

Social Calendar

Last Week Was Well Filled One

By Helen H. Hutchison

LUNCHEONS, teas and dinner parties, not to mention the usual number of benefits for worthy philanthropies and the annual spring showing of works of the Arts and Crafts society, have filled the social calendar during the past week. Preparations for the closing function of the school year at the School of Portland Art association, which will be a brilliant Spanish court festival, Friday evening, at the studios of the Art Museum, are under way and the students are busy preparing their costumes, stage settings and the backgrounds for the lovely tableaux which will be reproductions of old Spanish masterpieces. The festival includes a costume ball and an elaborate program and promises to be one of the most artistic social achievements of the season.

At the close of the week came the announcement of another, the engagement of Portland's popular maids when Miss Stella King's betrothal to O. Morgan McBride was announced at the tea given by Miss Isabella Clark, Saturday.

The coming week is full of interesting events planned for the pleasure of brides-elect and out-of-town visitors and including several functions attendant upon the last days of club seasons and the school year.

Mrs. Edmund L. Devereaux presided at a luncheon at the Waverley Country club Thursday, her guests including 12 friends, among whom were Mrs. Mary Scarborough, Mrs. Irving L. Webster, Mrs. Lee Hawley Hoffman, Mrs. Clarke D. Simmonds, Mrs. C. H. Davis Jr., Miss Helen McEachran, Mrs. Walter Lang, Mrs. Lee Hawley Hoffman, Mrs. George L. McPherson, Mrs. Guy M. Standifer and Mrs. D. W. L. McGregor.

Cast as Pandora, the leading character in the dancing fantasy of the same name, Miss Imogene Seton of Portland was the main contributor to the success of the outdoor dancing review in the Miss Marian Voorhies, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Gordon Voorhies, one of the Drama League players appearing in Eugene and Corvallis. Miss Olga Everett, whose engagement was recently announced to James Frankland of Seattle.

Miss Marian Voorhies

Miss Olga Everett

Art Class Will Be Guests of Mrs. Honeyman

FOLLOWING an interesting year of study, the Business Women's Art class will be guests of Mrs. Jessie Honeyman, Wednesday evening in the social hall of the Young Women's Christian Association. Mrs. Honeyman, who was the founder and one of the instructors of the class and who has been largely responsible for its success, will act as hostess for the occasion and has planned a program of special interest for the evening. R. Bruce Horehall will give a talk on birds which he will illustrate with his remarkable pictures of bird life and a number of unusual selections will complete the program which will be followed by a social hour. All members of the Business Women's Art class as well as the Business Women's club are invited to be present for the affair.

Interesting visitors in the city are Mrs. C. Redfield, former secretary of commerce, and Mrs. Redfield who arrived in the city Saturday to be here until Wednesday evening. They are stopping at the Multnomah hotel during their visit in Portland. Monday evening Mrs. Redfield will be a dinner guest at the home of Mrs. Joseph N. Teal, and Tuesday Mrs. Redfield will entertain Mr. and Mrs. Redfield with a motor trip and luncheon at Forest Hall.

Dr. Gustave E. Bruere, who was called east on account of the serious illness of his daughter, Ruth, will return with her next week. Miss Bruere's many friends will be happy to welcome her back and hear of her improved condition. Mrs. William Boys Banks, who accompanied her mother, Mrs. Bruere, home from Spokane, will remain with her parents here until the end of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick G. Wheeler, who have been spending the winter in California, returned to their home in Portland last week. Miss Katherine, who is a student at Stanford university, and Miss Anna, who is in school at the Santa Barbara school for girls, will arrive in a short time.

Mrs. Carrie Louise Dunning was the guest of honor at a luncheon given by Mrs. Laura Jones Rawlinson at her home, 564 Everett street, Tuesday. Mrs. Dunning recently returned from the south.

Mr. and Mrs. John Randall Flynn of the Multnomah hotel visiting Mr. Flynn's brother, James J. Flynn, and sister, Miss Mame Helen Flynn.

Miss Morgan to Become Bride on Next Saturday

THE marriage of Miss Helen Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Shelly Morgan, and David Hunter Gowans will be an event of Saturday evening at the home of the bride's parents in Irvington. In the absence of Dr. Joshua Stanfield, the service will be read by Dr. William Parsons. Mrs. Edward O'Neil will be mistress of honor and Miss Sara McCully, cousin of the bride, will be maid of honor. The bridesmaids will include: Miss Frances Hazelton, Miss Dorothy Hunziker, Miss Marian West and Miss Mary Woodward.

A Bruce Bailey, fiancé of Miss Dorothy Hunziker, will be the bridegroom's attendant.

