Junior week-end, a new institution at Reed college, will be on the boards Friday and Saturday, and events have been planned for Portland high school men in addition to the social and athletic program which will include Reed students and their invited guests.

Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock Dr. H. B. Torrey of the Reed faculty will fire the starting gun for the first heat in the quadrangular track meet. The athletes of Franklin, Lincoln, Washington and Jefferson high schools will engage their traditional rivalry in 12 events, and two silver cups and an individual medal will be at stake.

Young Vanderbilt's Bride Receives Gifts Totalling a Million

New York, April 29.—(U. S. S.)—A magnificent array of gifts, particularly jewels, the total value of which will exceed $1,000,000, has been received by Miss Rachel Littleton, whose marriage today to Cornelius Vanderbilt Jr., will be one of the gala events New York society has seen in years.

Five thousand invitations have been issued for the ceremony at St. Thomas church, Fifth avenue and Fifty-third street. Seven hundred persons, the elite of New York society, will attend the reception to the bride couple at the Vanderbilt mansion later.

Poles Defeat Reds In Offensive and Capture Prisoners

London, April 29.—(U. P.)—Polish troops, advancing against the Russian Bolsheviks in Volhynia and Podolia, have sent out aircraft which bombed the important city of Kieff, killing 10 and wounding 14 persons, a Moscow wireless dispatch today said.

Pier Bars Beggars During Conventions

Beggars will not be allowed to operate on Portland streets during June, announced City Commissioner Pier on Wednesday, who asserted that no permits to mendicants would be granted between May 30 and July 1. The unfavorable impression that might be given to throngs of visitors in the city during the various conventions is given as the reason for denial of the permits.

1000 Girls Will Form Chorus for Festival Week

Formation of a chorus of 1000 girls' voices to be heard during the Rose Festival and the Shrine convention at the Auditorium is now under way by the city under the direction of George D. Ingram.

MAYOR'S DISMISSAL OF O'HALLORAN IS OFFICIALLY UPHOLD

Mayor Baker's discharge of Motorcyclist John O'Halloran for alleged negligence in handling Wayne Cason, who was killed in the police station by discharge of a revolver, was sustained Wednesday afternoon in a hearing before the municipal civil service board.

Civil Service Commissioners John F. Logan and R. H. Thomas voted to sustain the discharge, while Commissioner George C. Mason cast a negative vote. The mayor's order of discharge was confirmed by the civil service board for "the good of the service," according to Logan and Thomas.

Dan Powers, who acted for O'Halloran, summoned numerous witnesses who testified in various ways to the fight which ensued in the lobby of the police station prior to the killing of Cason. O'Halloran testified that he had struck Cason with his sap in an effort to aid a brother officer, who appeared to be in danger of serious injury. O'Halloran asserted that he attempted to hit Cason on a cord in the shoulder, in an effort to paralyze his arm temporarily, but in so doing he accidentally struck him on the head.

Captain Inskip testified that O'Halloran had been on the force for three years and was a competent, well-behaving officer. Hearing of Patrolman John A. Holden, who claims that he was discharged after the expiration of his six months' probationary period following temporary appointment, was continued to a later date, which will be agreed upon by Deputy City Attorney Tomlinson and Allan R. Joy, acting for Holden.

Henny, Reed Senior, Gets Fellowship in California Institute

George C. Henny, a Reed college senior, will hold a $750 fellowship at the California Institute of Technology. The news came to Reed in a letter from Professor R. A. Millikan, head of the physics department at the California institute, who visited Reed a month ago. Dr. Millikan became interested in Henny's work at Reed, which is under the guidance of Dr. A. A. Knowlton, head of the Reed physics department, and a letter came a few days ago offering a fellowship which will require, but two afternoons a week of elementary teaching.

Henny has been prominent in Reed student activities, and he has achieved remarkable scholastic results as well. At Throop institute, he will have plenty of chance to engage in research work, and he will be in company with Ray Wilson and Milton Borohoff, Reed graduates who are now in California on similar fellowships in the department of chemistry. Henny's summer vacations have been spent at sea as wireless operator, and his Reed experiments have included wireless work of an advanced sort.

Extremists Planning May 1 Demonstration

Washington, April 29.—(U. S. S.)—Demonstrations by extremists and advocates of "direct action" are planned for all of the large industrial centers of the United States, May day, Saturday, according to officials of the department of justice.

