ARCH ENEMY OF CIGARETTE STILL IN PRESIDENTIAL RING

By Alexander F. Jones,
United News Staff Correspondent

Chicago, May 5.—Lest some of the palpitating electorate forget in the stress of the hectic moment that Lucy Page Gaston, the brains of the Cigarette league, is still a candidate for president of the United States, we hasten to call their attention to the fact that Miss Gaston's hat—a brand new spring hat with finicky little dewdads setting off her Lincolnesque profile in a particularly piquant manner—is still in the ring.

SHE IS ASTOUNDED

"Dou you mean to sit there and tell me that Wayne B. Wheeler of the Anti-Saloon league has said that his organization will not support me because I have no great moral issue at stake?" she asked.

"Well, "I certainly am surprised," she said. "I am more than surprised, I am deeply pained. Of course I am not asking for the support of the Anti-Saloon league, although I thought they were very friendly, but for him to say that I have no great moral issue at stake! Dear me."

SEES GREAT MORAL ISSUE

"What in the world can he mean?" she puzzled, half to herself. "If cigarette smoking isn't a great moral issue then I am a much mistaken woman—and I am not. Cigarette smoking is as detrimental to health as is excessive use of liquor.

"And as for morals—well, if cigarette smoking is not immoral then why do all our dramatists and movie scenario writers picture all their vampires and villains and loose wives and looser husbands and white slavers smoking cigarettes?

VILLAIN SMOKES CIGARETTES

"What does a villain in the movies do before he steals the papers? He goes to the buffet and pours himself a drink, lights a cigarette, buttons his overcoat tighter about his neck and slinks into the night. Isn't that true? It certainly is. For heaven'ssake, a cigarette denotes depravity and degeneracy just as much as that drink."

But a word must be added about Miss Gaston's political machine.

"I am beginning to realize that I will not have a single delegate at the convention," she said. "But I will not be alone after the first couple of ballots. Just the same I will poll a great vote.

STILL HAS HOPES

"It may surprise you but thousands of men who have been saved from being slaves of nicotine by Lucy Page Gaston, who pinned the anti-cigarette button on them when they were little boys, will walk to the polls next November with me in mind.

"These men and thousands of women who know what I have done for their sons and husbands constitute my militante. It is the great army of righteousness. Bryan has fought through years of great odds to victory and so will I."

Here the candidate broke into uproarious laughter. She giggled like a matinee girl.

"I was thinking of some of these man candidates," she chuckled.

STRADDLERS GET SWAT

"Aren't they awfully funny the way they straddle the fence. At least I don't do that. You know where I stand."

Then passing from the ridiculous to the sublime, she said:

"You will yet live to see Broadway cabarets and glittering vice dens in all cities, filled with young people gloriously excited over spelling bees and beneficial lyceum programs and the cigarette the immoral outlaw that it is.

"Glory be," said the impressed listener.

"Amen," said Lucy Page Gaston.

JOHNSON VOTE IN CALIFORNIA GROWS

votes. Senator Johnson piled up an enormous majority in the northern half of the state. On the face of the best available returns he carried San Francisco, city and county, by 42,000; Alameda county by 23,000, Sacramento county by 9000 and San Joaquin county by 7500. Other northern counties were carried from 2 to 1 to 4 to 1.

Hoover's greatest strength was shown in Southern California, Los Angeles, city and county, polled an extremely heavy vote and early today the result was in doubt. Out of 1275 precincts, 663 showed Johnson leading by about 1600 votes. The tally stood: Johnson 40,403, Hoover 38,737. Johnson headquarters claims Los Angeles by at least 1000.

HALF OF VOTE CAST

The primary election brought out about half of the registered vote of the state. Johnson's greatest primary victory in the state heretofore had been scored by 48,276, when he beat Charles Curry for the Republican nomination for governor.

H. L. Carnahan, Western manager for Johnson, in a statement issued today declared:

"Hiram Johnson has scored the greatest triumph in the history of California politics. He has defeated Herbert Hoover by more than 100,000 votes, more than he ever defeated any other man who opposed him in a primary election in this state.