Since the announcement of their engagement, Miss Morgan and Mr. Gowans have been much entertained. Friday evening, following the rehearsal for their marriage, Miss Dorothy Hunziker will be hostess for a supper party in their honor at the Arcadian grill.

The Misses Bell and Georgina McMillan were hostesses at their home in Regents Drive at a card party Saturday afternoon in honor of Mrs. William Bertram Watson (Pauline Fithian) of Harrogate, England. Among the guests present were Mrs. Samuel C. Holbrook, Mrs. Frank McCauley, Mrs. Maurice Barnes, Mrs. Hugh J. Boyd, Mrs. Max Smith, Mrs. Wilber Hayden, Mrs. Coe McKenna, Mrs. James A. Ambrose, Mrs. William J. Lyons, Mrs. Melrose Kaser, Mrs. Walter Yerian, Miss Bertha Masters, Miss Eugenia Craig, Miss Hannah McLeod, Miss Philomene Barnes, Miss Ethel Clark, Miss Nellie Hemenway, Miss Olga Hallingby, Miss Eileen Yerex, Mrs. Robert Fithian and Mrs. H. Carlson. Mrs. Watson was again the guest of honor Monday when Mrs. Frank McCauley entertained with a luncheon at the Benson hotel followed by a theatre party. The party included Mrs. William Bertram Watson, Mrs. Walter Hayden, Mrs. William Lyons, Mrs. Clifford Marshall, Mrs. E. Whiteley, Mrs. Coe A. McKenna, Miss Belle McMillan, Miss Nellie Hemenway.

Dr. and Mrs. David H. Rand entertained with a little dinner party Thursday evening on the event of their wedding anniversary. Covers were laid for 25 guests in the Hollyhock room of the Multnomah hotel. The rooms were beautifully decorated with spring blossoms and were attractive. The dinner was followed by cards, bridge and the game. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. John Burgard, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walden, Mrs. E. H. Black, Mrs. Theodore Nicolai, Mr. and Mrs. Abe Tichnor, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gile, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. W. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Watson, Dr. Max Cordwell, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul De Haas. The prizes were won by Mrs. Nicolai and Mr. Burgard.

Mrs. Thomas Sloate Barnes presided at an informal bridge tea Friday afternoon honoring Mrs. D. C. Oldenberg of Seattle, who is a visitor at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William MacMaster. Three tables for bridge were placed and additional guests called for the evening. R. Bruce Horehall presided at the table. Guests for bridge hours were Mrs. David T. Honeyman, Mrs. Arthur Murray Sherwood, Mrs. Oldenberg, Mrs. Ireland, Mrs. Maurice Doolittle, Mrs. Edward Smith, Mrs. Jack White, Mrs. Edward A. Thompson (Charlotte Freyman), Mrs. Gilbert H. Durham, Miss Katherine Holbrook and Miss Rhoda Rumell.

Mrs. Eugene G. White was hostess for a theatre party and tea Saturday afternoon, on the occasion of the birthday anniversary of her daughter Martha. Mrs. White was assisted on this occasion by Mrs. Vincent Cook, former girl, most of whom are students at Miss Catlin's school, were in the party and attended the matinee at the Baker, later enjoying the tea hour at the Portland hotel.

Judge and Mrs. C. D. Latourette, who make their home at the Hotel Portland, were dinner hosts Monday evening when they entertained a party of five in the main dining room.

Holy Rosary Is Scene of Pretty Wedding May 20

ONE of the charming wedding ceremonies of the week was that which united William Charles Kavanaugh and Miss Ethelwyn Frances Morris Thursday morning. The nuptial mass was read by Father Lawler before the flower decked altar of Holy Rosary church, at 8:30 o'clock, in the presence of a large company of the friends and relatives of the bridal couple.

Mrs. Byron E. Loomis attended the bride as matron of honor, and George P. Stanley was best man. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Clement G. Morris. Preceding the ceremony, Miss Ruth Anderson sang the "Ave Maria," with Miss Elizabeth Hoban at the organ.

For the ceremony the bride was smartly attired in a tall of brown, with small hat to match. Her flowers were a bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Loomis wore a frock of blue georgette crepe and a chic spring hat. Her bouquet was of Ophelia roses and sweet peas.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Anna McCann, in Irvington, after which Mr. and Mrs. Kavanaugh left for British Columbia. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. A. Morris of Irvington. She was graduated from Portland Academy and later finished at Dana Hall. During the war period she interested herself in philanthropic work and has since been employed at the Ladd & Titton bank. Mr. Kavanaugh is engaged in the insurance business in Portland. Both young people have given notice of their wedding trip they will make their home at 324 East Tenth street.