LIVE MEET AHEAD FOR DEMOCRATS

Saturday's meeting of the Democratic state central committee, called for the purpose of electing a chairman to succeed Harvey Starkweather, resigned to become a candidate for United States senator, promises to be one of the most largely attended in recent Democratic political history if responses to the call recently sent out are any indication.

Democrats over the state generally, those friendly to Senator Chamberlain and those who have been taking no part in the Chamberlain and anti-Chamberlain fight as well, seem not at all pleased with the program of opposition outlined by ex-Postmaster Myers, Starkweather, County Chairman Hamaker, Mrs. Alexander Thompson, R. A. Miller, Newton McCoy and one or two others. They are particularly out of sympathy with the use of the name of the state central committee by Starkweather and Mrs. Thompson in the furtherance of their own candidacies, contrary to the usual practice which demands that the state committee be neutral during primary campaigns.

MYERS WARNING UNHEEDED

Generally, the opposition of ex-Postmaster Myers and his cohorts to the candidacy of Senator Chamberlain is being given very serious consideration, based as it is on the disgruntlement of Myers at the loss of his job and the fact that Senator Chamberlain did not heed the demand which resulted upon his statement for Myers the latter would oppose his renomination and reelection.

This general attitude is due in large part to the underlying fact that the discharge of Myers from the postmastership grew out of an investigation demanded, in the first instance by Myers himself, in an effort to secure the retirement of Assistant Postmaster Durand, a demand which reacted upon himself and brought about his own removal by the postmaster general and President Wilson.

CHAMBERLAIN OUT OF IT

The Myers opposition is still further negated by the wide knowledge of the fact that Myers wanted Senator Chamberlain and various of his close friends in Portland that if the senator would move actively to prevent his removal, or to secure his reinstatement, he would support him for renomination, otherwise he would oppose him; a combined promise and threat issued in the face of the fact that Senator Chamberlain had no jurisdiction over the resignation of Myers, one way or the other under the presidential order removing the first class postmasterships from political connection and putting them entirely under civil service regulations.

When the state central committee meets at the Portland hotel Saturday it is expected that a successor to Chairman Starkweather will be elected, other than J. D. Brown, who was appointed to the position by Starkweather. The law provides that in case of the resignation of a state chairman the committee shall elect his successor, and this not having been done, it is considered that Brown has no legal title to the position and is not state chairman either in law or in fact.

JOHNSON WILL DEMAND RECOUNT OF N. J. VOTE

nearily equally between the formally presented candidates, Senator Warren G. Harding and Major General Leonard Wood. The Harding vote was largely anti-Wood, according to experts, and the Wood vote was entirely anti-Harding, with little devotion to the military candidate. Harding's general manager, Harry M. Daugherty, saw the primary as a vindication of the candidate of Ohio. It was a remarkable victory for Senator Harding in Ohio and we must consider the fact that there was a very light vote, that no money was used for bill board advertising and no money was used in the results yesterday in Massachusetts, New Jersey, Ohio, everybody can now see that General Wood's nomination is impossible. We are well satisfied with the result and will now go forth with the assurance that the nation will ratify Ohio's choice.

LATER OHIO RETURNS GIVE HARDING LITTLE MORE LEAD

Columbus, Ohio, April 29.—(U. S. S.)—Complete unofficial returns from 83 out of 88 counties and partial returns from the other five show that Senator Warren G. Harding carried Tuesday's presidential preference election in Ohio by a plurality of about 17,000 over Major General Leonard Wood. The vote was, Harding 123,884 and Wood 117,220. A slight increase in Harding's plurality is expected when the returns from the 47 precincts in Brown, Clermont, Columbus, Miami and Williams counties, as yet unrecorded, are heard from. The final count will probably show the 48 delegates going to the Chicago convention aligned as follows: Harding 40. According to the unofficial returns, Senator Harding will have three out of the four delegates at large. Present indications are that the national chairman, H. M. Daugherty, has been defeated by W. H. Boyd of Cleveland.

WOOD GETS PART OF IDAHO'S REPUBLICAN DELEGATION

(By United Press Service) Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, April 29.—The Republican state convention split 50-50 in the selection of its delegates to the national convention here Wednesday, naming four recognized Wood delegates and four unpledged but close friends of Senator Borah, who heads the delegation. Hart, national committeeman, was kept from getting before the convention. LAD'S TESTIMONY IS MAN'S UNDOING

The testimony of a rugged, corduroy clad 11-year-old mountain lad today caused F. A. Hurst to be bound over to the federal grand jury, following a hearing before United States Commissioner Drake, on a charge of stealing government property from a forest ranger's cabin high in the Coast Range mountains.

