Had the Beaver boss had a capable pinch hitter to throw into the breach in the ninth frame of Wednesday's contest in Los Angeles when the Angels were "volplaning" as the result of boots by K. Crandall and Niehoff, the Mackmen might have won the game.

There were three men on the bases with two outs. Mac looked over his pinch hitters. He did not find any. He picked "Suds" Sutherland to swing the hickory. Well, "Suds" is a pretty fair hitter, but is no pinch hitter. Give us a hitter of the Buddy Ryan or Ken Williams

Beavers Helpless Before Veteran Pitcher Until Last Two Innings: Griggs Stars.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 13.— Masterful pitching by Ote Crandall, supported by timely hitting by Art Griggs and Sam Crawford, aided Los Angeles to trim Portland in the opening game of the series Wednesday, 3 to 1.

Crandall held the Beavers to two hits until the eighth inning, when two were bunched but a snappy double play choked off a Beaver raily. In the ninth frame, two boots and a single gave Portland its lone tally.

Maisel, who had replaced Blue, chased for crabbing on a decision in the sixth inning, was safe on K. Crandall's error. Niehoof booted Wisterzil's effort. Siglin forced Wisterzil and Schaller sin-gled, scoring Maisel. Cox was an easy out and Koehler was walked, filling the bases. Sutherland was sent in as a pinch hitter but grounded out to Griggs. Polson's wildness gave Los Angeles one of their tallies in the fourth. Two triples by Griggs and Crawford scored the third run in the sixth. Crawford was caught trying to score on a squeeze play.
