Bishop and Mrs. Sumner Will Entertain

By Helen H. Hutchison Bishop and Mrs. Walter Taylor will entertain Friday evening at the Heights club for Mr. and Mrs. J. Allen Haines of Chicago. The guests will be the younger married set. Members of the younger married set have been invited. The visitors will arrive in the city Thursday evening on their way to Chicago, following a winter spent in California. Mr. and Mrs. Haines will remain in Portland until Sunday evening. They will be entertained during their stay at Waverly Country club, and on Saturday will motor over the Columbia river highway. Mr. and Mrs. Haines and Bishop and Mrs. Sumner are friends of long standing. Mr. Haines was best man for the bishop at the time of his marriage to Mrs. Sumner in Chicago. Mrs. M. Horton will host for a "500" party at his home, 1191 Burrage street, Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. For the benefit of Peter A. Porter circle, Ladies of the G. A. R. Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Beatrice Patricia Stone and Harold S. Riley, Saturday, at Trinity Episcopal church. The service was read in the presence of the immediate family by Bishop Paddock. The bride is a daughter of A. W. Stone of Hood River. She was graduated from St. Helens hall in Portland and has a wide circle of friends here. Mr. Riley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Riley of Irvington. He is an active member of the Portland Hunt club, and during the war period was lieutenant with the Second cavalry in service overseas. Following a trip to the South cities Mr. and Mrs. Riley will return to Portland to make their home. Miss Hattie Haynes will leave Portland Thursday evening for San Francisco, where her marriage to Jack Craig will be solemnized. Following the wedding Mr. Craig will take his bride to Omaha, Neb. Tuesday afternoon, April 29, at the home of Mrs. E. E. Pural of Union, the Woman's club held a special meeting in honor of Mrs. Ida B. Callahan, president of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. Callahan was introduced to the large number of ladies present by Mrs. May Hall, president of the club. Mrs. Callahan presented the purpose and work and influence of the club in such an instructive and earnest manner that new names were added to the roll. Refreshments were served and the speaker expressed her pleasure in her hearty reception at Union. The business women's art class will hold its annual meeting with election of officers this evening in the art museum, at 7:30 o'clock. There will be four subjects for discussion: 1. "Early Sculpture," by Miss Viola A. Christensen. 2. "Olin Warner," by Miss Clara Redifer. 3. "Paul Westland Bartlett," by Miss Martha Goldapp. 4. "Frederick William McKinley," by Miss Vivian P. Cooley. Mrs. Gilbert H. Durban will be hostess for a tea Wednesday honoring her house guests, Mrs. William E. Jones and Mrs. Frederick James of Boston. Mrs. Merritt L. Holbrook will assist Mrs. Durban. Plans for the dance to be given Thursday evening by the Portland Community Service association at the Auditorium, are progressing satisfactorily and the affair promises to be one of the largest of the season. Following are the hostesses: Misses Gladys Giesy, Beth Clark, Frances Merryweather, Winifred Laird, Hazel Raymond, Regina Mitchell, Helen Hoark, Ann Mueller, Marie L. Byars, Marjorie Bramby, Anna Belle Cook, Anne Elliot, Hazel C. Krans, Anna C. Junor, May L. Lewis, Mildred Niebusch, Venice Collinson, Hazel Lynch, Margaret

MISS MARGARET ANGLIN, who opens an engagement in "The Heilig" tonight in "The Woman of Bronze."

The distinguished American actress, Margaret Anglin, who will be seen at the Heilig theatre tonight and for the rest of the week in her new play, "The Woman of Bronze," by Henry Klistermaecker and Eugene Delard, has a role which will again bring to the fore her talents as an emotional actress, having put aside the delightful comedy, "Bellied," in which she was seen here last season. Miss Anglin is returning here with a play in which she has a role of strong dramatic interest. She has approached her new undertaking with delight and she personally directed the staging of "The Woman of Bronze." In the supporting cast are Fred Eric, Langdon Bruce, Sydney Mathew, Harry Sterling, Marion Barney, Neddy Harrison, Harry Taggart and a number of well known players. Clancy, Gertrude, Kuckenburg, Alma Wright, Marie Burnmaster, Lucy Ost, Winifred Evans, Frieda Zeller, Alice Johnson, Bina Briggs, Fay Sparran, Marjoret Frost, Marie Gilmore, Goodwine, Eric Emmett, Manno Dobson, Berntha Wylder, Elda Anderson, Jessie Remington, Peagie Markle, Susie Campbell, Charlotte Roth, Anna Wick, Luella Woodie, Ruby Cunningham, Emma Dohring, Charline Funk, Queen Decker, Henrietta Hooyer, Ida Peterson, Lucille Craven, Esther Snake, Alta Case, Blanche Sharp, Higgins, Gaidback, Thelma Left, Evelyn Woods, Lillian Sneed, Elsie Zosel, Alyce Johnson, Pearl Lindberg, Thelma Williams, Geneva Zimmerman, Lazona Melching, Iva Clark, Alice Willard, Marie Hagan, Irene Winberg, Nellie Atkins, Alma Mae McMin, Vera Goldblais, Ada Bergen, Lena Groves, Ethel Hill, Helen Randall, Gladness Murray, Rosa Spahn, Amy Freeman, Ann Johnson, Anna Frank, King Wilson, Verna Lomberg, Glenn Sauer, Thelma Lynch, Gretchen Radcliffe, Irma Seigel, Lillian Hendricks, Pearl Underhill, Eva Fielder, Don Evans, Mona Zimmerman, Orilla Harter, Alice LaFave, Helen Healy, Ruth Kirkpatrick, Anna Lemman, Esther Kirkpatrick, Ethel Kelly, Bessie Spaulding, Belina Kelly, Anna Rose Tauzer, Julia Metgoff, Elsie Moore, Jessie Taylor Gray, Louisa Erwin, Pauline Kramer, Maude Worley, Veronica White, K. THE Stroller notices THAT the dandelion picking season is at hand.