Unflinching before the sometimes intricately worded questions of Deputy United States Attorney Lusk and those of counsel for Hurst, the lad, Lawrence Brown, found ready answers and uttered them in a clear, straightforward manner that surprised court attaches and the usual commissioner's court audience.

Major Booth attempted to get a motion before the convention to the effect that the delegates to the national convention be instructed to vote for B. M. Holt of Caldwell for national committeeman. He was indorsed by the ex-soldier delegates, who have been fighting Hart because of his removal from the draft exemption board on the grounds that cases of his sons came before that body and none of them were drafted. A point of order was made against the motion and sustained by the chair. Senator Hart started to reply to the motion, but when his own cries came from over the hall from his friends not to do so.

ARKANSAS DELEGATES TO SUPPORT LOWDEN

Little Rock, Ark., April 29.—The Arkansas Republican convention has instructed its delegates to support Governor Lowden of Illinois as first choice for president in the national convention at Chicago. In the event the Illinois governor cannot secure the nomination, the delegates were instructed to "vote as they see fit."

Governor Lowden is popular in Arkansas. He owns large tracts of land here and has made many visits to the state. Senator Johnson of California has many friends among Progressive Republicans. No Arkansas delegate will be sent to the national convention from Arkansas. A negro delegate to the state convention from Pulaski county was not seated. The negroes said they would take their fight for recognition to the floor of the national convention. A complete state ticket was nominated, with Wallace Townsend as a candidate for governor. Charles Cole of Batesville was nominated as candidate for the United States senate.

WOOD CONCEDED VICTORY IN NEW JERSEY PRIMARY

Hoboken, N. J., April 28.—Senator Hiram Johnson has captured 11 of the 23 delegates in the New Jersey presidential primary, but General Leonard Wood's victory in the preferential vote is conceded by William H. Dan Sutherland has been nominated by the Republicans as delegate to congress. He will be opposed by George B. Briggs, Democrat.

Juneau, Alaska, April 29.—(U. S. S.)—With a lead of 608 votes, on incomplete returns, John C. McBride of this city is practically certain today of defeating Charles Herron for the Republican selection for national committeeman from this territory. T. M. Reed of Noms and George Hazelet of Cordova are leading delegates to the Chicago convention. Dan Sutherland has been nominated by the Republicans as delegate to congress. He will be opposed by George B. Briggs, Democrat.

J. Ham Lewis Favors Powerful Alliance For Future Peace

Meridian, Miss., April 29.—(U. S. S.)—Formation of the United States, Canada, Australia, New Zealand and all the nations of South America into a continental alliance of the western world was advocated by Former United States Senator James Hamilton Lewis in an address given today as the guest of honor of the Mississippi Bar association.

"With these nations in a western continental peace alliance, we shall be able to confront the sure coming combination of Germany, Russia and Japan marching against the United States, Canada and the Australias, and for the invasion of South America," said Lewis. "Such a plan forces approval from Great Britain in order to protect Canada and Australia. The Latin countries of Europe would be bound to the pact by blood ties with the people of Latin America."

New York, April 29.—(U. S. S.)—John D. Rockefeller Jr. today added a gift of $4,000,000 in the name of his mother to the New World Movement of Northern Baptists. The oil magnate previously contributed a personal gift of $2,000,000. The larger sum is given in the name of the Laura Spellman-Rockefeller memorial fund. The $4,000,000 gift is half outright and half conditional. The first conditional million is credited to the movement when it reaches $2,500,000 and the second when the fund totals $4,500,000. The Baptists have raised $2,500,000 to date for a survey of mission needs.

Woman Slain Each Week by Bluebeard; Find Twenty Heads

Cairo, Egypt, April 29.—Discovery of the heads of 20 women in a house in the town of Tuna has revealed the existence of whose crimes is stirring the whole country.

This human monster, it appears, visited women of good families to entice him in his house on the pretext that he would introduce them to wealthy admirers with the view to marriage. None of the women ever came back from his home.

In inviting the women, "Bluebeard" urged them to make themselves as attractive as possible and put on their most precious fineries and jewels. Once he had them in his grasp, he took all these things and murdered the women, burning their bodies but not the heads. He committed one such crime weekly until inquiries by sorrowing relatives led to the Tanta murder house, whereupon the criminal fled. He is described as a handsome adventurer with a flowing beard. He is still at large.