"Hoover's opposition in California has served the one useful purpose of demonstrating to the country how thoroughly Hiram Johnson's achievements are appreciated by his own people. His indorsement comes from every interest—business men, working men and farmers, women in like proportions with the men. They have given expression to their opinion."

STRAUS DECLARES ROOSEVELT WANTED LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Oscar S. Straus, intimate friend of the late Theodore Roosevelt, secretary of commerce and labor and ambassador to Turkey during the Roosevelt administration, and the Progressive candidate for governor in New York in 1912, has sent the following telegram to the editor of the San Francisco Chronicle, a Johnson supporter, which has in turn been given out for publication by the Hoover headquarters:

"I understand the supporters of Hiram Johnson claim that in his opposition to the League of Nations with the Lodge reservations or in any form Johnson represents the position and ideals of Theodore Roosevelt. Permit me, for the information of the people of California and in justice to Roosevelt, to state that any such claim is without foundation. The fact is that Roosevelt was not only in favor of a League of Nations but was the first among the world's foremost statesmen in our generation who advocated a strong League of Nations or League of Peace. In his Nobel prize address in Christiania on May 5, 1910, he said: 'It would be a master stroke if those great powers honestly bent on peace should form a League of Peace not only to keep the peace among themselves but to prevent by force if necessary its being broken by others.'

"When the League to Enforce Peace was formed at first he did not approve it, believing that its proposal for the use of force was not sufficiently effective. Subsequently before his last illness, when the amended provisions were explained to him, he approved of the league and so stated to me and also, if I mistake not, so stated to Taft. On December 21, 1918, I sought his advice regarding my going to Paris as European chairman of the league for the purpose of advocating a League of Nations. He emphatically advised me to go. The foregoing facts I feel justify me in saying that he would have approved a strong League of Nations with power to enforce its decisions and that Johnson's violent opposition to a league in any form does not represent the views of the visioned and immortal Roosevelt."

G. O. P. CANDIDATES QUERIED ON PUBLIC LAND QUESTIONS

Eugene, May 5.—Representative Louis E. Bean of this city, candidate for renomination to the legislature on the Republican ticket, is forwarding to each of the Republican candidates for the presidency a set of pointed questions as to their position and policy regarding the disposition of the public lands of Oregon. Statistics have been compiled by Bean and placed before the candidates, showing that more than one half the total area of Oregon is included in forest reserves or unappropriated public lands, which, if assessed on a like basis with private-owned lands would produce approximately $2,000,000 in revenue.

He goes on to show that the state feels keenly that it is being discriminated against by the permanent withdrawal of these public lands and that it is not on an equal footing with other states. He asserts that the people of Oregon will be pleased to know whether the candidates approve of this policy of permanent government ownership for the benefit of future generations; whether they will favor the "just and equal compensation of the state by direct federal appropriation or otherwise in lieu of the right of taxation"; whether they will favor the turning over of these lands to the states to be administered by them under proper legislation, or the policy now advocated by some, of the further extension and enlargement of the forest reserves; whether they will approve the policy of extending federal control over private owned timber lands, as advocated by some officials of the forestry department.

JOHNSON'S MAJORITY OVER HOOVER STILL PILING UP

San Francisco, May 5.—(U. P.)—Johnson has swept Alameda county by a better than 2 to 1 vote. With all but 14 of the 425 precincts counted complete, the vote is, Johnson 49,813, Hoover 23,387, giving Johnson a majority of 25,826. The Democrats polled 1973 votes.

Other towns report as follows:

San Diego—With but 38 small country precincts missing, Johnson carried San Diego county by 1075. He carried San Diego city complete by 948. San Diego city complete gave Johnson 5569, Hoover 4621. San Diego county, 38 precincts missing: Johnson 2100, Hoover 1973.

WILLIAMS GOING TO CHICAGO ON G. O. P. CONVENTION PLANS

Ralph E. Williams, Republican national committeeman for Oregon, will leave for Chicago in the morning to attend the meeting of the committee on arrangements for the convention, of which he is a member. At the conclusion of that meeting he will return to Portland but will return to Chicago June 1 when the full membership of the national committee will meet and remain in session until after the national convention, which convenes June 8.

