carried baskets of pink sweet peas. Little Miss Ellen Alderson was a charming flower bearer. Claude E. Robinson, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The four ushers were George Harding, Le Roy Robinson, Harold K. Palmer and Philip Strack.