For the pleasure of Mrs. Robert W. Lewis, who is the guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William D. Wheelwright, a number of informal affairs have been given during the past week. Monday Mrs. John K. Kollock presided at a buffet luncheon for the visitor. Guests for the occasion included Mrs. Branch Parry, Mrs. George S. Whiteside, Mrs. Ellsworth V. Vachon, Mrs. Lucius Allen Lewis, Mrs. Bert C. Ball, Mrs. Stephen A. Appleby, Mrs. William Young, Mrs. Richard Koshier, Mrs. C. Alford, Mrs. E. B. Lintlum, Mrs. B. Roberson, Mrs. Daniel A. Shindler, Mrs. Ralph Schneelock, Mrs. Sherman R. Hall, Mrs. William H. Warrens, Mrs. George H. H. Parry, Mrs. William H. Skene, Mrs. A. S. Kerry, Mrs. William D. Washburn and Mrs. Lewis. Tuesday Mrs. Lewis also entertained, Mrs. Lewis at an informal tea last week.

Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Grace Elizabeth Menefee, daughter of Mrs. Oscar Robert Menefee, to Theodore Burney Wilcox, son of Mrs. T. B. Wilcox of Portland, to be solemnized at River Crest, Fort Worth, Texas, June 9, at 7 o'clock in the evening. Mr. Wilcox will bring his bride to Portland, where they will make their home at Glenwood farm after September 1.

Portland Heights club will give its last party for the month of May Friday evening, when an informal dance for seniors will take place. The committee for this month includes Mrs. H. A. Sargent, Mrs. M. L. Kline, Mrs. Elwood E. Hendershott and Mrs. W. L. Prantiss.

Mrs. William C. Alvord entertained at a dinner Friday evening honoring Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Henry of Stockton, Cal., who are visitors in the city at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Edward Grelle. Mr. Henry is a brother of Mrs. Grelle.

Miss Helen Farrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Farrell, was a visitor in the city last week at the home of Mrs. William Norman Burgard at Imperial Arms apartments. Miss Farrell left Thursday evening for her home in Seattle.

MRS. FREDERICK A. NITCHY, one of the patronesses for the benefit bridge tea to be given for the benefit of the woman's building of the University of Oregon at the Portland Heights club Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Frederick A. Nitchy

Cards Are Out St. Davids Parish For Wedding of House Will Be Miss Hunziker Scene of Party

CARDS are out for the wedding of Miss Dorothy Hunziker and A. Bruce Bailey, which will be an event of June 5 at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Roy McDaniel, in North Twenty-fourth street. The service will be read at 9 o'clock in the presence of a large company of friends and relatives of the young folk. In addition to Miss Helen Morgan, whose marriage to David Hunter Gowans will be an event of Saturday evening, there will be four bridesmaids, their number to include Miss Rosetta Parker of Fort Townsend, Miss Thelma Thompson of Pendleton, Miss Margaret Bronson and Miss C. Ichen Colton. Miss Adine Colburn of Seattle will be maid of honor. The bridegroom's attendant will be Dr. Thomas C. Bailey of Portland.

Miss Genevieve Thompson arrived in Portland Wednesday from California, where she has been spending the winter months.

Miss Marian Akers has chosen May 23 for the date for her marriage to Richard M. Word. The ceremony will be a quiet home affair at the bride's residence, 1434 Wistaria drive.

Loyal Legion Club Banquet Much Enjoyed

THE Young Men's Loyal Legion club gave a delightful reception and banquet at the clubrooms, 208 South Jersey street, Monday evening. Dr. P. N. Sandifer acted as toastmaster for the occasion and A. M. Warner, an overseas service man, and the organizer of the legion, spoke on the purpose of the club. Rev. N. E. Klister, Mr. Galloway, Mrs. Alice Leonard, Mrs. J. S. McKinney and Mrs. Klister responded to the toast. The guests present were Dr. and Mrs. N. Sandifer, Rev. W. E. Klister and Mrs. Klister, Mr. and Mrs. Galloway, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Thurston, Mrs. Alice Leonard, Mrs. O. E. Leonard, Mrs. Myrtle Weeks, Mrs. Galloway, Mrs. Vrooman Miss Hattie Galloway and Miss Pricilla Sandifer. The members of the club present were Wendell Klister, Paul Sandifer, Baxter Galloway, George Skells, Loyal Thurston, Oscar McKinney, Ralph Fairchild, James Norene, Paul Wagner, Earl Frowitt, Arthur Vrooman, Sherman Cochran and F. Shoda. Special credit is due Mesdames Sandifer, Galloway, Alice Leonard and O. E. Leonard for their untiring efforts in making the banquet a success.

