

Two Famous Violinists to Appear Here

The appearance of two such notable artists as Eugene Ysaye and Mischa Elman, who will give one recital in Portland at the Helling theatre, direction Steers & Coman, June 2, is a great musical event in any city.

Of their concert in Minneapolis on April 7 the Minneapolis Journal of April 8 says: "The joint recital of Ysaye and Elman took place last night at the auditorium and proved one of the most remarkable and memorable events of its kind in the musical history of the Northwest."

Ysaye long has been recognized as an interpreter of music without a peer. The highest exponent of the Belgian school of violin art, his training, experience and accomplishments have made him universal. He played last night with an imperturbable perfection of tone production and an authority of reading that in every instance laid down the law without ever bringing home its austerity.

Helen M. Caples, presented by Miss Abby Whiteside in piano recital Thursday night in the Multnomah hotel ballroom, proved herself a remarkably talented student who works industriously with a definite aim. She is just out of high school but plays works of magnitude with technique equal to that of the big artists that come weekly heralded from afar.

The Portland Opera association, at its annual meeting Tuesday night at Central library, elected a board of directors consisting of Mrs. E. L. Thompson, Karl Herbring, Judge Jacob Kainzer, Walter Hardwick, Mrs. Lulu Dahl Miller, William L. Paul, John C. Boyer, Ivan Humason, Paul Petri, George Mason, F. T. Crowther and Blaine B. Cole.

A concert will be given Friday evening, May 28, at the Immanuel Lutheran church, 21st and Irving streets, under the auspices of the choir. The following program will be rendered: Organ solo, Grand Symphony in B (Haydn), "Minuet" (Brahms), Axel Askenberg; choir, David's forty-sixth psalm (Wennerberg); soprano solo, "Dear Ye O'rael" (Buck), Mildred Anderson; violin solo, "Mazurka de Concert" (Musin), Harriet Padden; tenor solo, "The Lord is My Light" (Felix Arlt); Arthur Johnson; cornet and trombone duet (selected), Archibald Maher and Herbert Scott; soprano solo, "Foot and Peasant" (Suppe), "Narcissus" (Nevin), Mr. Askenberg; tenor solo, "Min lilla var Bland Bergen" (Sundstrom), "Jag alskar dig" (Grieg), Arthur Johnson; violin solo, "Kiwiana" (Krieger), Harriet Padden; choir, "Harmig Guld" (Holmveig's Song) by Grieg and "Soft Footed Snow" by Lie, both of which furnish ample test for both voice and artistic conception. She closed the program with Chaminade's "Summer." Miss prano, who was presented in recital Wednesday night in the Multnomah hotel ballroom by Charles Swenson. She closed the program with Chaminade's "Summer." Miss

Club Chorus Scores Hit in First Concert

The final meeting of the MacDowell club was held Tuesday afternoon at the Hotel Multnomah. The ball room was filled to capacity with an enthusiastic audience, which pronounced the program one of the biggest successes of the club season. The reorganized chorus made its first appearance under W. H. Loyer's direction, and made a distinct place for itself among Portland's musical assets. The 30 voices sang as one, responding to Mr. Loyer's every thought, in fine shading tonal quality and artistic interpretation. The exquisite beauty of the Victor Harris arrangement of the Strauss "Serenade" brought an ovation for singers and director, and the number was repeated. The beautiful quality of the contralto section was well shown in "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot." The Saint Saens "Night" was one of the biggest numbers on the program, was sung with the subdued calm of the "Marvel of the Night" and showed, perhaps more than any other number, the splendid teamwork of the chorus. Mrs. R. M. Lansworth, the charming coloratura soprano, sang the incidental solo with flute obbligato, played by Robert Miller. Mrs. Lansworth also contributed two solo numbers, which gave much pleasure. She added an encore. The climax of the afternoon came in the "Tribute to Raymond," in which 11 members of the Apollo club assisted. Kurt Shindler has taken an old Catalan folk song and transformed it into a most dramatic recital of the legend, making very realistic the excitement of the people over the miracle of St. Raymond's approaching across the water, his cloak forming the vessel, and when the bells of the cathedral ring out in praise the climax is thrilling. This was magnificently sung. Mr. Loyer's skill and artistry as a director are well known, but another leaf has been added to his laurel wreath by the success of this recital. Much praise should be given Van Dyke Hardwick for her delightful accompaniments. She showed herself in perfect sympathy and acceptance of both music and singers. After the program a business meeting was held, at which annual reports were heard and read. The new officers are: Mrs. Harry Bea, Torrey, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Donald Spencer, treasurer.

A new vista is opened and we thank you for the inspiration to try to go far on the new road."

Rethlefsen as Juliet in Juliet's scene with the Friar and Mrs. Rethlefsen gave the scene in which Juliet drinks the poison. All parts were well taken and splendid interpretations given.

Splendid musical numbers were given by a trio, Miss Wilhelma Ritter, cello; Miss Virginia Knight, cello, and Artha Parker, piano. The dramatic department is new in the club this year and the program given was certainly a credit to the department and to the club.

The Monday Musical club chorus has disbanded the season after a very interesting and successful year's work under the able direction of Mrs. Rose Coursen Reed.

When Buying a Piano Good Quality is Real Economy

Most people buy a Piano once in a lifetime. They start out to buy where they can "do the best" (as they think), not where they can "get the best" (as they should). The attribute "best" to many usually means the lowest price. Now pianos, like everything else in the world, are priced according to their intrinsic worth. They cannot be made to sell (and endure) at the prices which some unscrupulous dealers offer them. The "cheap prices" are for "cheap pianos"—beware of them, because the instruments soon give out, sound tinny, become unplayable—and you have to buy another new Piano.

Why not buy a good piano in the first place? It will be real economy to consider quality as well as price. A good dealer carries several grades of Pianos, when measured by price. You may not be able to afford the most expensive, but you will be able to buy according to your purse—the buying will be made easy by convenient term payments—and what you buy will have Quality—will give service—will cause you no regrets.