The pre-convention deliberations of the national committee will be for the purpose of considering possible contests for seats in the convention, and other matters of routine.

The Oregon law makes no provision for the election of alternate delegates as is the case in other states. Under the rules no proxies are permitted, but state delegations are kept filled to their maximum strength by alternate delegates in the event of the absence of the delegates regularly elected.

Williams announces, however, that he has made arrangements by which defeated candidates for district delegates and delegates at large will be seated as alternates up to 10, the numerical strength of the Oregon delegation. Those four who receive the highest number of votes for delegate at large will be lawfully elected as such delegates. Williams has arranged, however, that those four receiving the next highest vote will be seated as alternate delegates at large. In the same way two alternate delegates from each of the three districts will be seated in the convention where they will have all of the privileges of the floor except the right to vote.

MISSOURI REPUBLICANS FAVOR WOOD AND LOWDEN

By Harold D. Jacobs

New York, May 5.—(U. P.)—As Missouri Republicans went into session today to choose 36 delegates at a state convention, certain politicians were congratulating themselves on their astuteness in forecasting the result of yesterday's primaries in Indiana and California.

Acquisition of California's 26 delegates would elevate Johnson to second position in the scramble for instructed delegations. Omitting Indiana's 30 delegates, which are almost certain to be divided, the standing of the Republican candidates to date, as regards instructed delegates, would be:

Wood 120, Johnson 96, Lowden 73, Harding 36, Senator Miles Poindexter 16.

Although Hoover's defeat in his home state appears on the surface to be a severe blow to his chances for the nomination, it has not seriously disarranged the program of his organization. The former food administrator's personal instructions to his friends have been to ignore the primaries and work on delegates already selected to win their second choice support.

Advance information on the Missouri convention indicated an uninstructed delegation, with Wood and Lowden showing the most strength.

EUGENE'S OFFICIAL BALLOTS ARE IN PRINTER'S HANDS

Eugene, May 5.—The matter for the official ballots to be used in the coming special election in the city of Eugene is now in the hands of the printers and includes five measures to be passed upon: Whether the city shall amend its charter so as to permit the acquirement of 100 acres of land for an aviation park, to cost not to exceed $22,000; authorizing bonds to the extent of $15,000 for the construction of a concrete bridge within the city limits; bonds of $25,000 for the purchase of fire fighting equipment; bonds of $10,000 for the improvement of public parks and camping grounds, and bonds of $10,000 for the construction of a soldiers' memorial building.

CALIFORNIA RESULT SHOWS UP HOOVER, SAYS JOHNSON

Harrisburg, Pa., May 5.—(I. N. S.)—"The California primary has not only disposed of Hoover politically in California, but the character of the fight reveals Hoover as Hoover really is, "was the declaration of Senator Hiram Johnson here today.

The California candidate for the Republican nomination for president visited Governor Sproule during a short stay between trains on his way to Washington. He said he had received word from California, that indicated that his majority over Hoover in the primaries yesterday would run between 150,000 and 200,000.

JOHNSON'S FATHER PLEASED OVER CALIFORNIA RESULT

Sacramento, Cal., May 5.—(U. P.)—"I am very happy over the results," said Grove L. Johnson, father of Senator Hiram Johnson, this morning.

After yesterday's excitement, Grove Johnson remained in bed this morning. He is 79 years old.

"California has shown by her vote that she is neither pro-German nor pro-British, but is pro-American," he said.

"I feel confident that the nation will follow California."

WOOD SLIGHTLY INCREASES INDIANA LEAD ON JOHNSON

Indianapolis, Ind., May 5.—(I. N. S.)—General Wood's lead over Senator Johnson in Indiana increased slightly this afternoon, when returns from 2412 precincts gave Wood a plurality of 6821. The figures are:

Wood, 62,947; Johnson, 56,126; Lowden, 28,381; Harding, 15,440.

Kentucky Democrats for Cox

Louisville, Ky., May 5.—(U. P.)—Governor James M. Cox of Ohio will have the support of Kentucky's 26 delegates to the Democratic national convention at San Francisco. The state convention, meeting here, voted just before adjournment early today to send the entire delegation to the coast pledged to the Ohio governor.

