

U. S. TO BE ASKED TO AID IN WAR ON DISEASE OF COWS

Salem, April 29.—In order to expedite the work of federal experts engaged in the eradication of bovine tuberculosis in this state, the federal department of agriculture will be asked to secure from the war department a number of automobiles under conditions similar to those by which the state highway department has been able to secure automobiles and trucks for highway work.

Decision to ask for these trucks was reached at a conference between Dr. W. H. Lytle, Oregon state veterinarian, and Dr. L. C. Belton, assistant commissioner of agriculture for the state of Washington, at Portland, Tuesday. Lack of the automobiles is a great handicap in the work which the federal agents are doing in this state, Lytle explains, and there is no fund available through which the state can purchase the same, hence the request to the war department.

Captain Conrad Staffin, retiring adjutant general of Oregon, is highly commended for the economy and efficiency which have characterized his administration of the military affairs of the state, in a letter forwarded by Governor Olcott, Wednesday, acknowledging receipt of Staffin's final report.

Miss Pauline Kline of Corvallis will be reappointed as a member of the board of inspectors of child labor when her present term expires, May 21. Governor Olcott announced Wednesday.

Astoria Fishermen Plan Big Operations When Season Opens

Astoria, April 29.—Approximately 2500 gillnet and fishing boats will be in operation when the spring fishing season opens on the Columbia river Saturday. In the vicinity of Baker's bay, near Ilwaco and Chinook, will be more than the usual number of traps, due to it is said to the belief that the freshest in the river this spring will not seriously interfere with their operation. A number of the seine grounds will open earlier than usual, it is said. The packers will meet within a few days to consider the prices set by the fishermen's union, 14 and 16 cents a pound for chinooks, with the dividing line fixed at 25 pounds.

Roseburg Hospital Has Its Fourth Fire In Last Two Years

Roseburg, April 29.—The fourth fire at Mercy hospital in two years occurred Wednesday and was the most disastrous. The 16 patients were removed to safety without injury, though firemen suffered slight burns. The fires have all occurred in the attic and have burned away most of the roof. In February a similar fire occurred while the building was filled with patients. By heroic effort of the townspeople all were saved without injury.

The building was a mass of flames Wednesday when the fire was discovered and it took the firemen fully two hours to subdue the blaze. The damage is estimated at from $2500 to $4000. Water did as much damage as the fire. After a thorough inspection of the flues and electrical wiring when the hospital was rebuilt in February, it was pronounced without the slightest defect.

PAUL V. MARIS IS NAMED EXTENSION DIRECTOR AT O. A. C.

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, April 29.—Paul V. Maris, state leader of county agriculturists, has been appointed director of the Oregon Agricultural college extension service by President W. J. Kerr and the board of regents. He will fill the place made vacant last October by the resignation of Director O. D. Center, who became director of extension for McLean county, Illinois, at an advance salary of $1400.

Maris was born and raised in Oregon, his early years having been spent on a stock ranch in Morrow county near Heppner, famous for its prize winning Shorthorn cattle. He was graduated from Pacific college, Newberg, and took agricultural work in the Universities of Wisconsin and Missouri. Farm bureau work has done much toward putting farming in Oregon on a strictly business basis since 1918, when Maris was made state leader of county agriculturists.

"It shall be my object to unite all the forces of the agricultural college and United States department of agriculture operating through the extension service."

for the most rapid development of agriculture and rural life in Oregon," said Maris. "We are fortunate in being united, through the several county farm bureaus of the state, with the best element of our agricultural population and are just beginning to realize the potential possibilities that lie in this union of farm people and state and federal agencies."
