THRIFT and WAR SAVINGS STAMPS on Sale at Business Office, The Journal

Minstrel Show Planned - A minstrel show, planned and acted by 14 members of the crew of the Peninsula Lumber company's sawmill, will be the attraction at the "4 L" entertainment to be staged in Portland Social Turner hall.

Pay-up Day Success - Pay-up day at Reed college netted the student treaturer about $250, the Quest manager about $77 and the senior taxgatherer $75. Financially speaking, the pay-up day greeted by the student council was a success, and student finances are on a sound basis for the remainder of the year, according to Hazel Murray, who is student exchequer for all Reed activities. The student council will deal with cases of recalcitrants who can pay their student debts and refuse to do so.

Signal Rocket Display - A vivid demonstration of the use of signal rockets in the United States army will be given by the United States recruiting office at Council Crest park Saturday evening. Beginning at 8:30 o'clock, methods used on the battlefield in France to signal troops at night will be reproduced on Portland's mountain top, from which the display will be visible to all Portland and a large section of Oregon and Washington.

Theological Library - 301 Central building, Tenth and Alder. Open daily to the public from 1:00 to 4:30 p. m., except Sunday. "Divine Knowledge or Science? There is No Religion Higher Than Truth." Reconciles all religious sects and nations under a common system of ethics, based on eternal verities. Aims to lead to the relief of human suffering, both moral and physical. Read "Man and His Body," "Life After Death," "At the Feet of the Master," "Light on the Path," and "Five Years of Theosophy." For further information address Librarian - Ady Hartley, Klesendahl and Marshall, 307 Journal building - Ady.

Major W. S. Gilbert will deliver an address Friday, April 30, at Multnomah camp No. 77, Woodmen of the World hall, 112 East Sixth street, corner East Alder, at which time the service flag with 222 stars will be retired. The High School Glee club, under the direction of R. B. Walsh, will furnish two selections. Special musical program arranged. The Honorable Fred J. Johnson will speak in behalf of the folks at home. All members of the Woodmen of the World, their families and friends are invited - Ady.

Girls' Conference Called - The Multnomah county girls' conference will meet Friday afternoon and evening in Westminster Presbyterian church, Seventeenth and Schuyler streets. The afternoon session is at 3:30 and the evening session at 7:30. A "spot-luck" luncheon will be served. The conference is being held under direction of the Multnomah County Sunday School association. Girls of high school age and their teachers will take part. Prominent women and officers in the girls' conference will make addresses.

Dr. Smith to Address City Club - Proposed federal and state legislation of vital concern to the business interests of the nation will be discussed by Dr. C. J. Smith at a meeting of the City club in the crystal room of the Benson hotel Friday noon. This will be the annual meeting of the club and nominations will be made for president, two vice presidents, secretary, treasurer and two governors. Names of 39 new members will be voted on at the meeting, and early in May will return to Michigan to resume the practice of law.

Discusses Oregon Scenery - A. G. Jackson, forest examiner, spoke at Reed college this morning on the protection and use of Oregon forests. Jackson illustrated his lecture with lantern slides of Oregon scenery, which rival the natural beauty of any district in America, and his talk was instructive as well as inspiring through the accompanying illustrations.

Fire Starts on Streetcar - Defective wiring caused the Broder heights streetcar to catch fire about 8:15 o'clock Wednesday night at the Gastropark terminal. Engine 29 and track 4 responded after Motorman F. J. Buehler pulled a fire alarm box. Damage was small. No passengers were on the car at the time.

Dry League Official Resigns - Edwin Rawden, superintendent of the Oregon Anti-Saloon league for the past two and a half years, has resigned this position and early in May will return to Michigan to resume the practice of law. Rawden has been engaged in Anti-Saloon league work for over five years and now desires to return to his professional work.

Warren Bruised by Fall - W. Warren, aged 38, fell 12 feet off the side of a building at Park and Couch streets Wednesday and was severely bruised. No bones were broken, according to a report from Dr. Samuel A. Franklin. Warren resides at 372 East Clay street.

Art Lecture Postponed - The lecture by G. H. Cheney on "Michelangelo and the Renaissance in Europe," which was arranged for Friday afternoon at the Art museum, has been postponed until Friday, May 7, at 4:15. This is the last lecture in the series for teachers.

Out Too Late - Mark Wilson, aged 37, and William Burnish were arrested early this morning at Twenty-first and Division streets by Patrolman Penning. They were charged with being out after hours and are being held for investigation.

Taxation to be Discussed - Prominent members of the legal fraternity and heavy property owners in the city have been enlisted to speak on the problems presented by increased taxation at the Friday noon luncheon of the Portland Realty board. The luncheon will be held in the grill room of the Portland hotel. Another set of speakers will tackle the housing shortage problem and consequent profiteering in rents. Proposed remedies for both evils will be presented for discussion. The meeting opens at 12:15 and closes promptly at 1:30 p. m.

Veterans Meet Tonight - The second meeting to complete the organization of the veterans of the 162d United States infantry (old Third Oregon plus) will be held at the Army tonight. All members wherever situated are invited to attend, or send word to have their names on the roll. There will be several attractive features on the program.

A NEW BRUNSWICK OF BEAUTIFUL DESIGN --- $150
Newest of Brunswick designs, the Style 110 pictured here is meeting with a most enthusiastic welcome among lovers of the beautiful in tone and in appearance as well.
In all its features—the ability to play the records of all artists and all manufactures perfectly, in the molded wood simplifying chamber and in the larger and more powerful motor—it is distinctly Brunswick.
Tone, the real essential, is of great resonance and naturalness—truthful in its quality and bringing forth all that is stored within the record. One hearing will convince you of its superior quality.

Clothes Versus Prices
THE question of value received for prices paid can be settled successfully only when the merchant earns and holds the confidence of his customer.
My experience in the clothing business has been long and tried. I offer it as your guarantee that the price you pay will show in the goods delivered.

"The Store That Undersells Because It Sells for Cash"
Come Visit Our Store Friday
It Will Be Our 1016th Bargain Friday Sale
The most for the least money—that is the idea that is foremost in the minds of all today. That is what makes the competition so strong among the different businesses today. That's exactly what you get at this store. And this is the answer to the question of why we can do it. We operate on a strictly cash basis. We buy in tremendous quantities for cash, thereby securing rock bottom prices. Then our savings are passed along to you for "as we buy, so do we sell." We believe in small profits and a large volume of business, but our guarantee is back of everything we sell, a guarantee that has no string attached. Your money back if you are in the least dissatisfied. That's the way we do a cash business.