Gary Strong for Johnson

Gary, Ind., May 5.—(I. N. S.)—Hiram Johnson carried this city over General Wood, who commanded federal troops here during the steel strike, by a 2644 majority. Johnson polled 4067 votes and Wood 1423.

Astoria Plant to Make Ford Parts, Manager Asserts

Astoria, May 5.—W. A. Viggers of the Astoria Marine Iron works announced Tuesday that he expects to make a contract with the Ford company for manufacturing approximately $300,000 worth of parts for Ford machines.

The automobile company has offered the local concern all the work it can handle in this line for an indefinite period and Viggers said equipment in the way of machinery and the tools, which the iron works is able to secure quickly, alone will limit the size of the contract.

Truck Plunges Into River; Man Missing

Yakima, Wash., May 5.—The Yakima river is being dragged for the body of M. M. Newton of Selah, thought to have been drowned when the heavy truck he was driving left the highway and plunged into the river 20 feet below. No trace of Newton or his body has been found.

MILLION DOLLARS SURETIES GIVEN IN BIG DAMAGE SUIT

Sureties for $1,000,000 were provided by Moy Back Hin and L. F. Anderson in District Judge Kakanaugh's court Tuesday, for the payment of any judgment which might be obtained against the Aleska-Portland Packers' association following the dissolution of an injunction tying up the business of that concern.

The preliminary injunction, which was then dissolved, was issued in connection with the suit of Lorenzo Malpica against Kwong Mun Yeun, Wong On, Wong Gee, Wong Moy, Wong Yet, Wong Hung and Sam Hi, the Kwong Mun Yuen company, Cannery Supply company and the Alaska-Portland Packers' association. Conspiracy was charged to conceal the true assets and avoid payment of damage claims, and that a dummy corporation was used for this purpose. In providing the sureties required by court, Moy Back Him offered as pledge his half-interest in the Oriental Investment company's capital stock, valued at $750,000. The company owns the Oregon hotel, valued at $400,000, and a $125,000 building at 233 Second street. The sureties offered by L. F. Anderson included a three stock brick building at Fourth and Everett streets, valued at $27,000, and 1280 acres of land planted to wheat in Umatilla county.

A verdict of $12,000 was secured by Malpica against the Cannery Supply company as compensation for injuries he received as an employe in a cannery in Alaska. The case was appealed to the supreme court and was sustained. In his subsequent action, Malpica alleges that the Cannery Supply company is a dummy concern, used by the Alaska-Portland Packers' association to avoid payment of damage claims.

COURT ORDERS RUNAWAY GIRL TO MOTHER'S CUSTODY

Flossie Orchard, the 15-year-old daughter of Mrs. Lena East, who ran away from her mother and made her home with her paternal grandmother, must return to the custody of her mother. Circuit Judge Tazwell so decided Monday afternoon, after having the matter under advisement since Friday. The girl's parents were divorced in 1910, and the father has been paying for the care of his daughter at his mother's home. The court had given the custody of the child to her mother.

Mrs. East and Flossie were secluded in the court chambers for nearly an hour before the decision was rendered.

HOSPITAL SUED FOR ALLEGED LOSS OF ONE EYE FOR BOY

Raymond Derrick, through his father, S. G. Derrick, has filed suit against the Portland Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat hospital, asking for $10,199.75 damages, alleged to have been caused by improper treatment of the lad, who was 11 years old at the time, and through which it is alleged he will be permanently blind in one eye.

The complaint alleges that the boy met with an accident in which a piece of wire penetrated the lens of his right eye; that he was taken to the hospital for treatment and that nurses, against the instructions of physicians, put drugs in the eye.