Mrs. E. B. Swigert, one of the national vice presidents of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae, was a visitor in the city Wednesday. In her honor a tea was given in the afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock at the University club. For this occasion the officers and executive board received and presided at the tea tables. Their number included: Mrs. William H. Thomas, president; Mrs. George N. Woodley, first vice president; Mrs. L. L. Geary, second vice president; Miss Louise Jones, treasurer; Mrs. W. S. Fitzpatrick, secretary, and Mrs. Forrest Fisher, counselor, and Miss Zulema Kostomlatky, board member.

Portland friends will be interested to know that a painting by Miss Clara J. Stephens has been accepted for the spring exhibit at the National Academy of Design, New York city. The study is "The Ice Cream Parlor," and will be remembered as one of the notable pieces in one of the recent exhibitions at the Portland Art association. Miss Stephens won the first prize at the Northwest Art exhibit at Seattle recently with a figure and landscape study. She also has a portrait on display in the San Francisco Fine Arts society exhibition at the Palace of Fine Arts in the Southern city.

ANNIE LAURIE
BEAUTY SHOP
Face and Scalp Treatment
Shampooing, Hair Dressing
Marcelling
Dyeing and Bleaching
Open After 6 P. M. by Appointment
321 Pittcock Bldg.—Phone B-471

Clark's Flowers—Fresh every day.
Morrisson st., Bet. 4th and 5th. Tel. Main 7709

MARINELLO HAS
A BEAUTY AID FOR EVERY NEED
SHAMPOOING
HAIR DYEING
SPECIAL REST FACIAL MASSAGE
BLEACHING TREATMENTS
MUSCLE STRIPPING AND TONING
ELECTROLYSIS
SCALP TREATMENTS
MARINELLO PREPARATIONS
HAIR GOODS
Phone Marshall 2287 for Appointment
203-4 Broadway Building

The New, the Novel the Different

It's always at N. Solomon's. And the beauty of it is that you will find prices much lower than in the ordinary store.

If you are seeking a gift for wedding or anniversary, or something appropriate for a graduate, look here first.

Novelty Beads
In all the pretty color combinations affected this season. Greens, blues, scarlet, lavender; we have them all.

Jet Beads
handsome, dignified looking strings, effective with the popular black and white costume. Very good values.

Oriental Indestructible Pearls
how the girl graduate's eyes would sparkle if among her gifts was a string of these lovely, popular pearls. All lengths; moderate prices.

Diamonds
nowhere in Portland will you find better stock from which to select. Unique and charming designs in platinum diamond rings and pins.

French Twin Bracelets
happy the woman who wears these dainty bands on her arm. Gold lined in either jade or jet. There could be nothing smarter, and yet in such good taste.

Loose Link Bracelets
rhinestones set in silver or semi-precious stones in colors. Just what you want for Summer wear; match up your gowns, thus giving touch of distinction to your costume.

N. SOLOMON
"Portland's Novelty Jewelry Store"
333 Morrison Street

Lipman Wolfe & Co

"Merchandise of Merit Only"

Underprice News of—

Fine Footwear for Women

Specially Priced Monday

$6.45

A REMARKABLE lot of four hundred and seventy-six pairs, including Pumps, Ties and Oxfords in patent, gray buck, black buck, poplins, black calf and kid, and brown kid and calf.

—Come in a variety of styles in high and low heels, turn and welt soles—widths AAA, AA, A, B and C—sizes 1 1/2 to 9.

—Extra Special, $6.45 Pair. But every sale must be final—there positively will be no exchanges, refunds or credits.

Women's Oxfords—Special $7.95

—Black and brown kid Oxfords with ripillary heels—ideal for walking purposes. Made with medium heavy sole on medium long vamp last. Widths AA, A, B and C—sizes 3 to 8.

—Second Floor, Lipman, Wolfe & Co.

Our Convenient Credit Plan Will Appeal to You as It Has to Thousands of Others

A PLEASING COMBINATION FOR SPORTS WEAR

A plaid or a striped skirt and a jersey jacket—we doubt whether you could find a more attractive combination.

THE JERSEY JACKETS

Bright Red, New Blue, Copenhagen, Navy Blue, Brown and Kelly Green, with an occasional Heather and Black—these are the colors you may choose from. The prices are

$19.50 to $30.00

THE PLAID SKIRTS

are extra sizes, 30 to 36, and are fashioned from all-wool fabrics. Tans, Blues, Browns are the colors. Both box pleated and knife pleated models are shown.

For Warm Weather Wear, These Are the Ideal Garments

TAFFETA SUITS MOIRE SUITS SUITS OF LIGHT SILK

In two groups, both light and dark colors to choose from.

$23.75 and $34.75

Eastern Outfitting Co

Forest Fire Prevention Week May 23 to 29 Aid the government in preventing fires.

Washington Street at Tenth The Gray Tile Corner

Do Your Bit When in the Forest Help to keep Oregon's timber from fires.