

BROWN COMPLETES TITLE OF MARKET COMMISSION BILL

Salem, May 21.—The ballot title for the state market commission bill, being initiated by the State Taxpayers' league, has been prepared by Attorney General Brown and is ready for signatures to secure for the measure a place on the November ballot.

The measure is designated the "State Market Commission Act" and its purpose is set forth in the ballot title as follows:

"To create a 'state market commission' establishing the office of state market director, salary $4500 per annum, and secretary, salary $3500 per annum, defining duties and powers of commission to be to assist in economical distribution of products in a fair and equitable manner, disseminate information concerning market conditions, encourage cooperation among producers, distributors and consumers, modify and amend laws, rules, regulations, orders and decrees, supervise markets and cooperative associations, issue labels in certain cases, inspect products in storage warehouses and common carriers, authorizing hiring attorney and other employees, providing for appropriation of $50,000 to cover expenses through year 1922 and providing penalties for violation of the act."

A formal complaint against the service rendered by the Southwestern Water company of Multnomah county, was filed with the public service commission Thursday by Ellis C. Thayer and others. The assets of the company were recently transferred to the Multnomah Cooperative Water association, the complaint shows.

Funds contained in the $100,000 emergency appropriation voted by the 1919 session of the state legislature may be used for the support of dependents of Oregon ex-service men who may be incapacitated for work under the jurisdiction of public authorities. This is the gist of an opinion rendered by Attorney General Brown in reply to a query from F. W. Mulkey of Portland, chairman of the Oregon soldiers' and sailors' commission. The use of the fund in the interest of Oregon ex-service men and their dependents is left entirely to the discretion of the commission, Brown holds.

Dealers selling automobiles to persons engaged in the bootlegging business must do so at their own risk. They cannot insure the car against loss through confiscation by federal agents. This is the gist of an opinion prepared by I. H. VanWinkle, assistant attorney general, in reply to a query from A. C. Barber, state insurance commissioner, as to whether a "confiscation clause" could be attached to insurance policies covering loss on automobiles in this state.

Such a clause is against public policy, according to Van Winkle, who holds that it would only tend to lessen the diligence of persons selling automobiles on conditional sales and assist persons intending to engage in a violation of the United States prohibition law in making the purchase of an automobile for use in their traffic.

Objection to the extension of Henrietta street, Portland, across the tracks of the Oregon Electric railway at grade, was made Thursday in a formal answer to the petition of the city of Portland, filed with the public service commission by the Oregon Electric company. The construction of a grade crossing at the point named is held to be hazardous.

The state sanitary livestock board will meet at Burns, Monday, the opening day of the Oregon Horse and Cattle Raisers' annual convention. Dr. W. H. Lytle, state veterinarian, will leave Sunday to attend the meeting.

$746,800 Available To Farmers Under Provisions of Bill

Los Angeles, May 21.—(I. N. S.)—A sum of $746,800 will shortly be available for loans to farmers in California, as a result of the passage of the bill to permit the treasury to buy all farm loan bank bonds, which have no market, according to announcement made here today at Senator James D. Phelan's local office.

Accused Man Faints; Murder Trial Halts

Twin Falls, Idaho, May 21.—While on trial in district court here, charged with the murder of a Basque sheepherder near Bliss several months ago, A. W. Carver, prominent ranchman of the Bliss region, fell into a swoon and it was necessary to stop the trial until he revived. He testified that he shot the herder in self-defense. The cause of the shooting was said to have arisen over the herder's refusal to keep his sheep off Carver's land.

DIRECTOR THOMAS WILL GO EAST ON SCHOOL MISSION

Director George B. Thomas was Thursday empowered by the school board to go to Washington, D. C., to employ a suitable person to assemble machinery needed for Benson Polytechnic school. He was directed to have the machinery forwarded and to obtain machinery required for the course in printing as designated by the committee of the board, writing to the board for confirmation.

Thomas will leave as soon as the returns of the primary election have been made known.

CLERK SENDS TELEGRAM

Action was taken as a result of a telegram from Clerk R. H. Thomas, attending a school clerks' convention at Milwaukee, who had been authorized by the board at its last meeting to go to Washington before returning west.

asking that George B. Thomas be sent instead, because of his greater knowledge of printing machinery and the needs at Benson Polytechnic school.

Thomas on his previous trip to Washington selected $10,000 worth of machinery, part of which was shipped, and part of which has yet to be assembled and shipped. Previous selections were made before the action of the board in establishing a printing course calling for additional equipment.