MAN SUES TO RECOVER PRICE PAID FOR SAWMILL

J. E. Pulkrabek has filed suit against the Bankers' Mortgage corporation for alleged breach of contract. He alleges he made a contract for the purchase of the sawmill at Toppendorf, four miles southeast of Sherwood, for $8000, and that this included the dismantling of the plant and the delivery of the engine, firebrick, etc., f. o. b. cars at Sherwood. After the verbal agreements were reached a written instrument was prepared, he alleged, but being a man of no education, he did not know what the instrument contained. Later he discovered it did not contain all the verbal agreements. He asks for the return of $2000 paid on the purchase price, also a certified check for $6000 deposited in a Portland bank; for $10,000 general damages and $3600 specific damages for the alleged breach of contract.

COURT ISSUES INJUNCTION AGAINST TAILORS' UNION

As the result of an agreement reached between John W. Kaste, attorney for the Merchant Tailors' association, and W. S. U'Ren, attorney for the labor unions, and submitted to Circuit Judge McCourt Tuesday, the judge issued an injunction today restraining Journeyman Tailors' union No. 70 and all its members from interfering in any manner with employes of the Merchant Tailors' association in the Commonwealth building, or in the streets or at the homes of the employes.

The community workshop is not to be picketed, but the merchant tailors will give to the union a copy of its contract and a list of the names of the employes, so that peaceful means of presenting the union claim may be used if desired.

$100,000 DAMAGES ASKED OF STREET CAR COMPANY

Suit for $100,000 damages was brought by Florence Rostad, through her mother, Mrs. Celia Rostad, as guardian, against the Portland Railway, Light & Power company, Tuesday. Miss Rostad, who is 17 years of age, was boarding a street-car March 30 at Twenty-ninth avenue and East Fiftieth street, when she was thrown under the wheels. Her left leg and arm were cut off and her right ankle was seriously injured.

Another damage suit against the company was filed by G. M. Wood, a lineman, who alleges that on January 13 he received an electric shock while working on a pole, causing the crippling of both hands. He asks for $625 damages for loss of time and for $20,000 general damages.

CONTRACTORS TO BUY ROCK CRUSHED AT KELLY BUTTE

An advantageous contract has been arranged by Roadmaster Eatchel between the county and Cochran Brothers, contractors, whereby the contractors will take the surplus rock broken by county prisoners at Kelly Butte, for use on city street improvement in that vicinity. The county will receive $1.75 per cubic yard for three inch crushed rock and $2 per cubic yard for screenings. About 5000 cubic yards are wanted by the contractors. At present 40 prisoners are at work at the rock crusher.

HUSBAND FILES SUIT FOR ANNULMENT OF MARRIAGE

Paul S. Drake, who was married to Bessie M. Drake at Vancouver, Wash., August 11, 1913, has filed suit for annulment of the marriage. He alleges that prior to this marriage a divorce decree had been granted to the woman, but that this was less than six months from the time of their marriage.

Suit for divorce has been filed by Arthur L. Pangburn against Alice Pangburn. The plaintiff alleges that they were married in Vancouver, Wash., on January 31 last. He alleges Edith G. Keeney filed a suit for divorce from J. J. Keeney, alleging cruelty.

Hazel Goode Charges Desertion

Hazel F. Goode filed a divorce suit against Frank Charles Goode Tuesday, alleging cruelty. Other divorce suits filed Tuesday were: Joe R. Routsong against Lucille E. Routsong, charging desertion; C. H. Poppenhagen against Lottie B. Poppenhagen, on the same charge.

William McKay Guilty

William McKay was found guilty in Circuit Judge Gatens' court Tuesday of passing fictitious checks. He will be sentenced at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon. McKay passed bogus checks at the grocery store of William Schumekli, 114 East Twenty-eighth street north, and the bakery of J. M. Anderson, next door. The defense was that he was mentally irresponsible.

Mrs. Jones' Will Filed

The will of Mrs. Sarah Jane Jones, who died at Gresham, March 27, has been filed for probate. The estate is valued at $3000, but a feature of the will is a penciled paragraph on its back, signed "S. J. Jones," which says: "My desire is for May Wood to have her mother's feather bed when I am done with it." Mrs. Wood is a granddaughter of the deceased.

WOOD IN N. Y. TO QUIET ROW OF HIS MANAGERS

contemplation of the fight in its final rounds at Chicago.

