THIRIFT and WAR SAVING STAMPS on Sale at Business Office, The Journal

Sacred Cantata Sunday-The large chorus at Central Presbyterian church. East Thirteenth and Pine streets, will render DuBois' sacred cantata, "Seven Last Words of Christ," on Sunday evening.

COMING! PAUL ELLSWORTH Author of DIRECT HEALING and other books will give a course of eight lessons on Divine Psychology, Spiritual Healing and Personal Efficiency in Portland, beginning Sunday, May 2. Lessons 1 and 11 will be held in the Portland Hotel Assembly Room-Sunday, May 2 11 A. M. AND 8 P. M.

OPEN FREELY TO ALL THE MORNING LECTURE will explain such points as why "affirmation" leads where "suggestion" fails-how to use Cosmic receptivity to build health, personality and success; what Spiritual induction is, and how it secures results.

THE EVENING LECTURE will describe in detail the Six Master Principles in attaining perfection; the three laws of expression; the principle of diversification; unconscious cerebration; and Divine Initiative.

Mr. Ellsworth's many students in the United States, in Canada and in Europe testify that his teachings combine philosophy, metaphysics and modern science in a way which is unusually harmonious and practical. He has been called "The man who makes you think-and live!"

The Portland lectures will be given under the auspices of THE COMFORTER CENTER FULL ANNUAL MEETING AT THE SUNDAY MEETINGS

ing, May 2, at 7:30. The evening of Palm Sunday this great cantata will be given by the choir and so many requests have been made that it be repeated that J. William Belcher, the director, has consented to give it a second performance. Belcher has had charge of the music for the past two years at Central and the chorus is considered the best in the city. There will be 10 to 15 vocal soloists. Mrs. Evelyn Ewart McNary is organist, Mrs. L. W. Waldorf violinist, Frank A. Douglas pianist. At the recent reading of this cantata scores were turned away. A large audience is expected for Sunday evening.

Right to Make Deductions-District Attorney Evans has advised the county commissioners that Multnomah county has a legal right to make deductions for depreciation on the Interstate bridge, in making remittances to the state from profits of operating the bridge. The commissioners will present to the state a demand for such credit. The original arrangement provided that 75 per cent of the net profits must be paid to the state as reimbursement for sums deducted by Multnomah county from taxes due the state until the amount of such deductions was fully made up.

Dr. Downing Gives Clinics-Dr. E. M. Downing of York, Pa., an official of the Chicago research institute of Chicago, spent Wednesday in the city demonstrating clinics before the Portland Osteopathic society, the occasion of the monthly meeting arranged by the Western Osteopathic association. The meeting was well attended by osteopaths of Portland and surrounding cities. It was followed by a banquet at Hotel Bess. The speaker at the meeting will be "A Systematic Method of General Diagnosis," presented by Dr. C. B. Atzen of Omaha, Neb.

Major W. S. Gilbert will deliver an address Friday, April 30, at Multnomah camp No. 77, Woodmen of the World hall, 112 East Sixth street, corner East Alder, at which time the service flag stars will be retired. Franklin High School Glee club, under the direction of R. B. Walsh, will furnish two selections. Special musical program arranged. The Honorable Fred J. Johnson will speak in behalf of the Woodmen of the World, their families and friends are invited.-Adv.

Insurance Men Confer-A luncheon and conference of agents and officials of the National Life Insurance company in Oregon was held at the Multnomah hotel at noon today. H. M. Cutler, vice president, and E. D. Field, superintendent of agencies of the company, arrived Thursday from the headquarters office at Montpelier, Vt., and were guests of honor. The two visiting officials were taken for a drive over the Columbia River highway Thursday afternoon and will visit Oregon City today.

To Entertain Their Parents-The high school Bible class of Mizpah Presbyterian church, numbering 25 boys and girls, will entertain their fathers and mothers in the church parlors Saturday evening. This class is taught by the pastor, the Rev. D. A. Thompson. It has recently undertaken the full care of an Armenian child. Last Saturday new members were entertained at a similar gathering.

Poles and Piling Sold-Assistant District Forester Fred Amos has announced the sale of 10,000 poles and piling on 210 acres of Kerry creek watershed in the Colville national forest to J. T. Taylor of Orient, Wash. Prices paid ranged from one half cent per lineal foot for poles 25 feet long and six inches at the top to 1 1/2 cents for 60 foot, 8-inch poles.

Resume Salvation Army Work Here-Colonel Brengle, his daughter, Envy Elizabeth and Captain Bouterse have resumed Salvation Army work in Portland. They were welcomed at a meeting of Army workers Tuesday evening with supper and interesting program. The opening meeting of the Salvation Army revival campaign attracted much attention among workers. It was attended by Adjutant Marburg of Chicago and Majors Harris and Bree also assisted. The revival will continue through the week, closing Sunday evening at Salvation Army hall, First and Alder streets.

Woman Gets Hearing-Mrs. Laura Kennedy, recently discharged stenographer in the office of the civil service board for alleged incompatibility with superiors and subordinates, will be given a hearing before Mayor Baker on May 3 at 10 a. m. in the council chambers of the city hall. Numerous witnesses will be summoned by Deputy City Attorney Tomlinson who will handle the city's case.