That hired business men are not as particular about digging them out by the roots as they were a few years ago. That the geese are flying north. That a flock flew high above the east side last evening. That a yellow flag floats above some local automobile service stations. That at other times the American flag is carefully raised and lowered each morning and evening. That this is more than can be said for the flag on the pole in the old postoffice lot. That it seems to have been forgotten. That "Jerry" is a chicken chaser. That he's going to get into trouble if he doesn't watch his step. That the firm sun-shiny weather cuts into the theater business. That on our way home in the evening machines pass us on their way to the smelting ground. That that's the same on our way to the work in the morning. That the smelt are evidently "biting" early and late. That our time is up now. Today's Heading Suggestion

THE Stroller Notices

Rah! Rah! for the "R. A. R." Dear Stroller—I notice that some nice young lady has invited you to go motoring with her as soon as the weather is nice. Now, I also see that you have accepted her kind invitation and I hope you enjoy yourself, but be sure you don't go too fast because the speed cops are still alive out there on the highway. Say, old top, while I'm at it I might as well tell you that I think that you should change your picture at the top of your column. I think you should show yourself in an airplane, as you are showing lots of speed lately getting acquainted with all the nice girls, so you think that it would be a good idea? But then you're not more yet that you haven't got yet and I don't think you ever will because the most of them belong to the R. A. R. And very few ever quit their old standby. And if they do they're blacklisted forever. They all know a good thing when they see it. Well, so long. Business manager, ancient brotherhood of the R. A. R. Thank You All, Kindly The Stroller is thankful to Wilda Ripley, Portland, and "Admirer," also of Portland, and "Willie Munk," Stanfield, and Imogene Luther, Banks, Or., for suggestions for the column heading so kindly submitted, and regret that they are not included, but because they are not worthy, but because with the publication of those already on hand, the "contest" will have closed.

Visiting Nurses' Annual Work Reviewed

By Vella Winner THE annual meeting of the Portland Visiting Nurses association was held Tuesday afternoon at Central library, the president, Mrs. R. G. Dieck, presiding. During the past year 2666 patients have been cared for, 10,492 visits having been made. The visits in the tuberculosis department numbered 3311. Tubercular soldiers numbering 197 men have been under the care of the nurses. Recently a bequest of $2566 was received from Miss Harriet St. John, herself a sufferer from tuberculosis, and a patient of the association, this sum representing the entire savings in the time of her death. These facts were contained in the interesting report made by Mrs. Dieck. Mrs. J. Frank Watson gave the following treasurer's report: Balance on hand, April 1, 1919, $4904.23; receipts, $22,570.80; total, $27,475.11; disbursements, $25,284.35; balance on hand, $2,190.76. The disbursements include the purchase of Victory bonds to the amount of $15,073.33. A gift of the year is a $1000 life insurance policy from Eric V. Hauser. The report of the secretary, Mrs. James B. Kett, who was unable to be present, was read by Mrs. Robert J. Marsh. Mrs. Carlton B. Swift, a new member of the board, was elected for three years. Members elected for the year were: Mrs. Kate Mather, Mrs. A. F. Biles, Miss Virginia Wilson, Mrs. J. P. O'Brien and Mrs. J. Frank Watson. Following the business session Mrs. L. P. Hewitt gave a comprehensive talk on the two-month tax levy for the elementary schools, which was favorably received. The annual election of the Oregon branch of the National League of Women Voters, which was to have been held Monday afternoon at Central library, failed in its purpose as there was not a quorum present. The Association of Collegiate Alumnae will hold its annual meeting and luncheon at the University club Saturday at 12:30 p. m. The Reed college senior girls will be guests of the association. Following the business session the little skit "Tea for Three" will be presented under the direction of Miss Aileen Brong, chairman of the dramatic committee. The nominating committee will present the following names for election: President, Mrs. W. H. Thomas; first vice president, Mrs. G. N. Woodley; second vice president, Mrs. H. L. Geary; secretary, Mrs. W. S. Kirkpatrick; treasurer, Miss Louise Jones; councilor, Mrs. Forrest Fisher; member of executive committee, Miss Zulma Kostomlatzky. Mrs. Edith Knight-Hill will be speaker at the Portland Business Women's club Thursday at 12:19 in the Oregon building dining room. Her subject will be "Why Business Women Should Vote for the Higher Education Relief Measure." Mrs. Thomas Sharp will be chairman. The Eugene branch of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae met yesterday. Dr. Chester D. Carlisle of the United States public health service, director of the state survey of the cases of mental deficiency, delinquency and feeble-mindedness, being conducted through the extension division of the University of Oregon, addressed the association. A nominating committee was appointed to report at the next meeting and plans were also made for the May picnic.