As reported from time to time, there has been a marked lack of coordination in the Wood organization between Frank Hitchcock, pulling political strings on the one hand, and Colonel William Proctor, pulling money bag strings on the other. And this grating within the machinery, while repeatedly belittled, nevertheless has been constantly increasing, if the eyes and ears of those in touch with the situation see and hear aright.

It was stated at Wood's Eastern headquarters today that an end of the conflict had to be achieved and for that reason Wood decided to meet his various managers here this week. The general arrives in New York Tuesday. Hitchcock is here now.

SHAPING UP CANDIDATES

Norman J. Gould and Thomas W. Miller, the Eastern managers of the general, are in Hitchcock's corner getting their candidate in trim. With them is Senator George H. Moses, Southern manager for Wood.

Colonel Proctor was reported to be in New York today, but at his hotel here it was stated he was not scheduled to arrive until Tuesday morning. He, too, brings his "seconds."

The general, acting in the capacity of referee and, under the rules, the only man who can render a decision as between Hitchcock and Proctor, will take up quarters at the Astor. Hitchcock is at the Manhattan and Proctor will be at the St. Regis.

After the general's arrival there promises to be a general movement of forces from the Manhattan and St. Regis in the general direction of the Astor.

HITCHCOCK PICKED TO WIN

And what takes place after that remains to be seen. Thus far there has been considerable bitter talk, never for direct quotation, on both sides. The decision of the general may not result in either Hitchcock or Proctor leaving his board of management, but is expected to bring about a staking off of the respective spheres of influence of the two leaders, and in view of the fact that the pre-convention race is now virtually out of the primaries stage and into the stage where sharp political maneuvering is in order, Hitchcock is expected by his supporters here to win the decision against Proctor. He will then begin the crucial battle with Penrose, the results of which will be known some time on or after June 8, next, at Chicago.

BORAH RENEWS DEMAND FOR WOOD CAMPAIGN ACCOUNTING

Washington, May 5.—(U. P.)—Senat leaders today were consulting on a renewed demand by Senator Borah for investigation of General Wood's campaign expenditures.

Following receipt of information concerning the Ohio and Indiana primary campaigns conducted in behalf of General Wood, Borah renewed his demands that a proper committee be instructed by the senate to make an inquiry.

Borah's friends say today they will not consent to an investigation unless they are satisfied with the committee. If they do not get the committee they want, Borah and his friends will again carry the question of campaign expenditures into the open senate, they said.

Masons Initiate Candidate

McMinnville, May 5.—One hundred and fifty Masons met in this city to confer the third degree on a candidate Tuesday evening, with Judge Bronaugh, grand master, officiating. Six of the seven lodges in the county were represented.

HOOVER SENDS GREETING TO ALUMNI OF HIS ALMA MATER, PACIFIC COLLEGE

"I am glad of the opportunity to send greetings to the alumni and ex-students of Pacific college, and I should like to be enrolled as a member of your body, as I claim to be among its pioneer students, now 25 years ago. The college has done good and faithful work and deserves all of our support."

Such was the message Herbert Hoover sent to his former fellow students from Pacific college, Newberg, who gathered at the Benson hotel Tuesday evening to renew friendships and to form an active alumni organization for the promotion of a cooperative spirit between former students and the college.

Graduates and former students were present to hear the addresses of Acting President John Mills of Pacific college, who spoke about the needs of the institution, and others. Emmer Newby of Vancouver acted as toastmaster. Other speakers were Professor R. W. Kirk of Oregon City, Will Allen of Salem, Laura Hammer, cousin of Herbert Hoover and recently returned from service in Europe; Gladys Hannor of Portland, and A. D. Kenworthy of Portland.

The meeting resulted in the appointment of a committee to perfect a permanent organization for Portland and vicinity, with Mr. Kenworthy as chairman, and closed with a rendition of the old college song.

The train will consist of two compartment cars, six 12 section drawing room cars, observation, baggage and two dining cars. Accommodations for 125 delegates are being arranged. The Portland representation will be swelled by delegates from Astoria, Grays Harbor and Seattle.

The Portland delegation will make its headquarters at the Bellevue hotel in San Francisco.