The machinery thus purchased from the surplus stock of the war department is obtained at a cost of 15 cents on the dollar of the original price.

TO PLACE ON BALLOT
Contingent upon the two mill tax failing to pass, the board authorized its placement upon the ballot in the school election of June 19 so as to provide for the continuance of the present salaries of Portland teachers.

Superintendent Grout was instructed, upon the recommendation of Director Thomas, to investigate the possibilities of installing a course in bricklaying at Benson Polytechnic school and to report back at the next meeting.

Miss May Darling was elected head of the history department at Washington high school.

It was voted to allow all ex-service men in high schools two credits for each year in service, the total number not to exceed six high school credits.

Fraternity House Destroyed by Fire

Eugene, May 21.—Fire, supposed to have originated in a defective flue, Thursday practically destroyed the Bacherford fraternity house, a two-story structure near the campus of the University of Oregon. The interior of the building was gutted. Much of the furnishings on the first floor was saved by students. The extent of the loss is not known.

Herbert Hoover to Visit Boyhood Home

Salem, May 21.—Herbert Hoover, food administrator and candidate for president of the United States, plans to visit Salem, the home of his boyhood, in the near future. Word to this effect has been received by Mrs. Agnes H. Ekelson of this city, a cousin of Hoover. Hoover has not been in Salem since he left here in 1891, a lad of 17 years, to attend Stanford university.

State Chamber to Enlarge Its Scope And Organization

Approval of the plans of the State Chamber of Commerce to enlarge the scope of its activities and strengthen its organization was given Thursday afternoon by officers and directors of the Portland Chamber of Commerce at a meeting of directors of both organizations in the Benson hotel. The meeting was called to gain a definite understanding as to the division of work in the state. W. D. B. Dobson, executive secretary of the Portland chamber, will assist in organizing Portland for its part in the movement.

Present at the meeting were: Representing the state chamber, Charles Hall, J. L. Edgeridge, C. C. Chapman, George M. McMorran and E. E. Brodie. Representing the Portland chamber, H. B. Van Duser, A. J. Bala, Max S. Hirsch, W. D. B. Dobson, Roy T. Bishop, E. G. Crawford, Peter Kerr and E. H. Strons.

I am paying out real dollars in this Real Clothing Sale!

A REAL Clothing Sale! Hundreds of men this week have found it so, much to their profit, and consequent pleasure.

I first advertised this sale in last Sunday's papers, May 16, but it was my pleasure to make it date from May 1. I don't like half-months or half-way measures!

So, if you bought a suit for cash at my store on any day between May 1 and May 15, bring me the sales slip and I will pay you the difference in cash. If your account was charged with a suit between May 1 and May 15, the difference will be credited to you.

This sale is all-inclusive; it involves every man's, young man's and boy's suit in my store, without any reservation whatever. It embraces many of the finest makes of clothing in America, such as these:

- Hickey-Freemen clothes for men;
- L System clothes for young men;
- Skolny clothes for young men and boys;
- Wearpledge Insured clothes for boys.

You know the worth of these clothes; you know, too, that they are sold throughout the entire United States, and that they have an established price which differs but little, whether sold on the Pacific coast, the Atlantic coast, in the north, or the south.

Now, I am selling these clothes at an actual, visible reduction of twenty per cent (and more in many cases) from their regular established prices. Surely, this is profit-taking time for the men of Portland!

I would have you remember this, too: I have not been unmindful of the constantly rising costs of good clothing and I have purposely priced all my clothing this season at a smaller margin of profit than is customary and usual everywhere. I have felt that the retail merchant, who stands next in line to the consumer, should make every possible concession. So, then, the savings in this sale loom all the greater by reason of the reductions having been made from close-margin prices.

I urge my friends to buy clothes now—surely not through any wish for pecuniary profit to myself, but, rather, since I have made the opportunity, I earnestly seek the satisfaction that shall be mine when I know that this sale has been a real benefit—an accomplishment which I can look back upon with pleasure and satisfaction.

I hope to greet many here tomorrow—and I know that I shall.

Make short work of Wash Day

Buy an Electric Washer

Sooner or later you are bound to come to it—so why delay the day? Every washday that you continue to wash the old washboard way with its rubbing and fretting is not only costing you money but is gradually wearing down your health.

Even if you have a dependable laundress you still lose—because washboard rubbing ruins clothes and laundress' wages quickly mount up.

With an Electric Washer you can do the washing yourself, if you wish—or, if you have a laundress, she can easily do all the washing and most of the ironing in a single morning.