It has been suggested that clubwomen all over the state take the position of election clerks in the special election on May 21, and give the money for this work to the women's building fund, either as individual gifts or for the credit of their local clubs. This position brings about $3 or $4 a day for each clerk, and should the plan be generally carried out it would bring in thousands of dollars for the fund. It would also bring the election to the attention of women voters, who should all be present and vote for the millage tax, which will bring relief to the Oregon Normal school, the Oregon Agricultural college and the state university. Presidents have been asked to appoint a committee to take charge of this work on May 21.

The swimming class of the Community Service Girls' club will meet Wednesday from 4 until 6 p. m. in the Y. W. C. A. pool, Miss Lillian Hansen, instructor. From 6:45 until 7:45, the class in aesthetic and folk dancing will meet in the gymnasium, with Mrs. Elnora Fleck as instructor. Mrs. Grace W. Wilmot, who is representing the government, will lecture in Central library Friday, at 2 p. m., on "Interior Decoration," her lecture to be illustrated with lantern slides. On Monday Mrs. Wilmot will speak at Central library under the auspices of the Home Economics association, at 4:15 p. m. The Auxiliary to Company E, 162d Infantry, will hold an all day meeting Thursday with Mrs. F. R. Cook, 407 Fourth street north. The monthly meeting of the Oregon Graduate Nurses association will be held at the Central library, room H, tonight at 7:30. At 8 o'clock a member of the faculty of Oregon Agricultural college will talk on the millage tax measure of higher education, which is to be voted on May 21. The announcement of the meeting of the Mount Scott Mental Culture club for Thursday of this week was an error caused by there being five Thursdays in this month. The next meeting will be held May 6.

Big Production Billed for "Hip" Opening Tomorrow

Heralded as the most pretentious ever presented by the Hippodrome theatre and one of the most elaborate girl musical comedy acts that ever visited Portland, "The Junior Mimic World" will open at this playhouse tomorrow. In addition to this feature there will be four other numbers, including two short picture features. There are 17 girls in the "Junior Mimic World," none of them out of their teens. The company includes three sister teams, the Field sisters, the Morley sisters and the Smith sisters, of these Alice Morley is considered of exceptional ability—no beauty—is featured. The act is reputed to be an elegantly costumed and staged production with a wide variety of excellent singing, dancing and imitation as well as comedy and cross-conversation. The girls are chaperoned by the three mothers of the sister performers, who care for their welfare and morals in exactly the same manner that a group of daughters in a well regulated family are controlled. Amusement for the young women is provided as a part of the regular routine and supervision of this is one of the most important duties of the trio of mothers. Though the girls are young the act is by no means a "juvenile" one. In other words the girl may be said to be about "sweet sixteen."

BURGESS' BEDTIME STORIES Peter Rabbit Won't Believe Jenny Wren By Thornton W. Burgess Though you may think another wrong— Be positive that you are right— Don't let your temper get away— And try at least to be polite. JENNY WREN cocked her pert little head on one side as she listened to Peter Rabbit's tale of his narrow escape from the Smiling Pool. Her sharp little eyes snapped. "Why don't you learn to swim. Peter, like your cousin down in the Sunny South," she demanded. "Had he been in your place he would surely have plunged into the Smiling Pool and laughed at Reddy Fox." Peter sat bolt upright with his eyes wide open and in them a funny look of surprise, as he stared up at Jenny Wren. "What are you talking about, Jenny Wren?" he demanded. "You know very well that no member of the Rabbit family is a good swimmer, and that we never go in the water unless it is to cross the Laughing Brook when there is no other way of getting to the other side, or we are driven into the water by an enemy from whom there is no other way of escape. I can swim a little if I have to but you don't catch me in the water when I can stay on land. What is more, you won't find any other members of my family doing such a thing." "Tut, tut, tut, tut, tut!" scolded Jenny Wren. "Tut, tut, tut, tut!" For a fellow so curious about his neighbors you know mighty little about your own family. If I were in your place I would learn all there is to learn about my own relatives before I became curious about my neighbors. How many relatives have you, Peter?" "One," replied Peter promptly. "My big cousin, Jumper the Hare." "What a name! You never hear of a Hare named Jumper?" demanded Jenny Wren. "Yes, you know very well that Jumper is the only cousin I have." Jenny Wren laughed harder than ever. "Peter!" she rasped. "You will be the death of me. Why, down in the Sunny South where I spent the winter you have a cousin who is more closely related to you than Jumper the Hare. What is more, he is almost as fond of the water as Jerry Muskrat. He is called the Marsh Rabbit or Marsh Hare. Many a time I have watched him swim about. I know him almost as well as I know you." "I don't believe it!" Peter declared angrily. "I don't believe a word of it. You are simply trying to stuff me, Jenny
