RAID OF BANNOCK INDIANS RECALLED BY EARLY SETTLER

That Was When Harney Country Was One Vast Cattle Grazing Ground; Only Cook Killed.

Crane, Or., May 22 .- Among the pioneers of Harney county who can narrate many interesting reminiscences of former days, is John Witzel, who came to Canyon City in 1862. At that time Canyon City was in Harney county, as Grant was later organized and separated from Harney, so the early history of what is now Grant county belongs to the history of Harney.

The whole interfor country was then, as now, largely a stock country, and the cattlemen ranged their herds over the vast domain now embraced by Har-ney valley. Britzen valley, Diamond valley, and even Catlow valley. CHINESE IS KILLED

The Indians were troublesome in those days, and among Witzel's expe-riences was being wounded in the raid made by the Bannocks in this section Witzel was with Sylvester Smith, Sid

Thomas, Henry Ruby, a man named Dickson and another named Miller, and some others whom he is now unable to name, and their esteemed Chinese They were in the vicinity of Diaaccount of inferiority of numbers. The only casualty was the loss of the Chinese cook, who not being a good buckaroo, fell from his horse and was overtaken and massacred by the In-dians. Witzell was shot through the hips and his horse killed under him, but he escaped by riding behind one

INDIANS ROUTED The party made its way to the P where French then held command. Part of them went toward Cat-low valley and part to Fort Harney,

With this force Colonel Bernard en-gaged about 700 Bannocks and Piutes Elizabeth Montgomery, Hattle Martin, at "the battleground," in the vicinity Ruby White, Effic Davis, Annie Miller, of Riley. The Indians were routed, but Mary Ware, Rose Goff, Louise Silverof Riley. The Indians were routed, but the force of whites was too small to attempt to hold the position. The raiding savages went on to the northwest. however, and a large party of them were annihilated by a few men with a gatling gun when they were attempting to cross the Columbia river. Others that had dispersed and were not the life of the same router.

Mary Ware, Rose Goff, Louise Silverthorne, Marina Nelson, Annie Sexton, Marguerite Chamberlain, Gus Gartiez, Andrew White, Arthur Johnson, Williams Kennedy, Theodore Fayas, George Williams and Fred Wilder.
